 Hughson has been in the navy as an instructor in the aviation section at Columbia university and the Great Lakes station and was joined in New York last year by Mrs. Hughson.
 Great clusters of lacy arrowwood blooms formed the chief decoration in the rooms at the McMonie home. Punch was served in a charming nook on the spacious porch, where colored lights were prettily combined with greenery. A feature of the entertainment was a vocal selection by Lawrence Woodfin.
 Mrs. Frank Busch Jr. and Mrs. S. McMillen assisted the hostess in serving ices late in the evening. Little Miss Iris Evelyn Saunders presided over the punch bowl.
 Mrs. L. W. White was hostess at a luncheon Thursday, complimenting Mrs. Lockwood of Pasadena, Cal., who is visiting Mrs. Samuel P. Lockwood. Covers were placed for Mrs. P. E. Judd of Pendleton, Mrs. Jessie Stearns, Mrs. John Ross Dickson, Mrs. Samuel P. Lockwood, Mrs. Charles Chamberlain, Mrs. H. W. Dickson of Pendleton and Mrs. Noulle.
 Mrs. I. E. Chandler of Laramie, Wyo., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Louis Fitch, and son, Edwin Fitch, has been a house guest of Mrs. Roy Payne during the past week. Mrs. Chandler also visited Mrs. Frank Ira White at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Dubois, 1814 G street, Vancouver, where Mrs. White is convalescing from a recent illness. Miss Fitch will enter Notre Dame in September.
 Mrs. Edna A. Bell has as her guest for the summer her mother, Mrs. E. B. Plank, of Sacramento. Mrs. Plank, who is 83 years of age, is one of California's earliest pioneers. She made almost the entire trip across the plains on the back of a favorite pony.
 Miss Dorothy Louise Bliss, who is now in Canada with the Chautauqua, will go to Chicago August 15 to study music for the summer. She will return October 1, after visiting friends in St. Louis and Denver.
 Miss Margot Healy of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, who has been visiting Mrs. Frank S. Healy at Seaview, Wash., probably will return tomorrow and will leave soon for her home. Her cousins, the Misses Healy, 714 Irving street, are planning several informal affairs in her honor.
 Miss Agnes McBride left on Thursday for Victoria, B. C., to attend the British Columbia championship tennis tournament. She will visit in Vancouver, B. C., and in Seattle before returning home.
 The Knights of Columbus will hold their annual outing at Estacada park on August 10. A special train to convey the knights and their friends will leave East Water and Morrison streets at 9:15 A. M. There will be races of all kinds for men, women and children, with suitable prizes for the winners, and dance music will be provided by Darby's orchestra.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin (Lillian McKay) are being congratulated on the arrival of a daughter, born Saturday, July 28. They have named her Shirley Ann.
 An engagement of interest is that of Dr. Arthur S. Rosenfeld, a physician of this city, to Miss Ruth Goldsmith of Los Angeles, Cal. Dr. Rosenfeld is the son of Mrs. Sol Rosenfeld. He has been home from overseas service for about two months. Abroad he was with base hospital unit No. 46 for more than a year, having been stationed at Baccos-sur-Meuse, in France.
