Mrs. Stewart Edward White, who was here from California with her husband.

Miss Rosetta Klocker, house guest of Miss Dorothy Hunziker.

Miss Molly Green, daughter of Mrs. Fred H. Green, who is away for the summer.

Mrs. T.H. Beverly, hostess at a large tea recently.

WITH August has come almost automatically a much larger exodus to the beaches, to mountains and to summer homes. Many Portlanders have gone to the national parks or to the eastern states, to California and Banff. Entertaining is more strictly informal than ever, being chiefly for out-of-town guests, of whom there have been a number in Portland during the past week. The younger set is enjoying swimming parties, little suppers, motor trips and house parties. Luncheons and a very few dinner parties, all of them small, have constituted about the only other entertainment for guests. Two benefit teas were given the past week, which were the largest affairs of the week. The bridge tea at the home of Mrs. T. H. Beverly on Thursday was one of the most successful of the many which have been given for the women's building fund of the University of Oregon. Many people called at the tea hour also on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lee Hoffman. The tea was given by the Arts and Crafts society for the benefit of the art educational work of the society.

Miss Darlene Kimball, who has been the house-guest of Mrs. Max H. Houser for several weeks, will remain in Portland another week. She will be Mrs. Chester Murphy's guest this week. Many informal affairs have been given in her honor during her visit here. On Monday, she shared honors with Miss Ruth Teal, whose engagement to Carlton Walter Betts of New York was recently announced, at a dinner at Forest Hall for which Ernest Swigert was host. Miss Blanche Burke entertained with a luncheon at the Waverley Country club on Tuesday, followed by a bridge party. A dinner was given for eight. Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse was hostess at an informal bridge tea on Thursday.

Important among the affairs of the week was the bridge tea for which Mrs. T. H. Beverly and Mrs. Ernest Willard were hostesses on Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Beverly's home, 544 Elizabeth street. The affair was a benefit for the University of Oregon women's fund building. Games and tables were made up for bridge and many more called during the tea hours. An informal musical programme was given by Albert Gillette, baritone, accompanied by Miss Mayme Helen Flynn. Mr. Gillette was soloist for the University of Oregon men's glee club at Eugene when he was in college. The rooms were abloom with garden flowers. Mrs. W. C. Alford, Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, Mrs. A. A. Morrison and Mrs. William H. Skene presided at the tea tables, which were decked with zinnias. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Rhoda Numelin, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Jean Skene, Mrs. Jack White, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs and Mrs. Curtis Bailey. Many affairs are being planned for the popular women's building cause this summer, in which University of Oregon students and alumnae are taking an active part.

A charming visitor in Portland is Miss Rosetta Klocker of Fort Townsend, Wash., who is the house-guest of Miss Dorothy Hunziker. Miss Klocker arrived Sunday and has been the inspiration for much informal entertaining. She is a former Portland academy girl and has a host of friends who knew her at the academy and at the University of Washington, where she is a member of Alpha Phi sorority, of which Miss Hunziker is also a member. Miss Hunziker entertained in honor of her guest with a large tea yesterday afternoon, for which 150 invitations were issued at the Klocker home, which her parents have taken for the summer. Mrs. A. B. Bailey and Mrs. H. Ashby Ely poured and Miss Gretchen Colton, Miss Helen Morgan and Miss Mary Woodward assisted about the rooms, which were beautiful with a profusion of garden flowers. Miss Helen Morgan entertained in her honor with a luncheon in the rose room of the Benson hotel Thursday. The guests, all former Portland academy students, were: Misses Dorothy Hunziker, Mary Woodard, Rose Irving, Mrs. Victoria S. Terry, of Los Angeles, house guest of Mrs. Beverly.

ing. Dorothy Collins, Jean Stevens, Edith Stowbridge, Anna May Bronaugh, Gretchen Colton and the honor guest.

Miss Winifred Chamberlain was hostess at a luncheon yesterday in the rose room of the Benson hotel, honoring Miss Klocker and Miss Helen Richards. Miss Richards arrived Friday evening from Tacoma to be Miss Chamberlain's house-guest. Covers were laid for the honor guests, Miss Dorothy Hunziker, Miss Helen Breen, Miss Mary Woodward, Miss Florence Dawson, Miss Frances Stowbridge, Miss Della Hughes, Miss Catherine Evans, Miss Helen Nicolai, Miss Richards is also an Alpha Phi from the University of Washington. She will enter the University of Chicago in the fall. Several affairs are being planned in her honor for this week. Miss Nicolai will be hostess at a tea at Crown Point chalet on Monday.

