

OREGON PARS TO VOTE THIS TIME

State Election Will Be 11th That Shows Trend.

NORTH DAKOTA TO LEAD

Political Activities Are Begun Nevertheless and Several Are Receptive, Anyway.

Instead of being the first state to hold presidential primaries next year, as was formerly the case, Oregon now holds the eleventh, and therefore will persuade Roy W. Ritzner of Bendleton has been considering the prospect, but with Frank Curt practically in the field, Ritzner may not make the race, but devote his time to his candidacy for president of the state senate.

Several From Portland Pondering.

In Portland, besides Phil Metschan Jr., others who would like to be delegates are David M. Dunne, Arthur C. Spencer and Charles E. Cochran. Judge E. R. Butler of The Dalles is mentioned as a possibility. Ralph E. Williams, national committeeman, will not be a delegate, although in some states the national committeeman also wants to be a delegate. Mr. Williams' theory is that, with such a small number of delegates from Oregon, he does not want to intrude, for he will be at the convention, anyway, in his official capacity.

Democrats are not as active for delegate as the republicans, although several are being discussed. It is practically certain that Judge Bernard Daly of Lakeview will run as a delegate-at-large. He is being urged to enter the contest and when in Portland at the stock show his fellow democrats obtained his consent to enter the contest. Judge Thomas Crawford of La Grande is another who is expected to be a delegate, and so is George Ledyard of Portland. Fred V. Holman is a tentative delegate, for delegate to the COMMUNITY FEDERATION AT SALEM EXPECTED TO RESULT IN GREAT GOOD.

SCENE AT MARION COUNTY FEDERATION CLINIC, HELD IN CONNECTION WITH CONVENTION OF COMMERCIAL CLUB SECRETARIES.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—That the community federation, such as has been established in Marion county, will do more toward eliminating party jealousies between the farmers and townspeople than any other agency was the statement made by George Quayle, secretary of the State Chamber of Commerce, in his recent address here before the Oregon Association of Commercial Club Secretaries. During the recent convention, a clinic was arranged in the mind of Mr. McCroskey, and according to reports from the out-of-town guests, besides the visiting secretaries, the clinic was attended by farmers and fruit growers from every section of Marion county.

The Marion county community federation originated in the mind of Mr. McCroskey, and according to its members, the organization has made remarkable strides in the advancement and development of this section. "Keep your money in a circle" is the motto of the federation.

AVIATORS POLICE HAITI BANDITS DRIVEN OUT OF JUNGLES BY U. S. MARINES.

Superstitious Cause Native Law-breakers to Seek Open Where Roundup Is Facilitated.

More dreadful than the song of rifle bullets or the glint of unsheathed bayonets to bandits hid away in the jungle mountains of Haiti is the sight and roar of a marine airplane. Implements of hand-to-hand fighting are old in the eyes of the treacherous mountaintop tribes who have been trying to disrupt the missionary work of the American marines among the natives ever since they were first sighted by Gunnery Sergeant Thomas L. McCullough, United States Marine Corps, whose home is 342 Sherret avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

Plane pilot with squadron B of the marine aviation force, tells the story of fear thrown into the bandit's heart by the speed and maneuver of a fast Liberty machine. In a letter to Captain LeRoy P. Hunt, officer in charge of the local marine recruiting station, Panama building, he says:

"For months marines have tried to bring peace to the turbulent little island of Haiti. We are using planes to fly over the jungles where bandits hide. They are superstitious law-breakers and the sight of a plane scares them to the open. Then our forces round them up for capture. So far the marines have had but few casualties, and we have successfully rounded up several dangerous bandits."

Sergeant McCullough recently recommended as a candidate for pilot's wings in the aviation corps while returning from a year's service overseas with the marine aviation force. He has four German planes to his credit.

KELSO PLANT IS SOLD MILL OF McLANE Fir Products Company Changes Hands.

