Today

THANKSGIVING—a year ago lonesome hearts across the sea dreamed of the sumptuous table at home covered with a bountiful spread; thoughts of dear familiar faces, and visions of smart civilian clothes.

But the boys are home, and thoughts of yesterday are realizations of today.

And thoughts of good clothes have led the thoughtful to buy at our big upstairs store

And—TODAY the very clothes you buy in our big upstairs store are actually SELLING FOR LESS than the present WHOLESALE PRICE.

By buying early, in colossal quantities, we were able to make you a saving of $10 on a suit or overcoat.

Yes, we can prove it! And we challenge you to duplicate our values at any store in the northwest at our prices.
