Miss Gretchen Colton, a College Girl, Working for the Success of the College Christmas Ball to be Given Monday December 22nd.

Mrs. Joseph Rothchild, A Charming Hostess of the Past Week, in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Ertman, and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Rosenfeld.

Mrs. R.W. Cahill, Chairman of the Committee for the Dance, Which the American Legion Auxiliary Will Give December 26th at Multnomah Hotel.

Mrs. Marion Chase Woringer, Who Has Gone to New York to Spend the Holidays and Attend the Opera.

The most important thing in the social world the past week was the benefit ball given by the Junior League Friday night at Christensen hall. The affair was unusually brilliant as the whole of Portland realized the importance of helping the Junior League in its charities, church work and civic affairs.

The ballroom was beautifully decorated with the season's colors and greens, with an effect of festivity. Boxes were arranged around the room, which were taken by some of Portland's most prominent people, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cobbs, Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. R. S. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bowles and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitney took a box together, as did Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Varnel Beach, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Alsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cookingham, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Miss Henrietta Palling, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. M. S. Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rookley, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Swigert, Mr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Wilcox.

Most of these box holders were hosts for dinners preceding the dance, after which their guests occupied the box, when many beautiful gowns were worn. A cotillion was danced and several feature dances were given, among them being one by Miss Billie Bradley and Edward Sedan, the popular dancers from the Alcazar musical stock company. Mrs. W. C. Everett, through the kindness of C. V. Everett, Patronesses for this affair were: Mrs. Charles Francis Adams, Mrs. John Alsworth, Mrs. W. C. Alford, Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. H. E. Cabell, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. Edward Cookingham, Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Miss Henrietta Palling, Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. Wells Gilbert, Mrs. Donald W. Green, Mrs. C. E. Grille, Mrs. Sherman E. Hall, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. Max S. Hirsch, Mrs. Solomon S. Hirsch, Mrs. Lee Hawley, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Mrs. Donald F. Munro, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Mrs. Herbert S. Nicholas, Mrs. Andrew B. Porter, Mrs. A. B. Rookley, Mrs. James Rosenfeld, Mrs. Charles E. Rumelin, Mrs. C. F. Swigert, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. Wheelwright, Mrs. C. T. Whitney, Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mrs. Joseph E. Wilby, Mrs. Raymond B. Wilcox, Mrs. George F. Wilson, Mrs. Joseph B. Wise, and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood.

An affair that promises to be one of the most popular of the holiday season, because of the variety of its attractions, is the Christmas college ball, which will be given in both halls.

rooms of the Hotel Multnomah on December 29, the Monday following Christmas. This ball stands out from the many festivities that will be given during the holidays because of the many prominent organizations which are sponsoring it. The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club is donating the use of the ballrooms, and the hostesses for the evening are the Portland alumni of the sororities of Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Delta Delta, Phi Beta, Delta Gamma, Alpha Phi and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

All students home from the colleges for the holiday season are invited to be guests at the ball as well as high school students interested in college affairs and the alumni and friends of the various colleges. In addition to dancing a group of clubwomen, under the leadership of Mrs. E. J. Steele, will arrange card tables in the tea garden. The five northwestern colleges have been asked to put on stunts between the dances, for which a prize will be awarded. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the sororities.

Patrons and patronesses for the ball will be Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Miss Elizabeth Fox, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Newell, Mr. M. L. Hopkins, Mrs. J. R. This will be the fourth annual Christmas "prom" and the committee, composed of students of the different colleges, is expecting a large attendance. A feature will be the early evening entertaining when hosts and hostesses will give dinner parties, inviting eight or ten or a dozen guests for dinner at one of the big hotels or at their own homes, and later taking their guests to the ball.

The committee appointed to represent the colleges and high schools are: Stanford Anderson, Cecil Dunn, Herbert MacLarkey, Lee Susefert, Carlton Logan, Byron Thomas, Alys Sutton, Charles Scallion, Norman Youmans, Geraldine King, Elverna Anderson, William Ralston, Earl Larimore, Elsie Clodius, Earl Clark, Mike Reed, Dorothy Donlan, Harold Brown, William McBride, Hazel Weiden, Albert Dugan, Selma Wetteland, Marsh Davis, Eddie Eddlund, Roland Manary and William Steers.

Reed college dormitory students were the guests last night at a pre-holiday party given by Miss Irene Harrington, director of the Reed commons, and Miss Emma Clausen, student assistant. Christmas stunts prevailed at dinner, well received as the first event of the evening. A blazing log-fire in the men's social room attracted students and faculty for an after-dinner session of music.
