MISS ELENA CALDERON, daughter of Don Ignacio Calderon, minister from Bolivia, recently enjoyed her first trip in the air. She made her flight in Washington's most modern sightseeing bus.

The Castle of Doorn near Utrecht, Holland, has been purchased by the ex-kaiser of Germany for his permanent residence. He is now living at the Castle of Amerongen and from all indications it appears that he is to take up his abode permanently in the Netherlands. The Castle of Doorn is somewhat isolated and few visitors ever pass by.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy, had the honor of pressing the electric button which opened the water controls of the navy's greatest dry dock located at Pearl Harbor, Honolulu. The drydock is the largest of its kind in the world.

The 300 members of this year's graduating class at West Point, who are visiting and studying European battlefields, were inspected in France by General Curmer of the French army. While in review at the historic Ecole Polytechnique in Paris they were drawn up facing cadets of the French military school.

The reception to the first division was the occasion of the greatest military event in New York during the year. It was combined with the ceremonies in honor of the return of General Pershing from overseas.

While Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer centered his profiteer fight in New York as the keystone in the national high-price situation, the sale of surplus army food began in practically every public school in the city with big crowds of buyers.

At the launching of the Lake Fugard at Buffalo the vessel tipped to the extraordinary angle of 73.8 degrees as it struck the water and in less than seven seconds, aided by the rebound of the waters in the narrow slip miraculously righted herself.
