

ACCOMMODATIONS AT CRATER LAKE URGED

Better Provision for Visitors Is Held Necessary.

CO-OPERATION IS DESIRED

Plea for Immediate Action Follows Conference of Business Men With Park Service Director.

As result of a conference of business men with Stephen T. Mather, director of national park service, resolutions were adopted urging an early visit to Crater Lake by a committee, with a view to submitting to the Portland and Oregon Chambers of Commerce plans for providing accommodations there for visitors. With the tide of travel turned to Oregon, Mr. Mather declared that the accommodations now provided would soon be found inadequate.

An important point in the resolutions is the recommendation regarding co-operative efforts between the different highway interests to safeguard and protect scenic attractions, maintain timbered areas along the highways and expedite roadbuilding. The resolutions, prepared by W. D. B. Dodson, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, pursuant to instructions by the conference, follow:

Resolved, That a committee of three prominent business men be named by the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce to visit Crater Lake immediately and formulate a plan thereafter which shall be presented to the city and state for the proper development of accommodations within the national park there.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by the two chambers to co-operate with the federal and state road-building agencies to further the protection of the scenic beauties of Oregon's highways, to act as a force to bring appropriate legislation to this end, and to promote a state-wide organization for this purpose and to be it further.

Resolved, That the committee named, or another chosen especially for this purpose, shall consult with the forest service in securing the county authorities, the United States forestry service, the bureau of public lands and large timber owners, relative to the preservation of timbered strips along scenic highways, either by reservation, donation or purchase, and to develop some plan whereby the means for this may be secured, and be it further.

Resolved, That the committee or committees named by the two chambers shall co-operate with the forest service in securing federal legislation, that along scenic highways any privately-owned land in or on the national forest lands and the preservation of the timber assured.

POLES THANK AMERICA

HOOVER TOLD THAT AID SAVED NATION'S LIFE.

Credit and Sympathy for One More Year Held Sufficient; Children in Gratitude Parade.

WARSAW, Aug. 14.—(By the Associated Press).—Men and women representing the socialist party in Poland, accompanied by the minister of labor, called upon Herbert Hoover, chairman of the allied relief organization, today and presented a memorial.

"Please present to the American people," the memorial said, "our feeling of gratitude. But for America we would not have been able to pull through the last six months."

"We pledge ourselves to devote our strength to the orderly rebuilding of a stable government."

"We are not bolsheviks, but are patriotic, thinking people, who believe that our ideals of democracy are best served by preparing the minds of the masses for the responsibilities of a socialist government and by the restoration of order and peace achieved by the votes of an intelligent majority."

"We know the difficulties and deprivations through which the Polish republic must pass during the next year and will endeavor to live up to your slogan of full production on farms and in coal mines and factories. We must beg our American brothers in democracy to have patience with us and not to remove their support until we can get on our feet. Give us just one more year of credits and other active sympathy and we will emerge a strong, self-respecting nation prepared to face the world alone."

Mr. Hoover concluded his investigations here tonight and left for Lemberg and Cracow, where he will receive degrees from the universities in those Italian cities.

Before his departure Mr. Hoover, General Plaszewski and Premier Paderewski reviewed a procession of 5000 little children representing more than a million Polish children who were fed by the American relief administration through its children's feeding department.

PACT AMENDMENT FOUGHT

expected to make next week in the senate. The fact that Senator Hitchcock did not quote the president as standing unopposedly against reservations for the same reason was pointed out as significant by some of the group of republicans, who, under the lead of Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, have agreed on a set of reservations. They declared all the elements of the situation bore out their claim of Wednesday that they had information insuring democratic assent to their programme.

Lodge Reservations Favored.

Among the group there was some favorable comment during the day on the new set of reservations proposed by republican senators by republican leader Lodge. In the same quarter it was pointed out that should he definitely give his support to a reservation programme acceptable to a large number of senators, the logical outcome might be a draft of reservations by him which would become the rallying point of the republican reservation forces.

It is known that Mr. Lodge has been studying a number of drafts, including those drawn by the McNary group and those suggested by Elihu Root, William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes. He is understood not to have stood sponsor for the drafts he showed to the republican senators, however, but to have merely submitted them for consideration.

Republicans assert that the only possible outcome, if reservations are to be adopted in place of textual amendments, will be agreement on the draft drawn by Mr. Lodge or some other senator which must be accepted by the democrats. The only open question, they declare, is how drastic the reservations are to be.

