

Society

Mrs. John Raymond Robinson and her Wedding Attendants.

Mrs. Robinson who was married at Forrer Hall Wednesday Evening.

Miss Frances O'Brien another Bridesmaid at the Wedding of Mrs. Robinson.

Miss Josephine Miller one of the Bridesmaids at this Pretty Wedding.

Mrs. Larratt Worthington Smith, Matron of Honor at the Robinson-Towne Wedding.

(Continued from Page 3.)
 Eighth avenue west on October 31, were married at Marietta, O., in 1869 and began housekeeping on a farm there. Mr. Rubins has been engaged in farming ever since and has a small place near Irving, Lane county. They have made Eugene their home for the past 11 years. Three children were born to them, Mrs. Clyde Shoemaker of Eugene, Mrs. C. Hodsteater of Kenton, O., and Frank Rubins of DeGraff, O.

sons enjoyed the affair, among them being Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, also from Tacoma.

Miss Rhoda Rumelin entertained the Bettis-Towne bridal party Tuesday night with a supper. The supper was given at the residence of Miss Rumelin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rumelin, and was the last of the many festivities given for this popular bride and her attendants.

Mrs. Walter E. Towne entertained with a dinner at the Hotel Portland Tuesday night, when her guests were the members of the bridal party of her daughter and the parents of the bridegroom. The party included Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, and the Misses Cora and Ida Robinson of Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Larratt

Owing to the fact that Tuesday, November 11, is Armistice day, the Illinois society will not hold its regular November meeting. All members are urged to attend the December meeting, which will be held in the assembly room of the Portland hotel Tuesday evening, December 9, at 8:15. A varied programme has been prepared and a cordial invitation is extended every Illinoisian.

Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Labbe were charming hosts for a dinner given at the Waverley Country club last Wednesday in honor of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyde of Tacoma, who were in town for a few days on their way home from New York. About 40 per-

Cork Tilings and Linoleums
 CORK FLOOR PRODUCTS CO.
 202 Broadway, Near Taylor

Smith, Miss Miller, Miss Frances O'Brien, Kenneth Robinson of Berkeley, John Raymond Robinson, Miss Gertrude Towne and the hostess.

An interesting visitor in town this week is Mrs. May Cheney, who is the guest of Mrs. James Dunlap, on Spring street. Mrs. Cheney is appointment secretary of the University of California and has been the means of placing many graduates of the university in positions all over the world. On Thursday Mrs. Cheney was honor guest at a dinner at the University club, given by a few of her friends, including Mr. and Mrs. George Geelinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beal Torrey, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. William Conger Morgan, Dean McAllister, Charles Cheney and his mother, Mrs. May Cheney.

Mr. and Mrs. David Beasley Campbell are in Portland again after spending a delightful week east of the mountains, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anderson in Walla Walla. While they were there David Campbell appeared in concert.

Mrs. William Ridenbaugh of Boise, Idaho, is in Portland, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Lavelle, of Butte, Mont., who is spending the winter here at the Campbell Hill. Mrs. Ridenbaugh came to attend the Bettis-Towne wedding.

Dr. M. M. Bettman will return this week from New York where he has been doing post-graduate work at Columbia university. Prior to his university study the doctor spent a short time in New Orleans, where he attended the meetings of the American Academy of Periodontology-Pyorrhea and the National Dental Association.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wetzel announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, to Otto Schulz of Walla Walla, Wash., formerly of Portland. The date of the wedding is set for November 31.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Kiehle, entertained with a children's party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Folgar Johnson Jr., whose fifth birthday fell on that day. The children who enjoyed the affair were Katherine Kiehle, Mary Stuart Smith, Mary Robertson, Nancy Jeffery, Jack Byden, Robert Steinger, Jack Newland, Willard Cleveland, Folger Johnson and Litchard Kiehle.

A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Helen Pollock in the rooms of Mrs. H. J. Altow at the Cecelia apartments Thursday night. The guests were all present when Miss Pollock walked into the web. The gifts were fastened at intervals on twine and hidden behind pictures, over doors, and any place where she would be obliged to use the tactics of a fly in reaching them. Many beautiful presents were received. A novel supper was served, the color scheme being pink and white. Those who enjoyed the evening with Miss Pollock were the Misses Ruth Bottler,

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Helen Pollock in the rooms of Mrs. H. J. Altow at the Cecelia apartments Thursday night. The guests were all present when Miss Pollock walked into the web. The gifts were fastened at intervals on twine and hidden behind pictures, over doors, and any place where she would be obliged to use the tactics of a fly in reaching them. Many beautiful presents were received. A novel supper was served, the color scheme being pink and white. Those who enjoyed the evening with Miss Pollock were the Misses Ruth Bottler,

Doing Something Different

The Wonder Millinery Mid-Winter Display

Out of the melting pot of fashion we pick the gold and discard the dross. It is a refining process that gives our

Hats, Furs and Umbrellas

a distinction all their own.

Dance Hats

A new showing and a most surprising assortment of attractive small dance hats of gold and silver cloth combined with gold lace, fur and velvet, created by exclusive artists in millinery of the fashion world.

We are especially featuring beautiful mid-winter hats, furs and umbrellas at attractive prices.

The Wonder MILLINERY

Baby Blankets

Great, warm woolly ones

At smaller prices than you've seen for Two Years

Blankets from Beacon, St. Mary's and Winthrop Mills—All colors and sizes and for all baby purposes—1000 of them—Savings every mother who reads this advertisement will share in and tell her friends about.

- At 85c —Nursery designs—30x40-inch blankets in light blues and pinks. Only eighty-five cents.
- At $1.25 —Fine fleeced blankets bound with satin. They're in white with striped borders and in solid pinks. Less than today's wholesale cost.
- At $1.65 —Wool fleeced blankets—30x40-inch—pink and light blues with both ends bound with satin ribbon.
- At $2.55 —Double wool fleeced blankets—size 30x40 inches. Snowy white with pink and blue borders. Note that these are double blankets.
- At $3.95 —Double heavy wool fleeced blankets in white with pink and light blue borders and silk bound. They're wonders at $3.95.
- At $5.95 and $9.50 —are extra fine wool blankets—snowy white—with pink and blue borders.
- FANCY BLANKETS —range in price from $1.25 to $4.50. Cotton fleeced blankets that are beautifully designed in nursery effects that Baby likes.

Wool Filled Comforters for Baby—$4.95

36x50 inch near silk blankets in light blue and pink with striped effect and design interwoven. A very limited number of them to sell at this very low price.

Mothers!

Have You Seen Our Complete 76-Piece Layette at $33.45

—It is as complete and perfect as we can make it. Absolutely everything necessary for the new baby is included.

—63 pieces are all ready to wear or use. 15 of the little wearables (dresses, day slips, nighties, and gertudes) are simply but exquisitely designed all ready for mother hands to finish.

—Come, see it! You'll declare it Perfect

Baby's Boudoir Nighties 75¢

They're completely finished with hand-crocheted edges—all ready for baby to wear. Made with double chest protector and tape at bottom.

VERY SPECIAL!

