One of the most enjoyable and diverting affairs of the season at Laurelhurst club was the "hard times" party given during the week under the auspices of the Men's club. More than 200 couples were in attendance, the clubhouse being taxed to its capacity and an evening of rare jollity reigned. The clubhouse was decorated in keeping with the spirit of the party. Tomorrow evening will be a meeting of the general membership of the Laurelhurst club to consider the construction of an addition to the clubhouse in order to increase the dancing space, which is becoming somewhat congested. Tomorrow afternoon the ladies' card club will meet, instead of Tuesday afternoon. Prize winners Thursday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dose were host and hostess, were Mrs. J. P. Buchanan and Mrs. D. A. Fellows in bridge, and Mrs. Arthur Smith and A. M. Lillie in "300." The first party of the season for juniors was held Friday night and was largely attended.

Chapter E. P. E. O. held a very pleasant meeting at Mrs. McCaw's on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Davies from Nebraska, was a visitor. After the business meeting refreshments were served.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Mrs. Mary LeClair by 25 of her friends at the home of Mrs. George Gilbert, 551 East Twenty-first street. Mrs. LeClair leaves today for a two months' trip to Michigan and other eastern states. Five hundred was played during the evening, and later a sumptuous luncheon was served. Mrs. LeClair was presented with a beautiful purse in remembrance of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Perrie L. Dolph entertained with a Halloween party at their home in Piedmont Saturday night, honoring Miss Lina Frances Brown, and her fiancé, Walter Meade Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Perry Evans were hosts for a gay Halloween dance and card party last Thursday night at their home in Laurelhurst. About 75 of the younger set and married folk danced their way around witches, hobbits and lighted pumpkins. During the evening Miss Ruth Agnew, soprano, sang very beautifully, with Miss Dorothy Cox as accompanist. At midnight a delightful buffet supper was served by Mrs. Evans, assisted by several matrons.

Miss Marion Danley was hostess Saturday evening, November 1, for a delightful Halloween party at her home in Alameda Park. The early part of the evening was spent in fortune telling and other Halloween

1000 Beautiful Frocks

—for Evening, Dinner, Dansant. Afternoon, Street and Business wear will be placed on sale Monday, November 10, 1919

This sale is of exceptional importance to the women of Portland because it is made up of the Season-end Stock and Road Samples of the most reputable designers of distinctive Gowns and Dresses in New York City.

There are velveteens, jerseys, serges, and satins with more or less straight lines, prim buttons or narrow fringe trimmings—there are satins with the accentuated hips and newest girdles—all smart and well tailored.

--- $23.75

Wool velours and velveteens are in high favor in the East. We have many smart frocks of these accepted materials—also of satins, serges and jerseys—very new and cleverly designed.

--- $29.75

Tricotee! Tricotee! The two clever "trics" taken by the cloth manufacturers and made into lovely frocks by the best designers. Also velveteens and charmeuses that follow the latest fashions, yet attain individuality in trimmings.

--- $43.75

Holidays are such jolly days! And such dressy days! Here's Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas and New Year's right at hand with a remarkable sale of frocks in progress!

Party gowns? We have a few in this sale, but any one of them is well worth an early morning shopping trip. Or if you shop in the afternoon there will be many lovely broadcated satins and Georgette crepes for afternoon or informal party wear. And such smart street gowns of tricotine, serge, and velveteen!

--- $59.50

If words were colors, we might be able to describe a certain collection of tricotee, tricotine, serge, velour, satin and Georgette crepe gowns that have demure collars, flirty frills and many styles of the new silhouette. There are a few evening gowns that are very pretty.

--- $79.50

Some feminine hearts are set on duvetyne. And we have all the familiar materials—tricotine, taffeta, palette, charmeuse and serge—cleverly designed and smartly got together. Think of the smartest gown you ever saw, then let us show you one just a little more desirable.

--- $95.00

If you have a Harry Collins label on your gown, you need never give a thought to the style of it, for it is absolutely right in design and material. This week—just to bring interest to the highest pitch—we are giving a 20% reduction on all Harry Collins and other exclusive gowns upwards of $150.00.
