AMERICAN ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT "DONE" WITH VERNON. St. Paul Men Play as Individuals in San Francisco, League Head Tells World.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—Thomas Hickey, president of the American association, repeated here tonight his statement of yesterday that the St. Paul club of that organization would not play a series of games with the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast Baseball league.

The St. Paul club agreed with Vernon, when it came west to play the minor league championship series with the Pacific Coast league pennant winners, that no games would be played with any other organization.

When I return east I will call a meeting of the American association clubowners and recommend that a series of games between the Pacific Coast league pennant winners and the champions of my organization be played each fall.

There will be a proviso that if the Vernon club, with Ed Maier as owner and William Estick as manager, wins the coast league flag, the series is off.

PHYSICAL ABILITY TESTED

BERKELEY STUDENTS MUST SHOW USEFULNESS. Ditch Jumping, Wall Scaling, Fence Vaulting and Life Saving Included in Examination.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Berkeley, Oct. 18.—(Special).—Coincident with the arrival of Professor C. S. Botsford of Reed college of Portland, to fill the place made vacant by F. W. Cosens, formerly instructor in physical education of the University of California and now director and assistant professor of physical education in the southern branch of the university, Dr. Frank L. Kieselberger, head of the physical education department of the university, issued the following statement relative to the basis on which athletics is carried on in the University of California:

"During the past five years the University of California has been following a new procedure in the physical education of its men. This new procedure has had as its basis of development the attitude that all men going through the University of California should be brought to a certain standard of physical ability along practical lines. In short, should be educated definitely to meet the physical exigencies of life which a vigorous, active man might be expected to experience.

The university has examined its men on entrance not through the traditional methods of tape measurements and artificial strength tests but through a series of tests of each man's actual physical ability. He is examined as to his ability to jump a ditch, to run to vault a fence, to scale a wall, and to fall in a way to insure safety in case of accident. Each man also is asked to demonstrate his ability to maintain himself in personal combat through his cleverness as a boxer and wrestler. Finally, he is tested as to his ability to maintain himself in the water and to save life as well.

This method of procedure has resulted in a very decided interest on the part of the students in general in the matter of educating themselves physically as a definite phase of their college education.

According to Professor Kieselberger Harvard university is planning to inaugurate a system of compulsory athletics for freshman classes similar to the one now in practice in the University of California.

MR. TUNA, FIGHTING TIGER OF PACIFIC, IS SOME MINNOW

Famed Swashbucker of Sea Gives Tom Marshall Regular Thrill as He Displays His Warlike Wares.

BY TOM A. MARSHALL. The fighting tiger of the Pacific ocean! The leaping tuna, giant horse of the mackerel family. A pelagic swash-buckler of the sea, said to have attained the length of ten feet, with a weight of 1000 pounds. The record rod catch of tuna, at Catalina island grounds, is 251 pounds. This acrobatic wonder is built for speed and agility. His first maneuver after the hook is set and his freedom restrained by the hook and line angler is a high dive, accomplished by the shimmy motion, in his effort to loose the hook. Tuna fishing is the acme of exciting American sports.

Sounding the Sport Reveille

ACCORDING to a page "ad" in an Ohio newspaper, music inspired the Reds to win the pennant. Yeh, the chin music of Pat Moran!

A Soap's Pablics. Once upon a time there was a manager who, after winning for a club his first and only pennant in a span of 23 years, was not dismissed. But it didn't happen in Philadelphia.

Telegrams Never Received. Patrick J. Moran, Cincinnati, O. Friend Pat—Accept my heartfelt congratulations on your wonderful showing in the world series. Your success is my success—or might have been—and vindicates my belief that you are the greatest manager in baseball. Believe me, as ever, WILLIAM F. BAKER. Collect.

William F. Baker, Brooklyn, N. Y. My Dear Mr. Baker—Your message of congratulation on my success in the world series was merely another example of your characteristic generosity and sense of fairness. The only regret that tinges my triumph is that you are unable to share in it financially. Sherwood Magee joins me in wishing you all the luck you deserve. Sincerely yours, PATRICK J. MORAN. Famous Doubles. Moran to Philadelphia to Cincinnati.

