Miss Maxine Stout and Virginia Lindbergh, who will be hostesses for a dance next Tuesday night at the Irvington club.

Miss Pauline Brown, who will become the bride of Wesley Whittenberger of Hillsboro on New Year's Day.

unusually interesting and beautiful. Miss Corbett read the Christmas story, which is ever new, while children in costume illustrated it in pantomime. This charming scene was followed by a tree, with all the attendant fun and merry-making.

Mrs. Lee Hoffman was hostess for a family breakfast Christmas morning, her usual custom at her apartment in Davis street.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett also had the members of her family for Christmas dinner.

Mrs. Peter Kerr was hostess for one of the large family dinners.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eric V. Hauser gathered their family together for a reunion. Mrs. Hauser and daughter arrived from St. Paul just in time.

Dinner parties both large and small were given in large numbers on Christmas night by townspeople and guests in the main dining-room and grill of the Hotel Portland, each of which were attractively decorated in garlands of cedar, wreaths of holly and jays of growing pineapples. Those reserving tables were: W. H. Raymond, Mrs. C. Meyers, C. A. Wolfgram, Ben Frankman, M. M. Massey, G. B. Hegardt, S. B. Pace, Mrs. A. Friedman, P. Phenix, Mrs. C. H. Burton, J. H. Lowe, H. Hamatree, E. Young, Sam Wae, S. Solomon, E. Ellis, C. C. Evans, Jess Kingery, H. W. Hopkins, G. R. Turnbull, J. K. Gill, R. R. Hinton, Mrs. Allison King, J. W. Chase, H. W. Stevens, W. T. Bradford, E. C. Williams, J. F. Dougherty, Mrs. Joseph Goodman, C. H. Rutledge, A. Van Rosendael, R. D. Robinson, G. F. Anderson, T. J. Mullin, E. B. Huston, J. L. O'Keefe, Mr. Gullison, Percy Garrigue, F. L. Robinson, G. B. Jones, E. O. Griswold, T. A. Freeman, Ralph Catlin, George Love, M. F. Spencer, Arthur Meyer, Miss Dore, Mrs. H. W. Goodie, Mrs. Tucker, J. H. Bacharach, Mrs. M. Bradley, J. Metzger, Dr. Kirby, C. H. DeFries, Mrs. M. Spurlin, Mrs. B. Carey, Mr. Cooley, M. O. Wilkins, H. O. Stokes, Mr. Howe, R. G. Harrison, Mrs. Alexander C. Shaw, Miss Rosenthal, Mr. White, E. D. Johnson, J. I. Hurlbut, G. E. McGill, Mrs. D. G. Davis, W. W. Ferguson, Leo Peterson, G. W. Hall, A. Dietz, H. G. Nolan, Dr. E. G. Smith, A. G. Grady, G. Buck and C. R. Hunt.

Miss Frances Baker was a charming hostess Saturday when she entertained with a luncheon at the Hotel Portland in honor of Miss Margaret Foster, who is home from Mills college for the holidays. Covers were placed for 14 at a table decorated in Christmas greens. Following the luncheon the guests enjoyed a line party at the matinee. Those present were: Misses Margaret Foster, Suzanne Caswell, Agnes Black, Harriet Griffith, Janet Griffith, Eleanor Simpson, Dora Henningsen, Edith Marshall, Evelyn Thatcher, Virginia Thatcher, Helen West, Margaret Cook and Mrs. Frank Baker.

One of the many interesting social affairs given in honor of Mrs. David Lewis and Jordan Zan was a smart supper dance Saturday of last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Otis Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Meade, Miss Cora Cook and Mrs. Henry K. Field of San Francisco.

Mrs. and Mrs. I. Abramson of 141 Twenty-third street, announced the engagement of their daughter Gertrude to Irving Wiederhorn of New York City, the past week. The wedding will be an event in the early spring.

The Women's Aid club of Portland will have a dinner in the rose room at the Benson hotel Tuesday night. As this will be the last dinner of the year all members have been requested to be present and make reservations by calling Broadway 25. Miss Florence Frost, president of the club, will preside. Mayor Baker will speak, as will A. G. Clark. Each person will receive a gift of an article made in Oregon, from the tree which will be one of the features of the affair. Stuart McGuire will sing.

In honor of Mrs. William H. Patterson and Miss Marjorie Forbis, who will leave the first week in January for China, Mrs. L. S. Martin and Mrs. J. P. Mulder, were charming hostesses for a reception yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Martin, 768 Schuyler street.

