

U. S. JURY INDICTS MICHIGAN SENATOR

Spending of $500,000 to Defeat Henry Ford Alleged.

VOTE BUYING CHARGED

Scandal Extending From Detroit's Populace Center to Indian Reservation Uncovered.

(Continued From First Page.) Indianapolis, Evansville and Frankfort, Ind. These cases, beginning in 1915, resulted in some 200 convictions.

Bank Records Inspected.

Dalley and Houck came to Michigan last August. Bank records were inspected and the visitors lists of safety deposit vaults gone over. With the tale of these as a starter, the investigators were sent out. They visited "small fry" politicians first, offering them vague hints of what might come from a mythical campaign of a certain Michigan politician. Objections to small returns were followed by "confidential" comparisons with the Newberry campaign.

Generally, it was said, these lesser political leaders fell into the trap, telling what they had received and explaining who "ought to handle the money" in given wards of towns. The next grade of political leader was then approached and by this method it was said, a clear trail was blazed to the "higher ups." When brought into the grand jury room and confronted with accurate accounts of their conversations with the agents, the men generally, it was said, repeated their stories.

Two Laws Basis of Indictment.

The government's legal experts, headed by Dr. Dalley, H. Dalehousier of Grand Rapids, a former assistant district attorney, and Oliver Pagan, indictment expert for the department of justice, took both state and federal laws as the basis for the indictments. The federal corrupt practices act of 1910 limits the expenditures of senatorial candidates to $10,000, and requires that four statements be filed with the secretary of the senate, one preceding and one following first the primary and then the election. The Newberry affidavit alleged in the second indictment was filed in correspondence with this act.

The second federal corrupt practices act which the indictment alleges was violated was passed in October, 1918. It made bribery of voters a crime after several federal courts held that such an act was not an offense against the laws of the United States. This law came into being after the Michigan primary, but just ahead of the election.

Limit Is Fourth of Salary.

The state laws were brought in because the act of 1910 provides that if a state limits campaign expenditures to less than the $10,000 named in that act, then the state law shall apply to campaigns within that campaign. As it happens, the Michigan statute limits campaign expenditures to a fourth of the salary of the position sought for each primary or election campaign. An aspirant for United States senator in this state may, therefore, it was argued, spend only $1875 on the primary and an equal amount on the election campaign.

The law forbidding use of the mails to defraud was first used in election cases by Mr. Dalley in the Haute Indictments. It was applied to the Newberry case as probably covering various letters sent to campaign contributors, which letters, it was charged, were worded so as to deceive the recipients as to the amount of money ready collected by the Newberry treasury.

$176,568 Expenditures Shown.

To meet a probable defense that Senator Newberry was ignorant of the amount of money and its sources used in his campaign, the government intended to use a statement issued by the senator's managers shortly after the first rumors of corruption began to be heard. This statement showed receipts of $178,856 and expenditures of $176,568. Of the contributions, John S. Newberry, senatorial brother, was credited with $98,900; A. Victor Barnes of New York, president of the American Book company, with $28,000; Henry B. Joy of Detroit, another brother-in-law of the senator, with $25,000, and Mrs. Henry B. Joy of the senator's sister, with $10,000.

Government Attempted to Show That All These Persons Conferred with Truman H. Newberry While He Was a Candidate, Thus Making Him Knowable of the Campaign.

It also has a number of letters which he wrote to politicians while the campaign was on. Frederick Cady, formerly a Detroit school teacher, but now of New York and connected with the American Book company, was named as one with whom the candidate conferred.

Conspiracy Is Alleged.

These circumstances were also used as a basis for the allegation of the second indictment, that there was a general conspiracy to aid the senator to obtain office illegally. There are two counts in this indictment, one relating to the primary affidavits and the other to the election statement. The second indictment starts with a count which charges expenditures in excess of the legal limit in the primary, in the primary and election combined, the second count alleges the same charge with relation to the primary alone, and the third repeats it as to the election alone.

