stationed at the Presidio. Mrs. Alford will be gone about two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mears left for New York the beginning of the week. They will visit with Mrs. Mears' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Mond. Mrs. De Mond is expected in Portland later in the winter to be with her mother, Mrs. Henry Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loneragan were hosts at a small dinner Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Humphrey have returned to Portland after living in Philadelphia for the past two years. Mrs. Theodore Wilcox and Mrs. Holt Wilson are on their way home from New York, where Mrs. Wilcox was called by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Clara Stevens. Miss Stevens is recovering rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. Omar Spencer entertained Monday night at an elaborate dinner party at the Portland hotel, complimenting Mrs. Fielding Kelly, who will make her home at Hood River. The table was centered with a mass of gladioli, maidenhair fern and carnations. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Brockwell Statter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer. After dinner a line party was held at the Orpheum. Mrs. William Wheelwright is expecting Miss A. J. Sullivan of Washington, D. C., to make her visit this week. Miss Sullivan is the daughter of the late General Sullivan. General Charles Beebe was host on Wednesday last for luncheon at the Arlington club in honor of General Martin, who left Thursday for Chicago, where he will be head of military affairs. Mrs. Martin will join him there later. Mrs. C. H. Pio of 231 East Twelfth street had a social gathering at her home last Tuesday evening in honor of her mother, Mrs. Calvin H. Adams, a pioneer of 1852, who celebrated her ninety-first birthday that evening. Mrs. Adams was a resident of Hillsboro many years, and a goodly number of old friends from that city were present. The address of congratulation was given by Rev. Edward D. Hornschuh, an intimate friend of the family. EVENTS OF THE WEEK. An engagement of interest to college folk is that of Miss Ruth McCaw and James L. Spriggs, both students in Oregon Agricultural college. The engagement was announced just previous to the opening of school and was the culmination of two years' acquaintance in college and one summer at the McCaw ranch in eastern Washington. Miss McCaw is a member of the Sigma Kappa sorority and is a junior in O. A. C. this year. She has a host of friends, both in Corvallis and in Prescott, Wash., where her parents reside. Mr. Spriggs is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, and is a senior in college. His home is in Medford, Or. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Zancker of Irvington were hosts for a delightful dinner party at the Portland hotel on Saturday night honoring their guest, Mrs. Burton Pierce of San Francisco, who has been a visitor in the city for a short time. Old-fashioned dinners in brilliant hues were placed on the center table for the occasion and covers were placed for 11 guests including Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson of San Francisco, Dr. Pittenger, Mrs. Edith Daberin, William Grundy, William Fries, J. S. Kirkup, J. Paddock and Mrs. Pierce. The home of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. McIntosh in Irvington was the scene of a delightful dancing party Thursday evening in honor of Miss Mae Monroe of Astoria and Miss Helen Mann of La Crosse, Wis. The guests included the Misses Frances Mantrae, Nettie Mann, Mildred Olson, Meta Vasslander, Henrietta DeFrance, Ruth Taylor, Ethel Kison, Miss Morgan, David Gowans, Gilbert Ritchie, Al Clark, Sidney Tewsbury, Russell Patterson, Fred Jacobson, Lawrence Glass, Dale Miller, Ray Hempey, Mr. and Mrs. Al Roth, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crawford. Mrs. McIntosh was assisted by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Crawford. Juanita Howard, talented daughter of Mrs. Katherine Howard, who resides at 187 East Fourteenth street, gave several readings for the Martha Washington Chapter of Eastern Star Thursday night. Juanita shows marked dramatic ability. Miss Leona Frances Prag was a hostess at a delightful dancing party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Prag, Saturday evening. Killarney road and blue bells decorated the rooms. Those present were: Peggy McMurray, Charlotte Wells, Jane Honeyman, Anil Greeno, Doty Shea, Charlotte Malbout, Dorothy Dunne, Betty Brink, Agnes Kennedy, Catherine Daniell, Jane Fickenssteyn, Evelyn Kennedy, Kenneth, Frances Murphy, Ellen Cook, Rose Agnes Kady, Leona Prag, John Piper, Victor Campbell, Ralph Prag, Tom Norby, Raymond Hoefler, Miller Chapman, George Walker, Charles Cook, Leona Lawson, Eugene Forsythe, Irwin Folop, Scott Sichel, Ben Reed, Ernest Markwitz and Edmund Douglas. A pleasant party was given by Mrs. J. C. Fischer in celebration of her birthday. Games and music filled the evening and several vocal numbers were given by Mr. Moore. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, an Irish jig, and reel contest. Dancing from 10 to 12 will complete the evening's entertainment. The Iowa society will hold its first meeting of the season Wednesday at the Portland Social Turn Verein hall, Thirteenth and Main streets. Colonel Crossley, ex-president of the society, will be present and give an interesting talk on his experiences in France and Germany. The usual cards, dancing and refreshments. All Iowans and their friends are invited. The Knights of Columbus announce their opening party for the season at Multnomah hotel October 10. Darby's society orchestra will furnish the music. WEDDINGS. Holtzman-Mann. Charming in every detail was the wedding of Miss Lillian Manny and Harold H. Holtzman, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Manny, on last Tuesday evening. Rev. S. J. Chaney of Twin Falls, Idaho, officiated. The bride was attractive in a gown of white satin, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Manny, who was attired in pink tulle and wore a corsage bouquet of Cecill Brunner. Little Ruth Elaine Chaney was a charming flower girl. The bride was a student at Willamette university, completing her education in the east, and graduating from the Northwestern university, class 1919. The groom is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and was prominent in college activities. Among those present were several left immediately for Seattle. On their return they will be at home to their friends at 343 Linn avenue after October 10. Mr. Station is a valued employee of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company and Mrs. Station is supervisor of the east side office of the Pacific Telephone company. Paine-Otten. On Monday last Miss Ada Otten became the bride of Lieutenant George Thomas Paine at the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a few close friends. Miss Ruth Ralston was the only attendant of the bride, while the groom was supported by George Otten. The young couple have left for San Francisco, where they will make their home. Fox-Thurwacher. On Saturday evening, September 20, at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Lydia Thurwacher of Fond du Lac, Wis., became the bride of Glen E. Fox of this city at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lena Fox, 235 East First street, North, which was smartly decorated for the occasion. The ceremony took place in the presence of 30 relatives and friends of the young people. The bride wore a charming gown of ivory satin, her bouquet of bride roses mingled with sweet peas. Miss Mollie Wright, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a smart frock of white silk and georgette and carried white roses. Gale Fox, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The couple will make their home in Portland. Ellestad-Myers. The wedding of Miss Marie Martha Myers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Myers, and Theodore A. Ellestad took place Wednesday evening, September 24 at Central Presbyterian church, Rev. J. A. Townsend officiating. Miss Fay Barnes attended the bride as maid of honor and John Ellestad, the brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The Misses Laure Belle and Jennie Huggins were bridesmaids. Little Jean Dobie was flower girl. Just before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Helen Coe sang "The Bridal Hymn" and Mrs. Freeman McNary played the wedding
