tage at Neah-Kah-Nie, was in Portland the past week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mackay.

Mrs. Freeman O. Downing was the house guest of Mrs. Frederick Leadbetter at Camas, Wash., the past week. Lieutenant and Mrs. Clare Wallace Woodward (Cornelia Stanley) will spend a few weeks in and about Portland visiting old friends before leaving for San Francisco, where Lieutenant Woodward will report for duty. They will sail later for China. They spent the past week at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Brien at Gearhart. They have come from Rockford, Ill., where Lieutenant Woodward has been stationed.

Mrs. Elmer Rhodes Moller, who was in Portland early in the week, left Wednesday for her home in Hood River.

Miss Marion Voorhies and Miss Sally Hart have returned from a visit at Seaside. Mrs. Gordon Voorhies is still at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Bowles, Miss Marion Bowles and Miss Molly Green have returned from a delightful trip to Banff.

Mrs. Allan C. Balch of Los Angeles and Miss Edna Rogers of New York were at the Benson hotel the past week. Dr. H. C. Jefferds entertained in their home at dinner at the University club Thursday evening. Dr. and Mrs. John Forest Dickson also were guests. Mrs. Balch is returning from a trip to Alaska. Both Mr. and Mrs. Balch are close friends of Dr. and Mrs. Dickson.

Mrs. William MacMaster was hostess at a luncheon party Wednesday at the Waverley Country club honoring several guests from the east. Covers were placed for Mrs. W. K. duPont, her daughters, Miss Paulina and Miss Wilhelm; her son, Hallock duPont, and Miss Gertrude Barnickie and Samuel E. Bird, all of Wilmington, Del.; James Ingram of New York and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Edwin L. Shevlin, Miss Louise Lindholm, M. Ireland and the hostess. Mrs. duPont's party was here for only a few days. They left for the east Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bird and their son, Samuel E. Bird, of Wilmington, Del., were also in Portland the early part of the past week. They left Thursday for a trip to California before returning east.

Joshua Marvel with his two sons and daughters of Wilmington, Del., have gone to California for a short trip. They have visited Glacier and Yellowstone National parks.

Of unusual interest to Portland society will be the wedding of Miss Mary Alice Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luthene Clarendon Gilman, of Fordham, Mass., to take place Wednesday at the Sunset club, Seattle.

Mrs. Charles P. McCulloch was hostess and presiding at the tea tables were Mrs. Charles E. Wolston and Mrs. Edwin Caswell. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George Norris Woodley, Mrs. Herman Bohman, Mrs. Allan M. Ellsworth, Miss Dorothy Sanford, Miss Dorothy Parsons, Miss Lois Macy and Barbara Lull.

No special invitations are issued for the tea and the society invites everyone interested in the work of the society to attend. The teas are given for the benefit of art educational work.

Miss Darlene Kimball, who was the house guest of Mrs. Max H. Houser for several weeks and later of Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, returned to her home in Salt Lake Monday evening. Miss Kimball was the inspiration for much delightful informal entertaining during her visit here.

Miss Susie Smith left Portland Monday for Neah-Kah-Nie, where she will spend two weeks as the guest of Mrs. Folger Johnson, who is at the beach with Folger Jr.

Mrs. Frank Baum, who has been spending the summer in her beach cottage at Neah-Kah-Nie, will leave for Portland Saturday for Panama, where she will visit her parents and relatives. Her husband will join her there in six weeks and they will then sail for England. Mr. Browne has held the office of consul here for six months and will now go to fill a European post, probably, although he has no definite assignment at the present time. Mr. and Mrs. Browne have been in Portland for three years. Mr. Browne serving first as the British vice-consul. Their departure is regretted by their large circle of friends.

An exhibit of local weaving and rare old coverlets will be on display at the Arts and Crafts society's tea Tuesday afternoon at the studio of Mrs. Ferdinand Smith on the Barnes road. Mrs. Jessie M. Honeyman will give a talk on weaving. Interest in weaving has been renewed recently and Mrs. Honeyman's talk on the history of weaving, kinds of looms, etc., will be of value.
