Nov. 10th to 15th

is of interest to parents, teachers, librarians, scout leaders, as well as to all children everywhere. It means that progressive booksellers, and librarians all over the United States are featuring the best in children's books this week.

It means that parents and all who are interested in children may see and select books, quietly and leisurely from complete stocks and undisturbed by the hurly-burly of Christmas crowds. Gill's extend a cordial invitation to visit and browse at your leisure in their

COMING EVENTS.

Tomorrow the joint locals of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen will give their first dance and entertainment of the season in the W. O. W. hall, Eleventh and Alder streets. The committee in charge has arranged to entertain the ladies and their families and as the best orchestra and vaudeville acts in the city have been secured a general good time is expected.

A big supper will be served after the dance and the committee, consisting of Carl S. Kimball, Mrs. W. H. Thompson, have worked hard to make the affair a success. Membership cards will admit members and their families.

An event looked forward to with interest in the card party to be given in St. Francis hall, East Eleventh and Oak, by the parish women on Thursday, November 12. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. The hostesses for the party are Mrs. P. Stennick, Mrs. M. Fennell, Mrs. Charles Marles, Mrs. M. C. Springer and Miss Gaffney.

Portland's tenth horse show is one of the events of social importance of the week. All that is needed at any time to speed up entertaining and other social activity is an excuse and horse show week is the liveliest of the year socially, except the holidays.

Portland has taken its horse show seriously. Boxes at the exposition building have been arranged with ten seats with the avowed purpose of allowing box holders to seat a fair-sized dinner party without "borrowing." One large formal dinner of more than 60 plates is already scheduled and invitations are out for numerous private affairs. The horse show bids fair to be of colossal proportions. The entry list already exceeds the 600 mark.

Equine aristocrats from Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, San Francisco and all of the wealthy centers of southern California have been entered and the local beauties will have to be shown at their best to win.

Among the women who have made entries from Vancouver, B. C. are Miss Janet Drysdale, with her hunter, Gold Finder, and Miss Hilda McCormick, with The Tank, a high-jumping polo pony. Mrs. Charles E. Casper, of Seattle sends her Highland Marksmen for the hunter classes.

Locally Mrs. Russell B. Caswell has Jackdaw; Miss Helen West, Dutchess Rose; Mrs. James H. Murphy, Lady Dufferin; and Brigadier; the Misses Peeling, Winkum and Brigadier; Mrs. Coe McKenna, Flashlight; and Miss Marion Bowler, Fanwood.

The Woman's Benefit association of the Macabees will give a joint reception and banquet in honor of the new state commander, Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley, and the supreme representative and pathfinders tomorrow evening at the Oddfellow's hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. All members of the order are invited.

The monthly session of the Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile, met in Masonic temple Wednesday, November 6. A buffet luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. Henrietta E. Boyd. The table was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns, from which Mesdames Robert Krohn, Edward Holman and Maud Buffum served coffee. Mesdames James E. Brockway, Ben Gadsby, Owen Johnson and Elizabeth Jones cut the loaves, while daintily gowned maids and matrons assisted in serving.

A short business session was held at 2 P. M., after which bridge and 500 were enjoyed by the members. Mrs. Herman Blasing won honors in bridge and Mrs. B. H. Moore in 500. Attractive prizes were awarded.

Supreme Queen Edith Gattis of Seattle will join the ladies of the Kew-dricks Imperial party, which will include Mrs. W. Freeland Kendrick and eight women from the east and south, arriving the morning of November 20. Honorary membership will be extended to them. Festivities will begin with a luncheon given to the distinguished guests and members of new class. The class will number 160 or more. Many women from out of the city will be among the number.

The High School Woman's association will give a tea in the parlor of the Hotel Portland Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It is expected that there will be about 100 present.

Mrs. Arthur Williams was hostess at a small dinner Tuesday evening in the main dining room of the Hotel Portland. Covers were laid for six guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Manning of 552 East Fourteenth, entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Veazie, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Huntington, will be hostesses for the Fortia dinner party Thursday, November 13, at 6 P. M.

Company C Veterans club, recently of company C, 182d United States Infantry, will give a social dance Friday evening, November 14, in the armory ballroom, Tenth and Couch streets.

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae club held an interesting meeting at the First Presbyterian church house on Saturday.

Mrs. Burton Beck, by means of lantern slides, presented the work of the settlement school for the "mountainers" of the south, near Gallatin, burg, Tenn., which is maintained by the Pi Beta Phi fraternity.

The quaint songs of the mountain people were sung by Mrs. Fletcher Linn. Miss Zulema Kostomatsky told of the plan of building a hospital in connection with the school, to be financed by the fraternity.

Mrs. George Guthrie presided at the tea table and was assisted by Mrs. Florence Knapp.

The parishioners of St. Lawrence, who have been particularly active in church affairs, are busy preparing a parish reception and Thanksgiving festival for the afternoon and evening of Friday, November 21.

The auditorium at Third and Sherman streets will be attractively decorated. At the various booths, articles appropriate to Christmas will be sold.

For the enjoyment of the little ones there will be a fish pond, a taffy pull, and various amusements. A feature of the evening's entertainment will be a good motion picture.

