which they left on a short wedding trip. Mr. Forrester attended school at the University of Illinois, at which he was well known among fraternal and athletic organizations. After being discharged from the army, about eight months ago, he left his home in Chicago to take up work with the engineering department of the Portland Gas & Coke company.

Miss Gilbert is also well known in social circles of Chicago and arrived in this city a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Forrester will be at home in the church parlors, the presence of immediate relatives and friends at home on January 5.

Herrmann-Eick.
At an attractive wedding Miss Clara Eick became the bride of Rev. H. G. Herrmann of Vader, Wash., last Wednesday night at the Clay Street Evangelical church. Miss Mary Ellen Mullan sang "My Heart is Singing." The ceremony was read by Rev. Jacob Stocker in the presence of many friends and relatives. Miss Esther Schuknecht played the wedding march from "Wagner." A delightful wedding supper was served after the ceremony in the church parlors. The church was attractively decorated with palms.

The bride was gowned in heavy ivory satin, trimmed with rare lace. Her tulle veil was arranged in a flared cap effect with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Bernice Wichmann gowned in a dress of white net made over silver cloth. Misses Esther London and Katherine Parke were the bridesmaids. Miss London wore an attractive dress of pale green georgette trimmed in silver, while Miss Parke's dress was of pale pink georgette over net of similar style. The attendants wore elaborate tulle hats and carried arm bouquets of Ophelia roses. Six of the bride's intimate friends gowned in dresses of pastel shades wearing corsages of roses and violets acted as the ribbon bearers. The bride was given away by her father, E. E. Eick. Paul Bradford was best man and Will Geiger and Herbert Gunther were the ushers.

The bride has lived in Portland for many years and has a large circle of friends. She was an active member of the church, being vice-president of the Christian Endeavor and the leading alto singer in the choir. Rev. H. G. Herrmann is a minister of the Evangelical association, a graduate of Northwestern college of Illinois and pastor of the Vader church of this denomination. The young couple will make their home in Vader, Wash., where Mr. Herrmann will take up his pastorate.

Stark-Strange.
At a simple, but charming wedding last Sunday at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. J. Murphy, Miss Lola Strange was married to Leslie M. Stark.

The bride was attended by her sister, Gertrude Strange; A. B. Cays was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Mace of the First Methodist church, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

Miss Strange was formerly of Corvallis and Mr. Stark is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college. The young couple will make their home at "Maxwellton Braes" at Metzger, Or.

Smythe-Gibson.
James Ted Smythe and Miss Maybelle Agnes Gibson were married last Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Della L. Cullins, 156 1/2 Almsworth street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bruce J. Giffen, pastor of the Vernon Presbyterian church.

Ted Smythe was a company A, 3d Oregon volunteer, who joined at McMinnville, the former home of both himself and his bride. He was gassed and wounded. He is now a member of Portland's police force.

Mr. and Mrs. Smythe will make their home at 73 Union avenue north.

Williams-McLaughlin.
On December 8, at 1173 Boston avenue, O. Williams and Elizabeth McLaughlin were married. Rev. J. Bowersox, officiating. There were present: Mrs. Anna Love, Mrs. Cora Rand and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Atchison. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside here.

Manegre-Bennett.
Romey Manegre and Juanita Bennett were married at 763 Albia avenue, December 17, by Rev. J. Bowersox. The bride, a recent arrival from Stevenson, Wash., was attended by Miss Dorothy Campbell. Freeman Manegre was best man.

Holcomb-Neill.
Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Lee Neill of Los Angeles announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Webber Neill, to Ward Allan Holcomb, of this city, December 10, in Los Angeles. After the first of the year Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb will be at home at 523 East Stark street.

Howther-Kohlander.
The marriage of John Brabazon Howther, son of Colonel and Mrs. Howther of Shrigley Park, Macleanfield, Cheshire, England, and Dr.

Taylor streets, Saturday evening, December 27. Dancing at 8 o'clock. All members and their friends are cordially invited. Prizes.

What promises to be one of the delightful dances of the season will be the sixth annual dance to be given by the Beta Phi Sigma fraternity at the Irvington club December 27. Members and their friends are looking forward to the occasion with much interest.

Elaborate holiday decorations in a color scheme of red and green will be arranged throughout the ballroom, and these promises to be a surprise or two in the way of novelties.

The Beta Phi Sigma fraternity is one of the oldest in the city, the local chapter having been established as the Alpha Beta Kappa fraternity in 1912. In 1916 they were installed in the present organization as Lambda Alpha chapter, by Raymond Farquhar of Lincoln, Neb., and John Cook of Elkhart, Ind.

The chapter has a large membership and many of the members now attending the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college are expected in the city for the occasion.

Members in charge of the affairs are Charles C. Welch, Theodore D. Harmon, Dr. Edwin Morone, Charles B. Osborne and Herbert B. Miller.

For the dance to be given at the Multnomah hotel next Friday by the American Legion auxiliary, patrons and patronesses will be Mayor and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Marcellus, Mr. and Mrs. James Gay, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson, Bert Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Conly, James Conville, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper, Mr. F. Fieko. The committee of the dance includes Mrs. R. W. Cahill, Mrs. E. F. Gerth, Mrs. E. J. Elvers.

An event of much interest during the holidays is the dancing party at the Irvington club on Tuesday, December 30, for which the Misses Matine Stout and Virginia Umbdenstock and Leonard Irvin and Charles Carr will be hosts and hostesses.

The dancing party given by Oregon White Shrine of Jerusalem has been set for Thursday, January 5, at Christensen's hall, Eleventh and Yamhill. Mrs. George Mettler, general chairman, promises many special features for the occasion.

The engagement of Beatrice Helen Lincoln to Walter J. Krowder was announced at a party given in Miss Lincoln's honor by her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. J. Lincoln, last Friday.

The East Side Lavender club will meet the second Friday in January. The meeting has been postponed owing to the storm, so closely preceding the Christmas holidays.

Marguerite camp will hold a continuation of its bazaar in East Side Business Men's hall, Grand avenue and East Alder, next Tuesday at 1 P. M. Dancing will be held in the evening, with cards in the afternoon.