Fourth Count Charges Violation of the State Election Law.

In this connection, it is pointed out that while the federal law does not forbid advertising in newspapers the Michigan statute specifically prohibits such a pre-election practice. The statement of expenditures listed by the Newberry campaign managers includes items which total about $148,000 for newspaper advertising.

Propagandists Alleged Hired.

The count details that with the excess campaign funds, district and county agents and managers and numerous secret propagandists and detectives were employed and their expenses paid; moving picture films were bought and much literature distributed, all of which acts were alleged to be in violation of the Michigan law. The government agents said they had proof that one movie film alone cost $8000.

The fifth count charges conspiracy to commit thousands of offenses against the federal act of October 1913, forbidding payment of money to voters.

The sixth count bristles with accusations. It alleges that certain defendants each contributed more than the total amount allowed by law, knowing all the time that they were violating the statutes and that certain

Unusually Acceptable Gifts "LIKLY" LUGGAGE

Your family and friends will greatly appreciate traveling equipment, on account of its usefulness.

Nearly every woman needs an Overnight Bag, a Suitcase fitted with toilet articles and also a roomy Wardrobe Trunk.

A man's traveling equipment requires a Club Bag, for the short trips, a Traveling Bag, with toilet fittings, a Suitcase and also a good-sized Wardrobe Trunk.

We carry the famous "Likly" Bags, Suitcases and Wardrobe Trunks. Absolutely the finest quality and style.

We invite your inspection of our wonderful and extensive exhibition of Leather Goods and Luggage. Your Gift problem will be solved after visiting this department.

You may be surprised to know that one of these really fine pieces of luggage will cost no more than you would pay for a gift of nothing like the actual quality—or practical utility.

They Cost So Little Yet They Mean So Much

Join down the names of all the friends you would like to remember at Christmas time—especially old friends in distant cities, old schoolmates, boyhood and girlhood chums whom you haven't seen for years. Send each one of them a Christmas Greeting Card and make them happy on Christmas day.

SCATTER SUNSHINE WITH CHRISTMAS CARDS

Select your cards while the stocks are fresh and the choice wide.

Woodard, Clarke & Co.

Wood-Lark Building Alder at West Park

GIVE AN "ANSCO" CAMERA

A gift that helps to make Christmas merry—and keeps a picture story of the Christmas joys and pleasure.

The latest types with anastigmat lenses, from $20.27 up to $85.33. Other models at $3.49 to $29.33. See these before selecting an outfit. —Basement

SHOP EARLY

FOR CHRISTMAS

Waterman Fountain Pen

There is someone you know, who will appreciate a Fountain Pen.

Prices to Suit All

Permit us to show you our varied assortment.

WE GIVE GREEN TRADING STAMPS

Electric CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Make a Merry Christmas Last the Whole Year Through.

Visit our Electrical Department and see what fine, practical gifts you can purchase, at prices that will suit any purse. —Basement

DOLLS

This year it is our privilege to show an exceptionally fine and extensive array of Dolls.

DOLLS that look like a baby, real life size, with and without wings. Prices.....$6.00 to $18.00

DOLLS that walk, 22 inches in height, moving eyes. Nicely dressed, with and without wings. Come and see them walk. Prices.....$10 to $15

DOLLS in all sizes. DOLLS in all styles. DOLLS at all prices.

PRINEVILLE PIONEER DIES

GEORGE MILLICAN FOUNDER OF LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY.

First Cattle Ranch in Crook County Established in 1868—Vast Tract Is Acquired.