An interesting feature is promised at the fourth of the Arts and Crafts society's teas to be held Tuesday at the studio of Mrs. Lee Hoffman on the Barnes road in an exhibition of colonial quilts. A talk will be given on these quilts of our grandmothers' days and much interest centers in the exhibit, which contains many quaint patterns. The hostesses for this week's tea will be Mrs. A. B. Hockey and Mrs. W. J. Honeyman. Mrs. Ralph Wilbur and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger Jr. will pour. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Charles T. Donworth, Mrs. Charles Hindman, Mrs. Frederick A. Barker, Miss Ruth Teal and Miss Margaret Hewitt.

At last week's tea, the hostesses were Mrs. Harry Seal Torrey and Mrs. M. Donald Spencer. Presiding at the tea tables were Mrs. H. C. Wortman and Mrs. Charles Edward Curry, who were assisted by Miss Elizabeth Torrey and Miss Polly Kerr. Charles H. Chaney, authority on city planning, gave an interesting talk on "Practical Phases of City Planning for Portland." Another feature of the afternoon was an exhibition of embroidered linen purchased by a returned Red Cross worker from the nurses in the French convent.

The tea hours continue in popularity as a charming way of entertaining a group of guests and many informal parties are made up. No special invitations are issued and everyone interested in the work of the society is welcomed. The teas will be continued throughout this month; one of the days will be devoted to the women's building fund of the University of Oregon.

Miss Frances Brunson of East Orange, N. J., who has been the house guest of Miss Virginia McDonough for several weeks, left Friday night for California. She will visit the Rupert Masons in San Francisco and Miss Louise Burke in Los Angeles and then return east by way of Salt Lake City. She plans to reach home some time in September. Miss Brunson has been the inspiration for much entertaining during her visit in the city. She was the honor guest at a house party last weekend at the Patterson ranch near Salem. Early in the week a motor trip, chaperoned by Mrs. Granville Vernon, was enjoyed. Miss McDonough entertained with a swimming party and picnic for ten on Wednesday and Miss Harriet Cumming was hostess at an informal supper party on Thursday night. Alfred Sullivan entertained with a farewell dinner party Friday night.

An announcement of interest to the younger set is that of the engagement of Miss Jean Olive Jacobs to Harley H. Richardson of La Grande. Miss Jacobs, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, is a graduate of the Lincoln high school and later attended Oregon Normal school. She has a host of friends here. Mr. Richardson recently returned from the service, after being stationed for a year at Kelly Field. The wedding date is set for August 12. The wedding will be a quiet one at the home of the bride's parents, with only a few relatives and close friends present. The young couple will make their home in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Fields, Mrs. Guy Robert Porter and Mrs. Don Mulvane of Topeka, Kan., returned Monday from a two weeks' motor trip to San Francisco. The trip south was made by way of Shasta springs and the party returned by way of Lake Tahoe and the Yosemite valley. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Weaver (Nina Gubrie) of San Francisco accompanied them on the trip through the Yosemite.

Coming as a surprise to her friends was the announcement yesterday afternoon of the engagement of Miss Mary Helen Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Calvin Buckley, to William Henry Daugherty Jr., son of William H. Daugherty. The news was told at a tea for which Miss Buckley was hostess yesterday, complimenting Miss Janet Peters, who will leave soon to enter the University of California. Pinks and beautiful roses were about the rooms and in the dining room, pale pink and cream water lilies formed attractive decorations at the tea table, presided over by Mrs. Bruce Stewart and Miss Katherine Burnside. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Elizabeth Peters, Miss Jeannette Wiggins, Miss Elizabeth Wiggins and Miss Mabel Weed. About 100 guests called during the afternoon at the Buckley home in Irvington. Little Barbara Berger was stationed at the door and Virginia Mull gave the guests cards bearing the announcement as they left the dining room.

Miss Buckley is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and a musician of promise. She will leave soon for the east with her mother to study music. Mr. Daugherty is a member of the Multnomah and other clubs. The wedding date has not been set, but it will be in mid-winter.

A host of friends of Miss Virginia Mackenzie vied in filling her clothing days in the home with entertainment and attentions many and varied. She left Portland Tuesday evening for San Francisco and was to sail yesterday on the Korea Maru for Japan, where she will remain seven years before returning, as a missionary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

During the last few weeks she has been entertained informally by the R. S. McKibbens, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross, Miss Elizabeth Carothers, Miss Elizabeth Havelly and other Reed college girls. Miss Nuola Niemie of Reed and Miss Kate Holman gave afternoon teas, inviting a few friends to meet Miss Mackenzie, Professor and Mrs. E. A. Thayer gave a dinner party and Mrs. Fletcher Linn held a large reception for her in her home on Laurel street. To this were invited many women of the First Presbyterian church, of which Miss Mackenzie is a member, and many others in this vicin-
