BABY DAY WILL BE OBSERVED BY PORTLAND CHURCHES TODAY

Pastors of All Denominations to Speak in Behalf of Homeless, Nameless and Abandoned Infants-Movement Indorsed by Governor Is Widely Supported.

Baby day, and as such will be observed in all the churches. The pastors of every denomination will speak in behalf of the homeless, nameless and abandoned babies.

Sy the diocesan committee were forwarded to New York.

"Final plans for the diocesan campaign wait upon the action of the national executive committee and the general convention. It is thought however, that the beginning of the advent season will see it under way.

"The various will see it under way.

This observance is to be given as a "The nation-wide movement not only result of a plea made by W. G. Mac-Laren of the Pacific Coast Rescue and of the church and to inspire a zest for service both at the contract way. Laren of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society, who addressed the ministers of Portland at a recent meeting. Primarily Mr. MacLaren bespoke the interests of the nursery cause that his society fosters, but he wished the day to be broader still, he said, and its interest to include all the unfortunates. Governor Olcott and others have indorsed the nursery cause and it will be taken up in many churches today. Its constructive work, sheltering, educating, befriending the unfortunate women and girls of the Louise Home will also receive recognition. Caring for the babies and giving them a start in life are the work of the nursery, now known as the Albertina Kerr nursery. The building needed will be an alloroson nursery for nameless, homeless and abandoned little ones. The headquarters of the nursery drive are in the Liberty temple.

Motlon picture houses, theaters, clubs and individuals are helping the cause. The Portland Ad club heard the nursery plea on Wednesday and gave a rousing indorsement. Several Portland ministers are on the board of the nursery.
