STRENGTH—POWER—VALUE

DAY-ELDER

(D-E WORM DRIVE)

MOTOR TRUCKS

MASSIVE in construction, colossal in strength, abundant speed in operation, proven power of endurance—these masters of the road have the vitality to render years of continuous profitable service at a minimum of upkeep cost.

You will find that DAY-ELDER Trucks are hundreds of dollars lower in price than any other worm-drive trucks of the same high standard of quality and carrying capacity.

It pays to think! All we ask is the opportunity to show you DAY-ELDER Trucks and the chance to demonstrate their unchallenged supremacy at their prices in America.

Although DAY-ELDER Trucks are the lowest priced worm-driven trucks made, they embody every worth-while feature of quality and construction possessed by the most expensive worm-driven trucks