The democratic leaders, however, maintained there had been no change in their stand for unreserved ratification, and in some quarters the outcome of the conference between the president

BURGESS SELECTED FOR HIGHWAY BOARD

Governor Olcott Selects Successor to W. L. Thompson.

NEW MAN WELL KNOWN

Eastern Oregon Stockman and Farmer Has Wide Acquaintance-ship Throughout State.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 16.—(Special).—J. N. Burgess, of Pendleton, will be appointed a member of the state highway commission to succeed W. L. Thompson, when the latter removes his residence from Pendleton to Portland January 1, 1920, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott just prior to his departure for Salt Lake City, Utah, late this afternoon.

Mr. Thompson, by his removal to Portland, would be automatically disqualified as a member of the state highway commission, as under the law creating the commission one of the commissioners must come from each of the three congressional districts. Because of this law, Mr. Thompson several months ago notified the governor that for business reasons he would remove his residence from Pendleton to Portland on January 1, and that after that date would no longer consider himself as a member of the commission.

Man Selected Well Known. Mr. Burgess is one of the best known stockmen and farmers in eastern Oregon and has a wide acquaintanceship throughout the entire state. From 1911 to 1915, inclusive, he was a member of the state senate from Umatilla county, resigning in April, 1916. He has for many years been active as a stockman and wool grower and has been highly successful in business.

He has also taken a leading part in Oregon's good road campaign and prior to the special election on June 3 spent much of his time boosting for the movement in his home section.

"I have had Mr. Burgess in mind for some time as the successor to Mr. Thompson," said the governor in announcing his plans today.

Announcement Will Be Surprised. "I might say in justice to Mr. Burgess that he was not an applicant for the position, that he has never spoken to me in regard to it and I have never spoken to him. This announcement will come as a complete surprise to Mr. Burgess. I made up my mind several weeks ago that he would be the selection."

"In order to give him an opportunity to familiarize himself with the duties of the commission's work it occurred to me it would be an excellent idea to announce that he would be the successor to Mr. Thompson."

Mr. Burgess will not go on to the commission until January 1. It has been understood all along that Mr. Thompson is to remain with the commission until he removes his residence to Portland.

High Aims for Oregon Held. "I am satisfied that Mr. Burgess will have the entire confidence of the people of the congressional district which he will represent. He is known all over eastern Oregon as a man who has made a success of his own business and as a man who is eminently fair in his dealings. I am certain he will go on to the commission with high aims for the development of Oregon's road programme."

"I consider a place on the state highway commission one of the most important appointments which the executive office is called upon to make. A man of high integrity, keen business judgment, fairness and tact is required. The place is one beset with difficult problems. Mr. Burgess is eminently qualified to meet the many requirements which go with the position, and I consider the people of Oregon will be fortunate if they secure his services in this connection."

FUGITIVES' TRAIL SEEN

Chase of Brichoux and Southwick, Who Escaped From Salem, Is Ordered by Sheriff.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 16.—(Special).—Penitentiary officials this afternoon received a long distance telephone message from C. E. Collins, city marshal at Reedsport, to the effect that two men answering the description of D. E. Brichoux and Edward Southwick, who escaped from a truck while being taken from the state hospital to the prison flax fields beyond Turner Wednesday morning, had been seen in northern Douglas county and were apparently making their way toward the coast. Mr. Collins said the two men were on the rear seat of an automobile, with a third man at the wheel of the machine.

Deputy Warden Alley of the penitentiary immediately ordered Mr. Collins to organize a posse and pursue the supposed fugitives. This he promised to do, but late today no word had been received regarding the success of the chase. Reedsport is in a heavily timbered district on the road to Marshfield.

Further evidence that the fugitives escaped in an automobile, with the assistance of outside help, reached the prison officials this afternoon. A farmer named Purdy, who lives near Marion, telephoned the authorities that he had found a pair of shoes, three shirts, overalls and a hat, which apparently had been thrown to the side of the road from a fast traveling vehicle.

This wearing apparel, the officers believe, was discarded by the convicts soon after they escaped from the flax fields. The presence of a man at the hospital a few days ago who claimed to be a brother of Southwick also has strengthened the belief of the penitentiary officials that he brought an automobile to Salem and aided in the escape.

No word had been received tonight from Chester William Clark, robber of the Beaverton bank, who escaped from the penitentiary berry fields Thursday. Officials believe that he is headed toward Hillsboro, where he is said to have relatives.
