

SHANTUNG FIGHT TO OPEN UP TOMORROW

Senate Leader's Agree to Take Up Treaty Amendments.

FASTER PROGRESS MADE

Kenyon Asks for Vote on Wednesday or Thursday—Reservations Next in Order.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The trend of developments today in the peace treaty situation still was toward rapid progress on amendments and reservations.

The senate was not in session, but leaders held numerous conferences. The Shantung amendments are to be taken up formally on Monday, and republican leaders think it possible that all amendments can be disposed of and consideration of reservations begun in a week or ten days.

A movement to have a definite date fixed for the vote on the Shantung amendments was made today by Senator Kenyon, chairman of the senate labor committee, which is investigating the strike. The committee wishes to visit the strike district next week, and Senator Kenyon said he would try to arrange for a formal agreement to vote on the amendments on Wednesday or Thursday.

When the Shantung amendments are disposed of republican leaders plan to take up the amendments of Senators Johnson, California, and Moses, New Hampshire, republicans, bearing on the equalizing of the voting power of the league of nations of the United States and Great Britain and her colonies. Senator Johnson, who is on the Pacific coast, was advised today, some leaders said, to return here within a week. Other republicans said they knew of no call of the California senator, but doubted whether he would fill dates in Washington and Oregon.

The Johnson amendment is to be discussed at length Monday by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, who has offered a reservation designed to secure the same ground as the Johnson amendment. Further conferences on reservations were held today by former President Taft with republicans favoring so-called "mild reservations."

It was said that a reservation on the Shantung provisions might be offered if the amendment by Republican Leader Lodge relating to the Shantung award was rejected.

RULE FOR WOMEN POSTED SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AT UNIVERSITY RESTRICTED.

"Quiet Hours" Decried, Sunday to Be Respected and No Extensive Entertaining Is Permitted.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Miss Elizabeth Fox, who has just returned from a year's study at the University of California, has posted a rule for women at the university after 19 months spent overseas in the service of the U. S. C. A. The rule, which is the subject of a resolution of the women's association, is a leading feature of the "quiet hours" rule.

"Quiet hours," Miss Fox announced, "shall be maintained on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 7:30 to 10:30 P. M. and no extensive entertaining shall occur, but exceptions to this rule may be allowed."

"Sunday is to be respected. Music or the higher type of entertainment and extensive entertaining shall occur, but the rules say."

Freshmen are not expected to receive or to go out on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday evenings. Upper-class women must obtain the consent of the house chaplain for all social engagements on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. No upper-class woman is expected to go out on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday nights.

50 WOULD BE LAWYERS

Willamette Signs 20 for Course and Many More Are Expected.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Registration for the college of law, which began yesterday, is drawing a number of additional students, and present estimates place the minimum law school enrollment at 50. Nearly 20 signed for the law course yesterday, and the two more days allotted to registration are expected to bring in many more classes for the first Monday.

The law college is again under the direction of Dean L. H. Van Winkle, who has since his resignation, among them many of the prominent Salem attorneys.

Yesterday afternoon the total enrollment for the university had reached the 230 mark.

FIRES LAID TO JOB HUNTER

Forest Incendiarism Attributed to Men Who Want to Fight Blazes.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Al Churchill, who is here from the Bohemia district to spend the winter, said he believed that many of the forest fires which cause so much damage are set by persons looking for jobs as fire fighters.

All the timber on Mr. Churchill's place, his blacksmith shop and the timbers in two of his tunnels on the President group were destroyed by the flames. He estimates his loss at $1000.

COLORED MAN SENTENCED

Gold Alleged Stolen From Portland Dental Windows.

W. O. Patton, colored, who was arrested when he was discovered trying to sell about $150 worth of gold bridge work and dental fittings, was sentenced in municipal court yesterday to six months in the county jail. Some of the gold in Patton's possession was identified as having been taken from show windows of dentists in Portland. Patton was arrested by Inspectors Wright and Gordon.

GOOD DEBATES PROMISED

Interest in University Activity Is Reported Strong.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Intramural debate

ing, placed definitely on its feet as a leading college activity last year, is to take a step forward during the present year through the action of the department of public speaking in allowing two hours of university credit toward graduation to students who participate under faculty supervision and comply with the rules to be framed in regard to preparation for the contests.

Professor Prescott, professor of public speaking, who has charge of debating, will call a meeting next week of representatives of each of the campus organizations and of the Oregon club, at which subjects for the contests this year will be chosen.

Professor Prescott plans to select competent coaches for the university faculty, from the varsity defaters and from outside sources to train the various teams for the contests.

WOMAN BERLIN ALDERMAN

RADICAL SOCIALIST FIRST TO HOLD SUCH OFFICE.

German Parliaments Now Include 152 Female Members—7 Per Cent of Grand Total.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—(Special Cable.)—Germany's suffragettes, who are not militant, have been quick to seize the opportunity for equal rights with men that are offered by the new constitution. Greater Berlin this week gained the honor of choosing a woman as alderman, the first to hold the place.

