

REVOLUTIONARY WARRIORS MUST GO, SAYS RAIN

Elks' Chief Is Preaching Gospel of Americanism.

VISITOR BANQUETED HERE

Order Wholly an American One, Says Grand Exalted Ruler, Who Is Touring United States.

CHIEFTAIN OF ELK HERD, A PORTLAND VISITOR YESTERDAY, FIGHTS BOLSEHEVISM.

FRANK L. RAIN, GRAND EXALTED RULER OF BENEVOLENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS.

His belief that an organization that sent 65,000 of its members into active military service, while 335,000 members—such as loyal and true American—supported their brothers in uniform by active service behind the lines throughout the war, represents a potent influence which can accomplish much in defeating the spirit of unrest now facing the country, brought Frank L. Rain, Fairbury, Neb., to Portland yesterday.

Mr. Rain holds the highest position in the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, that of grand exalted ruler, and he is touring the United States, visiting subordinate lodges in every state, inspecting work of subordinate officers and advising with grand lodge officers, but, above all, preaching to his large audiences a simple sermon on Americanism.

He is accompanied by his wife, a charming woman, and a true American interested in the mission of her husband as he. The couple reached Portland yesterday morning. Accompanying him were William S. Whelan, deputy grand exalted ruler of Oregon, south; Clarence L. Underwood, exalted ruler of Klamath Falls lodge of Elks; Mrs. Underwood, and C. Austin Hayden, secretary of Klamath Falls lodge and treasurer of the Oregon State Elks' association.

Committee Meets Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Rain were met at the Union station by a committee of Elks composed of Charles C. Bradley, grand exalted ruler of Portland lodge; Dr. Ben L. Nordens, esteemed leading knight of Portland lodge; William McGinn, esteemed loyal knight of Portland lodge; and James D. Olson, secretary of the Oregon State Elks' association. Mr. and Mrs. Rain stopped for a short time at the hotel, where they were taken to the Elks' temple and served with a generous luncheon including fruit, small and venison. At Ashland a committee of Elks presented Mrs. Rain with a large bouquet of flowers and loaded several boxes of apples on the train for the distinguished visitors.

Accompanied by a large delegation of Elks and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Rain were taken over the Columbia river highway in automobiles yesterday morning, stopping at Clatskanie for luncheon.

Banquet Tendered Guests.

Last night the grand exalted ruler was guest of honor at a banquet at the Benson hotel. Exalted Ruler Berg of Portland, lodge 1717, was the toastmaster, and, in addition to Mr. Rain, called on Mayor Baker, Dr. W. L. Toney, deputy grand exalted ruler of Oregon, north; Wilson S. Wiley, Charles C. Bradley and Clement Scott, deputy grand exalted ruler for Washington, south.

Following the banquet Mr. Rain addressed a large meeting in the Elks' temple, the keynote of his address being the Americanization of all who remain on the soil of the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Rain left for Tacoma on a late train last night.

"The Order of Elks is an American order," said Mr. Rain yesterday. "No lodge of Elks has ever been instituted in a country over which the stars and stripes did not wave. We have sworn allegiance to our flag and the constitution of the United States, and now that there appears to be a worldwide movement to destroy our rights given us by the constitution of the United States our order is pledged to use all lawful means to resist and prevent the spread of this movement."

Trouble-Makers Must Go.

"Through propaganda, dangerous to our free government and to our institutions and in disobedience of our laws, the exponents of bolshevism, anarchism, I. W. Wism and followers of kindred movements, must be driven from our midst. They must be exterminated, and the Elks, 600,000 of them throughout the United States, are determined to see that the spirit of revolution in this country must go."

Mr. Rain was elevated to the position of grand exalted ruler at the grand lodge convention of the order held last July in Atlantic City. He has been a member of the grand lodge since 1911, having been chairman of the committee on laws for two years and serving as a member of this committee for five years of it.

When not busily engaged with the duties which fall on the shoulders of the chief of the grand order of Elks, Mr. Rain is prosecuting attorney of Jefferson county, Nebraska, now serving his fourth term in that position. Before beginning his present tour, Mr. Rain participated in the welcome accorded to General John J. Pershing, a member of the Elks' lodge in Lincoln, Neb., and an honorary member of the El Paso, Texas lodge of Elks. The reception of the commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces was held in the lodge room of the New York lodge of Elks, where more than 5000 Elks gathered to honor the great soldier.

Bit of Ill Luck Noted.

A bit of ill luck has accompanied Grand Exalted Ruler Rain on the present trip. Thirty minutes prior to his departure from his home his private secretary was forced to abandon the tour because of illness at Omaha, Neb., Fred Robinson, grand secretary of the order of Elks, fell on a slippery floor where a dance was in progress, fracturing an arm. John P. Sullivan, past grand exalted ruler, of New Orleans, who was scheduled to accompany the official party on the trip, was detained on important business, and as a result Mr. and Mrs. Rain have been forced to travel unaccompanied. In addition to this, Mrs. Rain was forced to submit to a surgical operation in Los Angeles when her tonsils were removed. Mrs. Rain has fully recovered from the effects of the operation and now is enjoying the trip.

Conciliation Step Taken

New York Is Facing Most Serious Food Shortage in History With Much Decaying.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Secretary Wilson announced tonight the appointment of Mayor Hylan of New York, F. Paul Vaccarello of New York and James L. Hughes, immigration commissioner at Philadelphia, as a special conciliation commission to attempt to settle the longshoremen's strike at New York. The most serious food shortage in its history threatened this city today as a result of the unauthorized longshoremen's strike. Foodstuffs are piled high on the piers and Arthur Williams, federal food administrator, said large quantities of fruit, vegetables and other perishable foods have decayed.

Coastwise Steamers and Vessels Plying Between New York and Central and South American Ports are Stopped.

Thousands of tons of sugar are waiting to be removed to refiners. Notwithstanding persistent efforts of international officers to induce the men to return to work only 5000 of the 40,000 men involved are working. Union leaders admitted. The largest union in the district last night voted to remain on strike.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eyestrain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes cured through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man writes after trying it: "I had my eyes so blind I could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The attention seemed heavy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything cleared up. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands of people who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one or two into a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the first day. Irritation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. Note: Another prominent physician said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. It contains ingredients which are well known to eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time, in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good drug store and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family. It is sold in this city by all druggists.—Adv.

WHEN—YOU ARE THOROUGHLY CONVINCED That You Have Been Misled By Catchy Ads

WHEN WHEN WHEN WHEN AND AND AND AND AND

—you have worn yourself tired and weary and your patience is sorely tried; —you have hunted down all of the so-called "WAS $600 NOW $115 PIANO BARGAINS"; —you have attended the many "BONA FIDE" factory sales (in which you find an imaginary factory); —you are awakened to the shady tricks and methods used by certain dealers in cheap "STENCIL PIANOS"; —you are disappointed in finding the $600 bargain at $65 is only an old WORN-OUT SQUARE PIANO; —you are thoroughly convinced that GOOD STANDARD PIANOS cost GOOD MONEY ANYWHERE; —you realize that the "WOULD-BE" factory owner who has, in reality, very little worthy merchandise to sell, but instead lots of CATCHY ADVERTISING; —in which you are given all kinds of (PROMISES) extras, "free music lessons," "free trials for a year," "no interest" and at NOTHING DOWN and NOTHING A MONTH, ETC., ETC.; —in which you are almost made to believe you can get "SOMETHING FOR NOTHING,"