PRINEVILLE, Or., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—George Millican, age 85, early pioneer and founder of the livestock industry in central Oregon, died at his home in this city Tuesday, after a lingering illness of many months. He was a resident of Prineville for many years. He was born in Missouri, crossing the plains, and driving a band of cattle to the Sacramento valley. He settled in California, where he engaged in the mining business, later moving to Idaho, where he continued in mining. While in this new location he shared in the discovery of the Florence mines. Mr. Millican came to Oregon in 1862 and located on a claim near Eugene, and engaged in the livestock business. It was in 1864 that he made his initial trip to the Ochoco valley, coming across the Cascade mountains with Captain Couch and his party. In 1865 he returned to Crook county and established the first cattle ranch in this locality, which was situated 2 1/2 miles north of Prineville on McCracken creek. In 1866 he bought a large tract, consisting of 4000 acres, 25 miles south of Prineville.

He married Ada C. Bradley, daughter of a well-known pioneer family in this locality. To them one son was born, Scott Bradley Millican, who died in 1892, at the age of 24 years. Besides his widow, Mr. Millican is survived by two children by a former marriage, G. Walter Millican of Leaburg, Or., and Margaret Cushman, a granddaughter. Belva Pitchford of Portland. The funeral was held here Wednesday. The body was sent to Eugene for interment.

New Pump Success.

CORVALLIS, Or., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Corvallis has installed a new water supply for fire protection by connecting a big pump to the Willamette river. It was tested out last night in connection with the city's new engine and found to be entirely satisfactory. The new system enables the fire department to act entirely independent of the gravity water supply and assures fire protection at all times.

OLD LOG HOUSE IS SOLD

Cove Dwelling, Built in 1862, Disposed of by Native Daughter.

COVE, Or., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. Rosette Layne, native daughter of Cove and wife of D. H. Layne, now with Brown & Co. in the merchandising business at Halfway, Or., while visiting in Cove this week transferred to George Alexander of Cove her house and lot, the site of one of the first two log dwellings erected in the Forest Cove in 1862.

Mr. Alexander's purchase contains the well-preserved Robinson log house within the later modern residence, which was the home of Mrs. Layne until three years ago. The consideration was not given out.

Read The Oregonian classified ads

REDS SHORT OF LAWYERS

SEATTLE ORGANIZER BEMOANS LACK OF LEGAL TALENT.

Letter to Portland Sympathizer Tells of Radicals Held Who Need Mouthpieces for Defense.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Postal inspectors searching the mails for evidence that will lead to the conviction of I. W. W. in this state are in possession of a letter today sent by Fred Koffke, a local organizer, to L. M. Van Wingerden of Portland, in which he offers to aid in assisting the Portland man. The letter follows: "To L. M. Van Wingerden, Portland, Fellow Worker: Fellow Worker Koffke, whom you must know from Portland, is here and informs me that you are in need of an attorney. We also need several here, as we have 40

Next Saturday—DOROTHY PHILLIPS in "THE RIGHT TO HAPPINESS"

A Gift Every Woman Would "Just Love"

An Elgin Bracelet Watch

Beauty surpassed only by usefulness. When you buy an Elgin you're buying KNOWN quality. We are fortunate in having an unusually large assortment to offer you—gold and gold-filled, square, round or octagonal cases, 7 to 15-jewel. Make your choice NOW. A deposit will hold it.

Special Diamond Engagement Rings—$25, $50, $100

Remember Jacoby's Lucky Wedding Rings

JACOBY JEWELER 326 WASHINGTON ST. BETWEEN 62 and 64th

Oriental Rugs

Many of our customers are choosing home gifts for Christmas from our wondrously beautiful exhibit of rare, richly colored Oriental rugs.

We invite your leisurely inspection of the largest and finest exhibit in the Northwest. We will be pleased to reserve any selection you make and deliver it when and where you wish.

Persian, Turkish, Chinese, Indian

Cartozian Bros., Inc.

Washington, near 10th

Portland Hotel

You'll Enjoy Yourself

If you dine at the Portland Hotel, whether it be evening or noon. Prompt and courteous service, unsurpassed menu, pleasant surroundings, fine music.

Sunday Table d'Hote Dinner, $1.25 Week-day Noon Lunch, 60c

RICHARD W. CHILDS, Manager. C. D. SCHREIBER, Asst. Manager.