SOUTHERN OREGON PASTORS TAKE ACTIVE PART IN CIVIC ACTIVITIES

One Hundred Ministers of Leading Portland Churches Adopt Plan for Great Evangelistic Meetings.

PROMINENT AND ACTIVE MEN IN CHARGE OF MEDFORD CHURCHES CO-OPERATE IN COMMUNITY SERVICE WORK.

HURCH officials, especially the ministers are branching out into the civic and welfare work of the community. No better proof of this fact is at hand than the report which comes from Medford, Or.

W. T. S. Spriggs, Ph. D., is pastor of the First Methodist church of Medford, and as president of the jocal bulisterial association and moderator of the Royue River Baptist association takes a prominent part in all religious and civic activities. Mr. Spriggs took an active part in war work and is interested in all maters of social and civic betterment.

Rev. L. Myron Boozer of the Presbyterian church is one of the best lingwn and most popular ministers in southern Oregon. He came here from Grants Pass and immediately took an active part in local affairs, being a members of the War Community Service, the Drawn league and the Visiting Nurse association. He has taken the lead in the national prohibition movement and stained state-wide prominence when he sharply criticised President Wilson for his recommendation for the repeal of war-time prohibition of beer and light wines.

Rev. D. E. Millard of the Christian church is only 29 years old but has been in the ministry since he was 19 and is a live wire in every sense of the word. Coming here from the Bramerton navy yard, where he was song leader for nine months, Rev. Mr. Millard has, in addition to establishing church branches at Central Point and Talent, been the leader in organizing community singing in the county. He can play every band instrument from drum to cornet, has a fine pipe organ will be installed, additional lighting facilities will be provided, incorlor decorations will be made and a unit to accommodate 208 more Sunday school pupils will be had. has taken particular interest in gar-den work for the young people of the church, and considerable money has been raised by selling the produce at the local public market, Rev. Mr. Millard was recently appointed leader of the Boy Scouts in the county.

City Evangelistic Campaign Planned. One of the most far-reaching plans for the betterment of the City of Portland was made Monday, December 1, when in response to the call of the president of the Portland Fed-eration of Churches and the president of the Portland Ministerial association or the Portland Ministerial association 100 of Portland's leading clergymen gathered in the Y. M. C. A. to consider Portland's problems. After four powerful addresses by Dr. William T. McElveen, pastor of the First Congret of the Portland's leading clergymen gathered in the Y. M. C. A. to consider Portland's problems. After four powerful addresses by Dr. William T. McElveen, pastor of the First Congregational church; Dr. Byron J. Clarke, pastor of the First United Brethren church; Bishop Walter T. Sumner, Episcopal church and Dr. W. B. Hinson, pastor of the East Side Baptist church, Dr. Edward H. Pence, chairman of the department of evangelism of Portland Federation of Churches, presented a plan which had been drawn up by this department for evangelical meetings. After careful discussion the programme was adopted by unanimous vote.

Through this plan, which has been called "A demonstration in Christian unity of the churches of Portland and called "A demonstration in Christian unity of the churches of Portland and McElveen, pastor of the First Congre-gational church; Dr. Byron J. Clarke, pastor of the First United Brethren church; Bishop Walter T. Sunner, Episcopal church, and Dr. W. B. Hin-unity of the churches of Portland and vicinity," the clergy decided to hold simultaneous evangelistic meetings in their churches during the week of prayer, January 4-16, 1326. The churches will hold meetings individually or by groups in every part of the city on Sunday and the week days during this week. At the noon hour, each day from Monday will be to provide the city of the protection of workers from the hardships of enforced unemployment. The right of employees and employers alike to organize; and for adequate means of conclination and arbitration in industrial disputes.

Release from employment one day in seven. meeting when some of Portland's leading clergy will apeak. Their names will be announced at an early date. During the two weeks culminating Easter Sunday, April 4, a similar plan will be followed.
