In the general rumblings of the run.

Selection of a campaign manager Lawrence H. Murray, laborer, 18, and Oregon next year, with national, state, for the General Leonard Wood camcounty and municipal elections, not the least interesting are the rumbles regarding the legislative line-up. As a rule, a man who serves in the legislature for a session wants to continue his service or aspires to other office, chiefly congressional.

Of the men who served in the state senate in the 1919 session, and whose terms have expired, the majority are planning to feturn. House members want to be re-elected or are shaping their course for seats in the senate. The legislative veterans have the first call when names are discussed, but in March there will be a brigade of candidates for the legislative body. Senatorial Contest in Prospect.

Senatorial Contest in Prospect. Already there is a prospect of a content for the senatorial seat for the district consisting of Crook, Deschutes, Jefferson, Klamath and Lake counties. George T.