HEAVIES COME FROM WEST

East Has Had No Title Holder Since John L. Sullivan. NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(Special).—While the east has been extremely active in bedecking itself with championships in most lines of athletic endeavor it has been decidedly tardy in one. Not since the days when John L. Sullivan jauntily sported the heavyweight crown on his pompadour has this section of the country boasted a leader in the division. Starting his career in the days of bare knuckle fighting on the turf, he graduated into the mode of Marquis of Queensbury boxing and lost his title to James J. Corbett at New Orleans on September 7, 1892. For 27 years the east has never been able to produce a heavyweight capable of winning the championship.

Seated in two comfortable chairs, facing the stern of the boat, was Rolia "Pop" Helkes and the writer. We were fishing about one mile off coast, abreast of Long Point rocks. I was running about 100 feet of line, occasionally jumping my bait. A heavy strike, my leather thumb-break was applied, but the fish went out to sea. His first rush was immediately followed by a second and third before I could check the silver tiger. He had taken the air several times, with his graceful semi-bow curves, continuously acquiring "fighting pep."

MISSES BEST GOLFERS

MARRIED WOMEN RELEGATED BY YOUNGER SET. Records Show Matrons Have Hard Time Maintaining Top Place in Golfing World.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The victory of Miss Alexa Stirling in the national women's championship golf tournament at Shawnee-on-the-Delaware last week seems to emphasize the fact that matrons are unable to annex the coveted title in this old golf fixture. Since its inception in 1895 the title has been held by married women only twice—Mrs. C. S. Brown winning it the first year, and Mrs. C. Vanderbilt winning in 1915. The married women, however, have been quite consistent runners-up, according to the history of the affair.

National Champs Fall.

There never was a more wholesale vacating of national championship titles than took place this year. In the '19 track and field events on the titular list, but three champions of 1918 retained their titles—Jole Ray, in the mile run; Charley Pores, in the five-mile run; and George Bronder, in the javelin throw.

Fencing Coach Named.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 17.—The Harvard fencing team has secured as its coach, J. L. Danbury of the New York Fencers' club. He will be assisted by Edwin Gay, assistant dean, and by William Russell, former Harvard leader and the national duelling swords champion.

ARMY HARD PRESSED BY MAINE GRIDDERS

Notre Dame Defeats Nebraska, 14 to 0—Michigan Beats Aggies. Minnesota 20, Indiana 6.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The Army was extended to the limit to defeat Maine today, 6 to 0, as the soldiers were weakened by the absence of McQuarrie, Breidster, Blake and Shabacker, who are on the hospital list.

Notre Dame 14, Nebraska 0. LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—Successful use of the forward pass and the speed of Bergman, Notre Dame's right halfback, enabled Notre Dame university football team to score a 14-to-0 triumph over the University of Nebraska today.

On straight football Nebraska pounded the Notre Dame line hard immediately after Nebraska kicked off at the opening of the contest, Gipp, Notre Dame's left halfback, who caught the kickoff, carried the ball to Bergman who raced from the Notre Dame 10-yard line for a touchdown.

In the third period Gipp shot a forward pass to Bergman who ran from the Notre Dame 48-yard line to Nebraska's 10-yard line. A moment later Miller of the visitors slid off tackle for four yards. On a double pass Gipp to Bergman the latter made five more yards, carrying the ball to Nebraska's one-yard line. Bahan kicked the point.

Nebraska's lone touchdown came in the second period when the Cornhuskers got through the Notre Dame defense, Wright scoring. In the last period Nebraska added three more points when Captain Johnson sent a pretty 40-yard drop-kick over the goal.

Chicago 16, Purdue 0. CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Playing its initial game of the western conference season, the University of Chicago triumphed over Purdue, 16 to 0, in their annual contest at Marshall field today. "Red" Graham, the Maroon quarterback, played a star game for Chicago, scoring nine of the points. He booted a field goal from the 33-yard line in the first period and on a fake forward pass raced across the Purdue line for a touchdown in the second period. Hutchinson scored the second touchdown in the fourth period, moving a yard from the 10-yard line after a forward pass of 25 yards, Cole to Halladay, had placed the ball within Purdue's five-yard line.

Purdue opened up a spectacular aerial attack in the last period in an effort to score.
