WHILE club events have been few, those held have been of exceptional merit and charm, for they included some attractive programmes and an expression of the spirit of holiday time that made for happiness and good cheer. For the year to come some interesting plans are laid.

The current literature department of the Portland Woman's club will meet January 15 with Mrs. R. D. Inman. The next meeting date would be January 1, but no meeting will be held then.

The Portland Parent-Teacher council will assemble in the library at 12:30 o'clock Friday and the social service department will hold session an hour earlier.

Children's day at the Portland Woman's club was celebrated Friday, and proved to be one of the successes of the club season. Girls and boys, big ones and little ones, came chaperoned by parents and often by grandparents, and every kiddie carrying a dolly, top or toy soldier, or other of their Christmas toys.

Woman's Research Club to Have Luncheon Tomorrow.

Programme Arranged for Entertainment at Session to Be in the Crystal Room of Benson.

THE Portland Woman's Research club will give a luncheon tomorrow at 12 o'clock in the crystal dining room of the Benson. Mrs. R. H. Sawyer will preside.

Among the speakers will be Judge Rosman, Mrs. Ida Callahan and Judge Wallace McCamant. The programme will include a demonstration exhibition by deaf pupils of Thomas P. Clarke, superintendent of Washington school for deaf; music, Mrs. Edith Chapman Eddy and Miss Margaret Notz, piano duet; Mrs. Lotta Stone, "Siffruse," Mrs. Percy W. Lewis, accompanist; Miss Jessie Lynne Sawyer, Scottish folk songs, in costume.

Mrs. R. H. Sawyer, director of the Portland Woman's Research club, has been invited to represent the club in receiving at the reception to be tendered to the Oregon Educational association at the Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday night. Members of all women's organizations have been asked to attend.

Over-the-Top auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars has been making layettes for the Red Cross at its meetings, which are held every Monday night in room 525, courthouse. They would be glad to have friends and persons interested in this work attend, as 14 layettes must be completed by the last of February. In order to raise money to purchase materials, the auxiliary will give a card party about the middle of January at the Carlton hotel.

Digain Williams, noted orator and writer, will speak in the social hall of the Y. W. C. A. Sunday at 4 o'clock. His subject will be "Poetry—Its Spiritual Values in Life." Mr. Williams was a graduate of the North Wales college and has studied at Cornell and Harvard universities. He is also the author of "Essays in Welsh Literature" and "Matthew Arnold and His Father." Mr. Williams will illustrate his talk by readings from the English and American poets.

Corinthian chapter, Order of Eastern Star, had a Christmas party Tuesday when 100 children were entertained at a dinner and tree. Places were laid for 250 guests. Mrs. Harry Chipman was chairman. Webber's orchestra played. This orchestra played for the Portland Woman's club Friday. Miss Mamie Helen Flynn was accompanist for the singing which was led by Walter Jenkins.

Miss Georgia Bacon is candidate for the presidency of the General Federation. Another candidate is Mrs. Thomas Winter.

WOMEN'S EXECUTIVE COUNCIL TO MEET HERE DECEMBER 30

Miss Lillian Tingle Will Preside at Dinner to Be Given at Benson Hotel by Oregon Educational Representatives.

WOMEN prominent in educational work are looking forward to the annual meeting and dinner of the Oregon Council of Executive Women in Education, to be held December 30. The dinner is set for 6 o'clock at the Hotel Benson. Miss Lillian Tingle will preside. Miss Tingle represents the household arts department of the University of Oregon, and she is the founder of the home economics association of Portland, is prominent in educational and club circles. Miss Elizabeth Fox, dean of women at Oregon university, is secretary of the council.

Dr. B. W. De Busk will speak on "Child Welfare in Oregon" and Miss Elizabeth Fox will discuss "Exchange of Students Between America and Europe." Miss Tingle will give greetings from the national council and several others will speak informally. There will be a business session and election of officers.

The National Council of Executive Women in Education is an organization but a few years old. It was formed in Oakland, Cal., in 1915 when the National Education association met in that city. A meeting of the national council was held in Portland in 1917 at which time the state organization was suggested. Nearly every state now has a state council of executive women in education, and it is expected that every state will be represented at the annual meeting.

The council is especially active in connection with the school health crusade, child welfare, Americanization and the thrift movement, but one of its main functions is to promote personal friendliness and a united professional spirit among women in executive positions and to secure active co-operation both in special problems and in matters of general educational interest.

THE annual meeting of the State Teachers' association will convene at Lincoln high school tomorrow at 9 A. M. The sessions to continue three days. Classroom teachers are urged to attend their special sessions which are a new feature of the association and will be held Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning. A dinner will usher in the social features of the convention. This will be given at the Portland hotel at 6 P. M. Tuesday, the plates being $1.50. This dinner will be followed by an informal reception at the Oregon hotel under the auspices of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, the Monday Musical club furnishing the musical programme. Mrs. Alexander Thompson, president of the City Federation, has charge of the reception. The grade teachers have planned a delightful luncheon for women members of the association at the Benson hotel at noon on Wednesday, the plates 75 cents. The members of the association are requested to make this affair an enjoyable occasion and one well attended.

has been opened, one in Brussels and one in Antwerp, where industrial women workers may go for recreation, for educational classes, for meetings for social affairs, and where they may also find a quiet corner in which to read or to write letters.

The Brussels foyer is housed in an old warehouse and has been remodelled so that it now has a cafeteria, gymnasium, concert hall, classrooms, a rest and reading room.

American secretaries are in charge of the work, assisted by Belgian women who attended the Y. W. C. A. International Training school in Paris this past summer.

During the first three weeks of its existence the American Women's club recently opened by the American Y. W. C. A. in Paris, in what was formerly the Y. W. C. A. hostess house, Hotel Petrograd, has entertained 170 transient guests, most of whom stayed over the allotted two weeks. Three thousand meals were served, averaging 209 meals daily during the first 21 days, the largest number of meals serving during that time being 331.

The club is rapidly becoming the center of American life in Paris. Sunday afternoon tea has been established, with prominent women acting as hostesses, and all Americans in Paris stop in at some time on Sunday afternoon or during the musicals at night. An effort is being made to get as many American musicians of note on the Sunday night programmes as possible.

Chapter A of P. E. O. will hold their Christmas party Monday, December 29, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. O. Haynes, 645 Wasco street. Mrs. W. O. Haynes and Mrs. J. C. Grady will be hostesses for the afternoon.

this year and the shortage of labor, the club had adjourned for two months and two weeks in order to harvest the apples; but now, with the New Year, new effort will be put forth to accomplish much work, making Garden Valley a place to be proud of in every way.

Another Sleepless Night?

It's been a busy and fretful day. Brain fagged, nerves frayed and body exhausted—conscious that tomorrow is fraught with new trials and tribulations, he realizes the imperative need of a refreshing night's rest. Yet, he hesitates and dreads to go to bed lest he roll and toss throughout the night.

Do you experience the horrors of nightmare and insomnia? Are you troubled with wakeful, restless nights? Do you get up in the morning feeling more tired than when you went to bed, because your rest is disturbed and broken? Then, try LYKO.

LYKO is held in original packages only, like picture above. Refuse all substitutes. Try, keep for the day's activities; rested and refreshed in body and mind, and with an appetite unquenched since you were a boy.
