Suburban Homes.

ONLY $5500
will buy this place, a most modern suburban residence, close in to the business center, out the Capital highway, 3 blocks from a station with 5c car fare and about the same distance from a city school. Here is a very up-to-date 7-room house, doubly and trebly constructed, hot water heating plant and full cement basement with a fine furnace. It has hardwood floors, delightful fireplace. It is such a home as you find in the best city district. There is a plentiful supply of all kinds of fruit of good quality in full bearing. About $3000 in cash is what you will have to have. The balance easily arranged. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington building.

Only $4400, and this is positively the greatest bargain offered in the Tualatin valley. Only 3 miles from the station on the Capital highway, right in the center of the city of Tualatin, you might say. Here are 8½ big acres of land, the richest soil to be found, ½ of it is beaverdam. There is a new 6-room bungalow, never before occupied; there is a chicken house, brand new, of large dimensions, capable of housing 600 of the feathered flock. There is a large orchard of all kinds of fruit in full bearing; every tree today is heavily laden. This land is located between the county road and the Oregon Electric railway. A fine location, and the owner is determined to sacrifice and offers it to you at one-half its value. You will have to have almost all of the $4400 to buy this. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Only $4950—All of it on the Capital highway and paved street from the business center of Portland to the gate, right in the beautiful city of Tigard, only four blocks from the station. The best car service to be found, say nothing of being on a paved street, which you can go in any direction, all right here we have it, 4 big acres of land, every inch of it in cultivation and well fenced. On this land is an up-to-date 6-room bungalow style cottage with sleeping porch. It is modern, has electric lights, bath, two toilets, wash trays and lavatory, in fact, everything that a city home has. There is a garage, barn, chicken house and other necessary buildings. There is a choice assortment of fruit in bearing and coming into bearing. It is a pretty place, the house is painted white and all of the buildings are painted. There is no expense to go to. Where can you find anything like this for the money? $1000 cash is all you need. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Only $5500 buys all of this, about 1½ acres of land, no richer to be found on the river road. It is highly improved, all kinds of large and small fruits, including a large number of English walnut trees in full bearing, grapes and berries galore. There is a 7-room bungalow, modern and up to date in every particular, sleeping porches, fireplace, beam ceiling, screened-in big porches of large dimensions, a double garage, barn and chicken houses. The present owner has a good reason for selling on account of another business which takes him from this part of the state. $2500 will put you into possession, the balance on very easy terms. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Only $2950—Tell us, what is the matter with this place? Here is one acre of land on the Base Line road, river road and paved thoroughfare from the business center, right at the station, right at Milwaukie. On this acre is an old-style but very substantial 6-room plastered house, the rooms are large and airy. You can have all of the city conveniences in this house, such as city water, gas and electric light. The land is so located that you can sell 6½ lots and every lot will face the highway. There is a large orchard and walnut grove of a selected variety of fruits in full bearing. The English walnut crop alone is immense. This land alone is what we are selling and throwing in for nothing all of the improvements. The land or lots should bring today about $4000. All right, you can have the land, the orchard, the house and the English walnuts, and everything goes for $2500, and you only have to dig up in cash is $500, the balance we will wait and take it in easy payments. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Here is a suburban home that should attract the attention of any person desiring one in the right locality, as well as having it where all conveniences necessary for an up-to-date family can live. At Jennings Lodge, on the Oregon City car line, right at the station, are 4 big acres of land, every inch of it in cultivation, fruit of large and small and is of such a quantity and quality as enables the owner to derive a good income from this source alone. With the fruit and with the big 4 acres of land goes a modern 6-room house, with a full cement basement. This house has all of the modern conveniences, such as running water, gas, electric lights, bath, two toilets, all of the plumbing is of porcelain. This is one of the most valuable as well as desirable suburban homes in this favored district. The present owners are leaving and desire to sell rather than rent, therefore, they have placed all of this for the small sum of $5500, about $2000 cash is all you need. This place should sell readily for $12,000, but we don't ask it. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

We are offering this for sale in the highest class suburban district, close in with all of the city conveniences, such as city water, gas, electric light, schools and high school practically on the property. This 5½ big acres of land, all of it producing and a big money-maker. This location happens to be on a paved street from the business center to its gate and close enough to a car line to walk in. Lake road, only a short distance from the river. The buildings on the place, while of a substantial character, are not considered in the price. There is a very large orchard and the fruit crop is now growing with abundance. There are almost two acres in grapes alone. This location is simply ideal; with a view of mountains and valley that surpasses anything in the neighborhood. The soil is of the very best and the only reason for selling is because the present owner is a widow, hopelessly unable to care for the place, therefor, she offrs it at a sacrifice; $20,000 would not be much, she being one that is willing to sell for one-half the price. It will be necessary for those considering this investment to have at least $5000 cash, otherwise it will be unnecessary to consider it. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Only $7000, and you will have to go some to beat this. Here are 18 big acres of land, only 1 mile from the gate, right from Oregon City on a first-class road, paved nearly all of the way. This place is improved and all of it in cultivation; there is an orchard of about 7 acres of choice varieties of fruits in full bearing. There is a good farm house, big barn, chicken house. It is well watered with the finest drinking water to be found. The owner is leaving the state, therefore offers this at a great bargain. Everything goes, such as machinery, tools, cows, horses, chickens, etc., the fruit crop this year is immense. About one-half cash will handle this. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington building.