KELSO, Wash., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The Thompson-Ford Lumber company, which has been operating the Kelso mill and co-operative sawmill on the west side under a lease agreement this week by Russell Hawkins of Tullamook is an avowed candidate for delegate and so is W. H. Brooks, who will probably have his name on the ballot. Clarence Hotchkiss says he may decide to run, although there is anything in being a delegate save the honor, and it is expected to be a candidate for delegate.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, and when an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmner's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmner's Swamp-Root is due to the fact so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in over-crowded kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmner & Co., Elmhurst, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention The Portland Sunday Oregonian. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

COLLEGE CORRECTS PHYSICAL DEFECTS

53 War Veterans Take Rehabilitation Work at Corvallis

VARIOUS DEVICES USED

Wounded Men, Unable to Endure Gymnasium Exercises, Have Special Training.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Corrective exercise work is playing a large part in the physical education department at Oregon Agricultural college this winter, according to Professor James G. Arthurhoun, who is in charge of the gymnasium. Fifty-three government rehabilitation men are taking some form of corrective work and there are 15 or 20 men besides this who have some physical defect which prevents them taking the regular gymnasium work.

A special room is fitted up with various contrivances which are adapted to the correction of various physical defects. A hand exerciser, for example, corrects a weak hand, heart trouble and the numerous other common defects. Chest weights, wall and tripod, are used to remedy spine trouble and lead to general development of back, shoulder and arm muscles, as well as to increase lung capacity and strength. A plinth table, for massage, and an abdominal kneader, for massaging the stomach muscles, are a part of the equipment. A rowing machine occupies one corner and the fellows who are able to do the more strenuous exercise work out on this.

WHOLE FAMILY IS NOW HELPED

Mother, Father and Daughter All Overcome Troubles by Taking Tanlac.

"A medicine that will do a family the good Tanlac has done mine ought to be in everybody's home," said J. C. Foster, a retired dairyman, who lives at Cloverdale, Oregon, while in the Owl Drug Store in Portland, a few days ago. Continuing, he said:

"I had suffered from constipation for six years so bad that I had to alternate every week or so with laxative, and about a year ago my stomach began to trouble me considerably. I had a very poor appetite and could hardly eat a thing and when I did manage to force down a little something I would have the worst sort of cramps and would bleed badly. I had pain in my temples and under my right shoulder blade, and felt tired and worn out all the time. When I found myself in this condition I immediately began taking Tanlac, and you will see it was perfectly natural for me to do so when I tell you what it did for my wife and daughter."

"My daughter had the flu last April and was left in such a bad condition from it that she was very worried about her. She was badly run down and had a bad cough. My wife, who had been sick for some time, got a bottle and began giving it to her. Well, in all about eight bottles, and if you could see her now and have seen her before she took Tanlac you would not believe it was the same person. She began improving after taking the first bottle, and is now as well and in good health as she ever was in her life."

"My wife had rheumatism so bad in her lower limbs she could scarcely walk, and a few bottles of Tanlac immediately set her straight again and she never had a pain of any kind."

"So my thoughts naturally went to Tanlac for my troubles, and after taking only three bottles I feel good, sleep fine and am not bothered with constipation or with a pain of any description."

"My family could not say too much for Tanlac and we only wish it were possible for us to tell everybody about it. Ours is what you might call a family of Tanlac boosters."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

THE METZ MASTER SIX

A Car Complete in Every Detail

We beg to announce the arrival in this city of a carload of the new Metz Master Six cars—a car many of us have been awaiting for months.

Do not confuse this new product of the Metz factory with the old four-cylinder, chain-driven Metz car. The two have absolutely nothing in common except the name (Metz), good material and workmanship, for which the old car has always been noted.

So designed that all parts are easily accessible when adjustments are necessary. Its general appearance and make-up place it in class with the most up-to-the-minute and expensive cars, yet at a price that is not excessive.

RHEUMATISM.

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It.

In the Spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.
