Venice 75 Miles From Fiume.

Venice, to which Naval Attache Reeves has gone to report on conditions, is only about 75 miles from Fiume on the water route and nearer yet by the land lines. The possibility of a move into Isteria by D'Annunzio was mentioned in recent advices, in which case the prediction was made that whole divisions of Italian regulars would be likely to follow him. An Istrian move would take him to the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the project is located in the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the content of the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the last in the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the project is located in the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the last was made in the project is located in the borders of Venetia, in which Venice like in the last with the possibility of the lands will be sought as requested. Italy's internal conditions have been rendered more uncertain by the recent elections, which gave the socialists largely increased representation.

The main lower Columbia river highway from Forland to Astoris and Seaside is in excellent condition at present, with no detours and no road grief. So reports Clyde Mason of Seaside, who drove up here over the highway with his wife to attend the Shrine doings in Portland. He says it is in such good condition that motorists can count on its being passable all winter.

Mr. Mason also brought word that Seaside is already making preparations for winter and spring tourists and vacationers. A pier half a mile long into the Pacific, with sea wall and wide concrete walk to replace the present board walk, and an additional automobile driveway the full length of the town, are soon to be submitted for approval at a city bond election.

Seaside has installed a rock crusher plant, and all streets in both Seaside and Geavhart are to be improved before June.

D'Annunzio Eyes Dalmatia.

"According to a dispatch from Spalatto, D'Annunzio intends to occupy the whole of Dalmatia as far as the Narenta and liberate Montenegro giving it to Cattaro. The operation is being supported by a large part of the first and many troops.

"Dalmatia accordingly is awaiting prompt decisions by the Belgrade government against the Italian rebelle."

BOME, Nov. 22—A semi-official statement lasued here today says:

"A minority in D'Annunzio's forces, canting on the support of friends in the interior of Italy, peralists in the idea of attempting seditious action against Italy itself."

LONDON, Nov. 22—The situation on the Adriatic, as a result of Gabriele d'Annunzio's campaign, has reached a crists. Private advices leave no doubt that he is determined to annex Dalmatia and attack Montenegro.

The Jugo-Slavs are stated to have concentrated troops and to be prepared to resist aggression.

Hostilities Are Expected.

Another regort says a republican undercurrent directed against the Italian monarchy exists among D'Annunzio's forces.

It is stated in the advices that any further aggression by D'Annunzio will certainly precipitate hostilities with the Jugo-Slavs who, however it is declared, will direct their attack against D'Annunzio and not against the Italian government.

It is not known, however, whether

The issue is sharply drawn between the nationalist elements, which appland D'Annunzio's Fiume adventure, and the pacifist socialists, who are bitterly against any move that will be likely again to involve Italy in war.