Only $2800, and you will have to go some to beat this. Here are 2½ big acres of land, improved beyond suggestion. There are 200 fruit trees of standard variety in full bearing. There is ½ mile of berries in rows. There is a good 4-room house, bath, electric light, etc., its location is only 1 mile from the station; $1000 cash will take in exchange a small auto. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Only $4000 for a pretty suburban home, right at Courtney Station, on the Oregon City car line. Here is 1 big acre of land, with an abundance of fruit in full bearing, both large and small. There is at least ¼ acre of grapes—and such a crop! With it goes a 7-room plastered house, bath, electric light and gas. The rooms are large and the house is very well constructed. There is a good barn and chicken house. About $1000 cash will handle it. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington building.

Only $4200 buys 10 big acres of land, situated in the most productive part of the section east of the city. This land is all in cultivation, the soil is of the best to be found. It is all fenced with a very substantial fence. There is on this land a new 5-room bungalow with a full cement basement; there is a large barn, chicken house, woodshed and other outbuildings, which are practically new. The buildings alone on this land cannot be replaced today for a less price than $4000. The land without the buildings, in the high state of cultivation it is, with an orchard of a well-selected variety of fruit in full bearing and other small fruits, such as grapes and berries in a plentiful supply, this land could not be bought for less than $400 per acre. All right, it belongs to a widow who has no inclination, from health or otherwise, to work the place and she offers it at a sacrifice of one-half its true value. It is well watered. Come around with $1000 in cash and we will help you change ownership. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington building.

Only three blocks south of the Wilcox magnificent country home, just south of Council Crest, in the west part of the Tualatin valley. Tualatin. Here are 8 big beautiful acres of land, with orchard and in full cultivation. This is where the rich land lies, close in on the west side, in a district that will always be high class and where values will increase and be maintained. It is where everybody likes to drive by. The possibilities for this district, on account of its closeness to the business center with tunnel talk, paved highway, fine interurban car service, make it decisive for investment. The price of this place is about half what you can buy anything in the same vicinity not so well located. The owner will consider an exchange for residence in Irvington or Laurelhurst for a good part of the purchase price; anyhow, we will set the price at $12,000, either on cash basis or a trade for other property. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

REAL ESTATE.

Suburban Homes.

Now here is one that will make you sit up and take notice. On the river road, on the paved highway; you cannot get off it from the business center to the gate. There is one of those classy suburban homes, patterned after one of those ideal suburban homes to be found on the banks of the Hudson, out from the city of New York. In land area it contains a small domain and so well improved that the artist can add nothing further to its attractiveness. 2¾ big acres of land, on the paved highway, the one spot on the river road that stands on an eminence, you might say, overlooking the golden wheat fields on both sides of the river, only about three blocks from the Oregon City car line. This is a place that everybody should know that drives along the river road between the city and Jennings Lodge. It stands out distinctively from the massive stone posts and laurel hedge; all kinds of rare shrubbery adorns this front. Now we come to the important part; here on this beautiful place is practically a new 8-room bungalow with a single porch that signifies all that the name implies, hardwood floors, a stone fireplace, the largest and architecturally grandest in Oregon. Every kind of fruit on the best quality both small and large, no such place in Oregon can be found in full bearing on this place. There is a fine concrete garage, barn and chicken house, cement walks and shady nooks, in fact, this place is the ne plus ultra of all suburban homes. The price is the most insignificant thing connected with it. It is such a place as a family who desires to enjoy the city conveniences combined with suburban life would buy at once. One who buys everything of the above description, about ½ cash. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington building.

Only $1200 for ¼ acre of land, with a good 3-room bungalow out the Capital highway, close to two boulevards, close to the city school and station, with 5c car fare. This house is new and has such conveniences as city water, gas, etc. About half cash will handle it. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

Only $2500 for 2 1-3 acres of land out the Capital Highway. You can have such conveniences as city water, gas, electric light, city school, 5c car fare, go to it on a boulevard and close to the station. M. J. CLOHESSY, Abington bldg.

VANCOUVER ORCHARD AND SUBURBAN HOME.
Do you want a 9-room modern house, 2 sleeping porches, surrounded by shade and fruit trees, consisting of 10½ acres, close to car line, grade and high schools, hard-surface road under process of construction? The orchard is mostly prunes, but other fruits are in abundance. Phone service, city water, electric lights—every convenience provided for. Located 1½ miles from interstate bridge, on Fourth Plain road, at the northeast corner of the military reservation. Present owner has resided on property 14 years, developing an ideal suburban home, returning a substantial income from fruit and truck products. Business interests require his return east, and he offers this high-class property, with all orchard equipment, tools and farm implements, grain, fruit, garden truck, stock of every etc., at a price substantially under their real value. Price $10,500, $5500 cash, satisfactory terms for balance at low rate of interest. Address owner, Robert E. Fleming, 1201 Northwestern Bank bldg., Portland, or 2500 Fourth Plain ave., Vancouver, Wash.
