Closing the August Furniture Sale With a Great Round-up of All Odd Pieces

Time: Beginning tomorrow, Monday, at 9 o'clock; closing Saturday, August 30, at 6 o'clock.

Place: The MEIER & FRANK Furniture Galleries on the Eighth Floor, Fifth and Sixth Streets.

Event: Disposal of well-made sightly furniture for every room in the home at lower prices than our old normally moderate rates; the greater part of it came here within the last year and is down-to-the-minute in desirability.

Reason: All the furniture included is an oddment. Living room, dining room and bedroom suites sold down to one, two or three pieces. Odd chairs. Odd davenport. Missing pieces of the suites are practically impossible to duplicate. If we ordered them from the factory today we don't know when we could get them. Not for six months anyway—probably longer. Then the wholesale costs would be advanced greatly. That is not the way we do business. We would rather sell the oddments at reduced prices. Great things are being planned in the Furniture Galleries for this autumn and we want to clear our floors, for we shall need every inch of our 50,000 square feet of furniture selling space.

Terms: Payments can be made to suit your own convenience; any terms in reason. If you wish to take advantage of the economies of the sale but are not ready to receive the furniture we will store it for you free of charge—for any time up to six months.

Delivery: We must reserve the right to make deliveries, when and as we can. It will be impossible to promise delivery on any specified day. The August Furniture Sale has been the greatest in our history and our delivery forces are coping with a tremendous volume of business. Each piece of furniture we sell is gone over carefully and finished before delivery, so that the process takes more time than if we could simply bundle it into a motor van and leave it at your door next day.

Service: EXTRA SALES FORCES will be on hand to take care of you adequately; all furniture will be plainly marked with the old and the new special prices, so that you can wait on yourself if you like.

This Sale Is Limited

Prices hold good only on items listed—when they are sold there will be no more.

But these oddments—these remaining pieces—are decided finds. They are CHEAP in the old-fashioned use of the word.

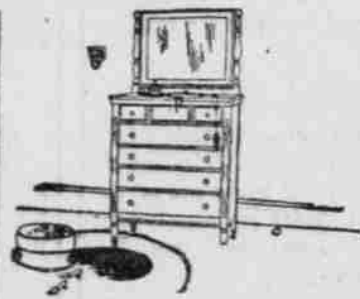

Furniture is going up. There does not seem to be any limit to the expanding costs. There is a SHORT-AGE—an actual shortage of furniture for all the homes that are to be refurnished for the boys who have come back. Today no furniture factory will accept orders for next year's delivery at present prices, and orders for 1919 delivery are flatly refused at any price.

This Round-Up of the August Sale affords opportunities to select perhaps just the piece of furniture you need at a price lower than you expected to pay.

Monday is first day—and best choice. Most of the pieces listed below are one of a kind. When they are sold the chance is gone if you happen to want that particular item.

Make a Confidant of Your Vacuum Cleaner

Don't use it only once a week. Let it save its house rent every day.

Use it to pick up the crumbs under the table after each meal.

Use it to suck up the muddy tracks of the children's feet on rainy days.

Use it to dust the big, cosy upholstered davenport.

Use it to pick up the threads after a busy sewing day.

Vacuum cleaners are the easiest way to KEEP the house clean every day. Vacuum cleaning is very little work—the electric current does everything but push.

Vacuum cleaners are $37.50 to $58.75.