The Portland Heights club announces events in November as follows: Friday evening, November 14, formal dance; November 21, juniors' party; November 28, hard times' party, H-fashioned dancing. Pre-war clothes and patches regarded the height of fashion. The social committee for November comprises Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bates, Mrs. E. B. Hendershott, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Overmire and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson.

A party of this week that promises to be most enjoyable is the dancing and card party to be given by Camelia social club in Masonic temple, Friday evening, November 14. Patrons for the dance are Miss Nell McKinley, Mrs. T. J. Mendenhall, Mrs. Flora Smith, Mrs. J. Francis Drake and Mrs. Laura B. Hinton. Miss Julian Cole, worthy matron, and C. W. Hopkins, worthy patron of Camelia Chapter No. 27, Order of Eastern Star, will be guests of honor.

The personnel of the committees are: Dancing, Mrs. Jacob Feldman, chairman; Mrs. S. Elliott Finch, Mrs. L. C. Laws, Mrs. O. S. Cutler, Mrs. W. L. Bentley, Mrs. C. F. Clodius, Mrs. H. J. Wittshire, Mrs. C. C. Crawford, Mrs. Harry Crawford, Mrs. Christy, Mrs. Theodore G. Williams, Mrs. Theater Reed, C. W. Hopkins, Mrs. Clay Hall, Mrs. Howard Hawley, Mrs. L. M. Green, Mrs. D. Ward, Misses Edith and Anna Gonshak; cards, Mrs. W. S. Dunagan, chairman; Mrs. H. Dohl, Mrs. W. C. Maxwell, Mrs. W. E. Shell and Mrs. Estelle Dye. All Order of Eastern Stars and their friends are invited to attend.

The board of relief of the Oregon Eastern Star, composed of all the chapters in the city, will give a dance and card party the evening of December 2 at the Multnomah hotel. The mezzanine floor has been secured for the occasion and a large attendance of members of the Masonic and Eastern Star bodies and their friends is expected. The proceeds will be donated to Masonic and Eastern Star home.

The Wisconsin society will have its usual monthly social next Thursday evening at Turnverein hall, Thirtieth and Main streets. Cards, dancing and refreshments are on the programme.

J. E. Stevenson will give a talk illustrated with slides.

The dancing party announced by the Kanton club for Wednesday evening, October 12, has been postponed two weeks and will be held the evening of the October 26 at the Kanton clubhouse.

The social committee in charge of the affair will be Mrs. J. L. Sterrett, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gilles, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McGee, Mrs. W. W. Harder and G. A. Pierson. Elaborate plans are being made, particulars of which will be announced later.

WEDDINGS.

Sherman-Lang.
A very quiet wedding which came as a great surprise to the many relatives and friends was solemnized Saturday evening, November 1, at the home of Rev. J. Bowersox, when Miss Annetta L. Lang became the bride of Lawrence H. Sherman, Miss Bernice Sherman, sister of the groom, and Miss Margorie Joy attended the bride, while Hugo Lang, brother of the bride, and Frank Rutter attended the groom. The bride was a charming picture in her gown of white net trimmed in embroidery and lace and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, while her attendants carried bouquets of white carnations.

The bride was a graduate of the class of 1917 of Jefferson high. Mr. Sherman, recently discharged from the navy at Norfolk, Va., having served during the war, has re-enlisted as a chief pharmacist's mate. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman will reside at Bremerton, Wash., after December 1.

Aureguy-Reckard.
Miss Emily Reckard became the bride of E. L. Aureguy of California last Thursday night. Both are well-known members of the Multnomah club. They will make their home in Kansas City.

Anderson-Malone.
The marriage of Miss Etelah Patricia Malone to Nathan Grant Anderson took place at Grace Memorial church last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the presence of six immediate relatives.

The wedding dinner was served at 6 o'clock in the rose room of the Benson hotel, the dinner party consisting of the bride couple, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nichol, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hardcastle and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Anderson, father and mother of the bridegroom. A theater box party followed the dinner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Albert Malone, ranch-look place at Grace Memorial church.

Below You the City, Robed in Silver and Black Velvet

The magnificent vista from Westover Terraces is not for daylight hours alone. Night, too, has its glories. After evening's shadows have blotted out the gleaming mountain peaks and shimmering rivers, then there is born another Westover—the Westover that looks down on a great city robed in silver and black velvet.

It is a wonderful sight—a view of which one never tires. It is ever changing, ever sparkling, ever new! To the man who must, of necessity, spend the day confined in office or plant there are, in this unsurpassed panorama, elements that make for greater business plans, bigger ideas and a larger joy in living.

See Westover by day. Its smooth boulevards, its many beautiful homes, its graceful terraces will delight you. And do not fail to see the Westover of the night. Then will you be instantly convinced that this unsurpassed property must be the site for your home.

Only a limited number, however, can make their home on the terraces. There are just a few more than 100 lots for sale. When they are gone they never can be duplicated. Now is the time to make your selection before the choicest sites are taken. Your home should be in this preferred residential district where only homes of character can be built and where every home has 10,000 miles of wonderland for a dooryard.
