Third Oregon Veterans Present.

Members of the old Third Oregon, of which Judge Gantenbein was coloniel, veterans of the Spanish-American war and members of the Oregon National Guard were in attendance, and a guard of militiamen stood beside the flag-draped casket throughout the service.

nel, veterans of the Spanish-American war and members of the Oregon National Guard were in attendance, and a guard of militiamen stood beside the flag-draped casket throughout the service.

Following the rendition of the hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," by Mrs. Fred L. Cisen, and a scriptural reading by Rev. W. G. Eliot, pastor of the church, Majer W. S. Gilbert, formerly of this city and now of Astoria, chaplain of the old Third Oregon and associated with Judge Gantenbein in that organization for many years, delivered a culogy for his departed friend. He characterized his death in the prime of life as a loss to the citizenship of the city and country, and said that above all others he exemplified four attributes of worthy

BIGGER NORMAL SCHOOL AT-TENDANCE HELD NEED.

Monmouth Institution Not Taxed to Capacity, Positions in Oregon Are Unfilled.

Oregon Are Unfilled.

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Oregon and all the northwest needs more teachers. The supply has been short throughout the past year. The demand is growing. Normal school attendance is increasing but not to a point high enough to relieve materially the rural and city school situation in Oregon. More high school graduates must enter the profession to swell the teacher supply sufficiently.

This was the gist of an appeal by

This was the gist of an appeal by J. H. Ackerman, president of the normal school and former superintendent of public instruction in Oregon, in discussing the present situation. While higher salaries in city schools are held responsible in large part for drawing so many teachers actions are neutrosponsione in arge-part for drawing so many teachers out of the country, it is likewise as-serted that higher salaries in busi-ness pursuits have drawn many in-structors from their useful places in the schoolroom. During the war especially a large number of teachers

BAD SPRAINS OR

Rub pain, ache, soreness and swelling right out with "St. Jacobs Liniment"

Ruh it on a aprained ankle, wrist, shoulder, back or a sprain or strain anywhere, that's when you realize the magic in old, honest "St. Jacob's Liniment" because the moment it is applied out comes the pain, ache, soreness and swelling. It penetrates right into the injured muscles, nerves, ligaments, tendons and hones, and relief comes instantly. It not merely kills pain, but scottice and heals the injury so a quick recovery is effected.

Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Liniment" right now at any drug store and stop auffering. Nothing else sets things straight so quickly—so thoroughly. It is the only application to rub on a had sprain, strain, bruise or swelling—Adv.
