tea in her honor Friday afternoon and on Tuesday Miss Sara McCully was hostess for a similar affair for the bride-elect's close friends. Mrs. Maurice Dooley was hostess Saturday, September 13, at a beautifully appointed luncheon given at the Hotel Portland in compliment to Miss Jacobs. Covers were placed for 12 and the table was dainty in rosebuds and ferns.

Miss Lee Hoffman entertained informally at tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Bonnie Mead.

Miss Virginia Mears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Mears, Miss Jean Skene, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Skene, and Miss Elizabeth Bacon left Thursday for school in the east. Miss Mears and Miss Skene will attend school in Westover, Conn., and Miss Bacon will go to Miss Hall's school. Mrs. William Robertson, who will visit friends in Detroit, accompanied them on their eastern trip.

In honor of Miss J. Amelia Kenny, who has returned to the staff of the Visiting Nurses' association, after a year's active service in France, the members of the board and staff gave a standing tribute to Miss Kenny for her efficient and faithful service. Those present at the luncheon were: Mrs. Dieck, Mrs. Kate Mather, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Mrs. S. S. Montague, Mrs. Thomas Honeyman, Mrs. S. Frank, Miss Klosterman, Mrs. E. J. Marsh, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. J. D. Honeyman, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Ehrman and the following members of the staff: Miss Kenny and the Misses Marian Crowe, Edith Kirkpatrick, Frieda Becker, Lena Marshall, Otella Hendrickson, Olive Oleson, Althea Stoneman, Mildred Halborson, Anita Smith and Mrs. Blanche Matland.

Martin Biddle, son of Mrs. Margaret Biddle, returned Friday evening to school in Santa Barbara, Cal.

Miss Marian Voorhies and Gordon Voorhies Jr. visited Pendleton for the Round-up.

A surprise to Portland friends is the news of the engagement of Miss Gertrude Blackman to L. Raphael Geisler, announcement of which was made during the past week. Miss Blackman, who is the daughter of Dean Blackmar of the University of Kansas, is a graduate of the University of Kansas and of Simmons college, in Boston, and a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. She has made this city her home for the past two or three years, during which time she has been prominent in local collegiate and Pan-Hellenic circles.

Mr. Geisler, who is a Portland man, has been serving as American vice-consul to Switzerland and is home at present on a month's leave of absence from the department of state. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and of Columbia university, New York, and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The wedding will take place in New York city early in October.

Miss Elizabeth Malboeuf became the bride of Frederick Ames Lothrop at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Malboeuf on Williams' Heights. Dr. A. A. Morrison officiated in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Autumn leaves and fall flowers formed attractive decorations throughout the rooms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin trimmed with pearl beads. Her long tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and bride roses. Miss Charlotte Malboeuf, her sister, was maid of honor, and Mrs. A. A. Phinney of Seattle, was matron of honor. Both wore gowns of pink crepe de chine combined with silver and carried bouquets of pink Killarney roses. Little Dorothy McPherson as flower girl wore a frock of white tulle and carried a basket of baby roses. Raymond Williams was best man, Edgar E. Courson played the wedding march.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held to which about 200 guests had been invited. Mrs. Neagie P. Sealy (Marie Haller) and Miss Helen Haller poured and Mrs. Maurice Barnes (Gerardine Courson) and Miss Julie Duffy cut ice. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Laura Rand, Miss Margaret Mansfield, Miss Eleanor Holman and Mrs. Beache Crofton. The evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lothrop, after a trip to Seattle and sound cities, will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Wednesday with a large dinner party.

Mrs. Ross wore her wedding gown of soft cream silk trimmed with rare old lace. The large round table was decked in pastel shades, the prevailing color being pink. The centerpiece was of asters in pink, lavender and white, with delicate foliage of white and green. The evening was spent in reunions and music. Mrs. Fletcher Linn sang "All for You." Seated about the table were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lindsley, William Ross and John T. Ross, who came from Astoria just for the occasion; Mrs. J. R. Swinton, Judge and Mrs. Wallace McCannant, Miss Cornelia Lamberson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hall, Miss Kate Holman, Judge and Mrs. W. B. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hunter Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Dr. George Robinson of Chicago, Miss Gussie Bartlett and Arthur W. Jenks, both of whom were members of the same household with Mr. Ross in New York city before he came to Portland. The sons, Eusebius Lindsley Ross and Ladner Ross, were present also, having returned in time for the occasion after long absences.

Miss Louise and Miss Helen Manning were hostesses yesterday afternoon for an informal tea at their home, 542 East Fourteenth street North, complimenting their house guest, Miss Lyle Bryson of Eugene, and Miss Adele Lucy of San Francisco, who is also visiting in Portland. About 60 girls of the college set called during the afternoon. Presiding at the tea were the Misses Margaret Hawkins, Katherine Corbin and Marjorie McGuire.

Miss Gussie Cope, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Bullock for the last few weeks, left Friday evening for her home in Muskogee, Okla. During her visit in Portland she has been the inspiration for a number of social gatherings. Miss Bullock entertained recently at a tea honoring her guest and Miss Mildred Kingsley of Portland, who will leave soon for New York to continue her vocal studies.

An attractive eastern girl who is visiting in Portland at the home of Miss Sheila Kern for a fortnight is Miss Dorothy Phillips of Washington, D. C. Several motor trips, dinner dances and teas have been given the past week in her honor. Miss Kathleen Hall was hostess for a motor trip on the Columbia River highway Monday. The party stopped at Crown Point chalet for dinner. Miss Hall's guests were Miss Dorothy Phillips, Miss Dorothy Cox, Miss Sheila Kern, Miss Corinne Case, Lieutenant Hall, Robert Laper, David Weston, George Macfarlane and Albert Roberts.

Miss Sheila Kern entertained Wednesday for Miss Phillips with an afternoon tea. About 75 young matrons and maids were present. The rooms were aglow with baskets of pink gladioli.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Delmar Clarke, Miss Mary Burrell and Mrs. Leonard Brooks. Miss Dorothy Cox, pianist, played an attractive group of solos and Miss Kathleen Hall sang. Miss Hall entertained with a brilliant dancing party at her home Friday night in honor of her brother, Lieutenant Hall, and for Miss Phillips. More than 150 guests were present, including several army officers, formerly of the American expeditionary force.

Of interest to the younger set is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Marie Duback to Lester Newman.

In a race with the Arctic Winter

BATTLING with the foe ice, perhaps blasting its way through with dynamite, the H. Liebes & Co. ship "Herman" is racing now toward the last of our trapping stations at Bank's Land before the Arctic winter sets in. If the "Herman" reaches this point she will bring aid to Liebes trappers who have been out of touch with the world for three years——And she will bring to us furs trapped where furs were never caught before.

Thus H. Liebes & Co. will have entered another virgin field in its search for the most precious furs of the Northland.

No goal is too distant, no effort spared, to secure the matchless pelts which are fashioned by our designers and craftsmen into H. Liebes & Co. international famous furs.
