

NEWS OF WORLD

AS SEEN BY CAMERA

She Painks and Writes With Her Teeth

THROUGH illness Miss Losalle Freedman of Philadelphia lost the use of her arms, but has learned both to write and paint by holding pen or brush between her teeth.

Mrs. Jules S. Bache of New York, a prominent society leader, has received an unusual distinction in having the Belgium war medal awarded to her for work for the Belgian war babies.

William Pester, after living 17 years in the deserts of southern California, has located in New York, where he proposes to show citizens of that metropolis how to live on $5 a week. As one striking economy he goes without shaves and haircuts.

Press reports recently told of the landing in this country of two German prisoners. It develops that Alfred Scholz and Alwin Grothe, the so-called prisoners, gave information to General Pershing of Von Hindenburg's plans for retreat which greatly helped the American forces in routing the Hun.

The men were brought to this country for protection against German revenge.

The lure of gold appeals alike to men and women. Mrs. Mary J. Nunas, 80, owns several mining claims located six miles from Tonopah, Nev., and has sunk about 20 shafts, doing all of the drilling, blasting and hoisting herself. She refuses to sell for less than $50,000 and declares she will not sell for less than the claims are worth if she has to work them until she is 100 years old.

Captain Fryatt, master of a British merchant ship, was a martyr to German hate. Because his ship rammed a submarine about to attack it, he was shot by the enemy after capture. The body was taken to England from Belgium and appropriate services were held at St. Paul's cathedral.

Until she had proceeded from Seattle to a point east of Chicago, Mrs. J. N. Franklyn, 25, a nurse of Bellevue hospital, in walking across the continent slept beside the road wherever night-fall overtook her. The hike was made to win a $2000 prize. She carried a camping outfit weighing 18 pounds, and was not allowed to accept a lift unless asked twice.

Louis Martacal, Italian, and Ydes Detoapou, French, professional one-armed golfers, are demonstrating on various American links that the loss of one arm does not deprive one of the great sport. Their scores make many two-armed players envious of superior skill.

The United States submarine K-5 is the first ever to sail the upper Mississippi. It is on a recruiting expedition, accompanied by a complete flotilla of war vessels.

Miss Pauline Holt, yeomanette, who is making a trip up and down the Mississippi river in a navy submarine, is credited with being the first woman ever to take a tour in a submarine.

Mrs. Jules S. Bache, Awarded Belgian War Medal.

Mysterious Prisoners That Helped Defeat the Huns.

Shows New Yorkers How to Live on $5 a Week

Mrs. Mary J. Nunas, 80, Works Mining Claims.

Body of Capt. Fryatt, British Martyr, Arriving in England.

Mrs. John N. Franklyn Hikes Across Continent.

French and Italian One-armed Golfers in Match.

First Submarine to Visit Upper Mississippi.

First Woman to Take Trip in Submarine.