Mrs. John Forbis, Mrs. C. P. Williams, Mrs. E. D. Stewart and Mrs. G. Kenneth Murdoch, presided at the handsomely-appointed tea table and were assisted by Mrs. William Yarian, Mrs. A. L. Beiler, Mrs. T. A. Mills, Mrs. Maurice Barnes, Mrs. Owen Marion, Mrs. Jenny Bleker, Miss Mary Lewis and Jordan Zan, when about 200 maids and matrons called during the afternoon.

The grown-ups as well as the kiddies have been having a great deal of pleasure at the Portland Art museum where they have their usual Christmas room. On display in this room are two lovely Florentine studies, lent by Mrs. George Willitt; a group of Latin panels, one being the "Adoration of the Magi"; two Flemish paintings loaned by August Berg, the "Landscape with a Castle" (1488), showing the Madonna and child; a beautiful cardinal's cope, lent by Mrs. C. C. Green; Mrs. J. P. Taylor's madonna lent by Colonel E. H. Hofer of Salem.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Edna Shalvold will tell the Christmas story with pictures and slides. All children who are interested will be welcome. The Christmas room will be open to the public until after the New Year, except Mondays and Wednesdays.

Many Portlanders are in California for the Christmas holidays, among them being Dr. and Mrs. John Forrest Dickson, who are with Mrs. Dickson's mother in Berkeley. Mrs. Margaret Burrill, Biddie, are also in California, where they were joined by Martin Biddle. They will attend the Oregon-Harvard game in Pasadena and later go to Berkeley, where Miss Biddle will enter the University of California.

Mrs. Anderson's guests included: Mrs. L. Caratensen, Mrs. J. A. Taylor, Mrs. M. Prince, Mrs. John E. Clark, Mrs. Augusta Wendt, Mrs. S. Bekstrom, Mrs. Charles Peterson, Mrs. Augustus Felch, Mrs. William Quade, Mrs. H. Arbuckle, Mrs. C. Palmquist, Mrs. H. A. Raymond.

Miss Alice Hawman became the bride of Theodore Peterson at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawman, 258 East Twenty-third street North, December 8, in the presence of the family and intimate friends. The service was read by Rev. Mr. Ieverson. There were no attendants. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary West, niece of the bride. Gerald Besley gave a group of selections on the violin.

Mrs. Ottorino Ronchi of San Francisco, will arrive in Portland today to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mack, for a few days. Mrs. Ronchi is the wife of a well known newspaper man of San Francisco.

Mrs. Julius Friedlied has received word of the marriage of her brother, Edmond Herrscher of San Francisco, and Miss Erma Goldschmidt, formerly of San Francisco, but who has been living in Zurich, Switzerland, with her aunt, Mrs. I. H. Grinbaum, also a former resident of San Francisco. The marriage took place in Zurich, December 12. Mr. Herrscher is a well known attorney in San Francisco and has been business advisor to Mrs. Grinbaum, who has large sugar interests in Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sharp were hosts last night for a buffet supper at their residence on Westover terrace in honor of Mrs. Sharp's brother, Charles K. Field of San Francisco, editor of the Sunset magazine.

Those who were asked were classmates and fraternity brothers of Mr. Field at Stanford. The list included: Dr. and Mrs. Paul Roeder, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Roeder, Mr. and Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. John Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond Holman, Clarence Sewall, beat man. The impressive ring ceremony was read by Dr. Edwin Hollenbeck.

A reception was held after the ceremony.

The young couple left for a motor trip through northern California, returning to pass Christmas at the Henry home. Then they will go to Kansas City where they will make their home.

Dr. Jackson is a practicing physician in Kansas City. It was only a short time ago that he was discharged from the British army with the rank of captain. He immediately went to the war too early to gain admission in the American army, serving seven months in Manchester, England, and 15 months with the British army in France.

Mrs. Jackson is a daughter of the late Fred Jacobs, one of the best known business men in Portland, and Mrs. Jacobs, a popular matron in the social world of this city.

One of the interesting weddings of the past week was that of Miss Florence McGregor of Astoria and Charles Harold Gray of Reed college, which was an event of last Monday at the residence of the bride's parents in Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray will make their home at Jordan Zan, when they return to Astoria. Mr. Gray is an instructor in English. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Church, the sister and brother-in-law of the bride, came from Boston to be present at the wedding. Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Campbell of Eugene were also guests.
