CITATION RECEIVED TELLS OF PORTLANDER'S

Citation which told of his son emaining with his gun during three days' exposure to the enemy was received recently by C. E. Dalby, 335 East Ankeny street, and father of Corporal Charles M. Dalby. It was the first Intimation to the father of the danger his son had undergone.

Corporal Dalby left Portland with the 147th field artillery. He was constantly at the front after reaching Europe, being transferred into several different organizations and having in a year and a half only four days off. He returned to the days off. He returned to the United States with the 3d division and is now at Camp Dix. Upon his return he enlisted again for the term of one year that he might learn a trade. He is expected to be mustered out

Sincerity is Emphasized.

That we are convinced of the integrity and sincerity of purpose of the managers of said institution and of the quality of service it is rendering this community, and that the withholding of a certificate of approval authorizing their work is working a great injustice to the institution and to the children to be cared for by them, and respectfully urge that such certificate be issued without further delay. LECTURES TO

NON-CATHOLICS AT

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Portland, Oregon, Oct. 18, 1912.

My Dear Non-Catholic Neighbors.
You are cordially invited to attend a course of lectures to Non-Catholics on the principles and teachings of the Catholic religion. The lectures will be given at St. Mary's cathedral, Fifteenth and Davis streets, Portland, Or. by Rev. Orison McMullen, C. S. P., and will begin Sunday, October 19, 1919. The evening discourses will begin at $:00 P. M. A special feature will be the Question Box placed near the door, wherein questions concerning the Catholic religion may be left for the lecturer to answer.

This lecture course is projected in a spirit of sincere, Christian charity and is designed to acquaint those who differ with us with the teaching and practices of the Catholic church in order to promote concord among Christian people. Very sincerely yours. EDWIN V. O'HARA.
