Oregon Entrant Gets Close Run When Second Honors Are Awarded to Miss Wagoner of Washington.

Portland held her own in beauty in mpetition with fair bathers from all the northwest when Miss Pearl Keyes was declared the most attractive by the plaudits of the crowd which wit-nessed the contest at Columbia beach yesterday.

Miss Keyes is a new swimmer in local water circles and has been seen at the beaches but little. She says Oregon is her native state and she is a girl typical of the great out-of-doors. A decided blonde, her figure and carriage spoke of life in the open that brings color to roses and girls.

Twenty-two girls entered the contest, about half of whom were Portlanders. Miss Keyes was closely test, about half of whom were Port-landers. Miss Keyes was closely pressed for honors by Miss Bertle Wagoner, who had adopted Washing-ton as her state, although a Portland woman. Third went to Mrs. Connie Meyer, who admittedly had the most attractive costume and was ably supplemented in her pose by her big buildog "Brownie," who was as proud as his mistress of his big purple and