Kolping, a Berlin schoolmaster, was famous by the laughable exploit of William Voigt, the cobbler, elected as alderman Frau Emille Ihm, an ultra-radical independent socialist. Potsdam, too, has elected its first woman town councillor, Fraulein Krosen, an employe in a telegraph office there.

A statistical investigation discloses the remarkable fact that nearly 7 per cent of all Germany's legislative assemblies are women. One hundred and fifty-three women are sitting in German parliaments. The heaviest representation is in the national assembly and there are 21 in the Prussian assembly. The highest percentage of women in the legislative parliament of the little principality of Reuss, where there are three women to 18 male legislators.

In the national assembly also are two women to 19 men, and the Hamburg assembly numbers 17 women out of 184 legislators. Eighteen state parliaments are reacting to the women's movement; only seven have not. It is significant that of Germany's women legislators the largest number, 44, are social democrats; 37 belong to the democratic party, 19 to the Catholic center, 13 are independent socialists, five are reactionaries, conservative, five are national liberals and two are communists.

Following the example of the first English militant suffragette, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, a woman leader, went on a hunger strike in the Bogel recently. Bender commanded the socialist garrison which occupied the Wolff telegraph bureau building during the socialist revolt last January. He refused food for five days, in protest against what he called "treatment unworthy of human beings." The jail authorities refused to permit food to be taken to Bender from outside after they found a steel saw in a loaf of bread that was brought in to him. Bender recovered his appetite.

BAKER BOY HEADS CLASS

Rutherford Brown Is President of University Freshmen.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Richard Brown of Baker was elected president of the freshmen class of the university at an election yesterday in which only about one-fourth of the class participated. Margaret Cundy of Portland, a graduate of Lincoln high school, was chosen vice-president; Mildred Weeks of Portland, a graduate of Washington high school, secretary; and Fred Scherman of Ashland, treasurer. The only close race was that for vice-president, in which Miss Cundy defeated Arthur Tuck of Redmond, noted athlete, 67 to 65.

The class heard a short address by Dr. John Straub, dean of men, who has been on the Oregon faculty for more than 40 years and holds the permanent position of advisor to the freshman class.

REPUBLICANS URGE QUICK RATIFICATION

Massachusetts State Convention Adopts Platform.

LODGE DISCUSSES TREATY

No Amendments, but "Unequivocal and Effective" Reservations Are Advocated.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—Prompt ratification of the treaty of peace without amendments, but with "unequivocal and effective reservations," was adopted in the platform offered at the republican state convention today.

The reservations include such unequivocal and effective measures as will make clear the unconditional withdrawal from the league upon due notice; as will provide that the United States shall assume no obligation to employ American soldiers or sailors unless congress shall so direct; as will make it clear that no domestic questions, such as the tariff and immigration, will be taken from the control of the United States, and that the United States shall be sole judge as to the interpretation of the Monroe doctrine. The Shantung provision of the treaty also was denounced.

Demonstration Given Lodge. That the attitude expressed in the resolutions toward the league of nations had been an overnight compromise was made obvious when Senator Lodge was introduced. He received the greatest demonstration of the day in the national assembly and, "I adopted the platform without debate. With the statement of reservations, I am in full accord."

"I accept the platform. I have no desire to discuss it, but on that portion of the resolution embodied in the two words, 'without amendment,' I wish to express my opinion. I have already voted for amendments."

"Here the senator was interrupted with a noisy demonstration, after which he continued: "Shantung is discussed. I voted for the amendments that have been presented. I voted for them in the committee and in the senate. I voted as I believed to be right. I will continue to do so. I would have so voted if I voted alone."

"In your resolutions, you condemn Shantung. You turned 40,000,000 peaceable and friendly people, our allies in the war, over to Japan for an indefinite period. I will never vote to do that. I cannot consent to give to any other nation the power to send to war the people of the United States without the free action of congress."

"I wanted a league of nations founded on The Hague convention. I wanted to see an international court and judges. What have we got? A political alliance and nothing more; the representatives of nations voting on the expediency of their own countries. They all got great advantages in the matter of territory and otherwise, except the United States."

Isolation Held Impossible

"I got nothing and I am glad of it. But as we asked nothing certainly we do have a right to say what our burden shall be. I am not disturbed by the question of isolation. You can't isolate the United States, and not impressed with the plea that if the treaty waits it will be necessary to reassemble the peace conference. It is already assembled. They are in Paris now. I think that at whatever council table the United States sits, her vote should be the equal of any other nation."

Senator Lodge also declared that he would vote for reservations giving the United States exclusive voice on the question of the Monroe doctrine and immigration.

"Unless the reservations I have specified are adopted," he said, "the treaty is dead."

As the senator concluded the nearly 1200 delegates came to their feet shouting and clapping their hands in a noisy and prolonged demonstration.

NEW BUILDING IS ASSURED

Plans for State Office Structure at Olympia Approved.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Tentative plans for a state office building to cost approximately $400,000, were approved by the state capitol commission today, and the architectural contract with Wilder & White of New York for final plans and construction supervision, was renewed. Bebb & Gould, Seattle architects, will be associated with Wilder & White. Completion of permanent plans is expected by December.

The state office building is to be part of the proposed new group and its immediate purpose will be to relieve the congestion in the old capitol building.
