

"MONSIEUR BEUCAIRE" MAKES HIT IN GOTHAM

Marion Green is Younger Than Late Mr. Mansfield but Portrays Role Almost as Well—Star Cast Brought Intact From London.

BY ELIZABETH LONERGAN.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(Special.)—"Monsieur Beaucaire" brought memories of Richard Mansfield in his once-famous role. The opera came to the New Amsterdam via London, greatly changed from its original form yet improved by the extremely beautiful settings and wonderful music.

Gilbert Miller, well known on the coast, brought out "Monsieur Beaucaire" in London, where it has been one of the biggest successes of the season. The music is some of the best that has been heard in a long time, quite a relief after the so-called "operetta" that have been given from time to time (one or two are still on Broadway).

Mr. Miller brought his original cast to America, practically intact so there was the smoothness and finish to the performance the opening night that is not usually found on premieres. Marion Green is a younger "Beucaire" than the late Mr. Mansfield, but his portrayal is nearly as good and the rest of the cast is known only to those who are familiar with London theaters.

who came to New York about 12 years ago and who has been very successful in musical comedy roles. She is very attractive, has a pleasing personality and an unusually good voice and has spent most of her time in the large cities of the east. Rapley Holmes, at one time with the Eganway (in the days of "Broncho Billy") and who created the role of the employer in "Nothing But the Truth," has a leading role, Vinton Freedley, the hero, and Clayton White is also a member of the "Miss Million" cast. Cissie Sewell and a number of others had some good dancing numbers and the chorus girls were pretty and sang well. But it seemed odd to see a good-sized production in the tiny Punch and Judy! Probably another case of "theater, theater; who's got a theater?"

THREE WOUNDS SURVIVED

Syrian, Shot by Mexican Bandits, Makes Remarkable Recovery.
NOGALES, ARIZ., Dec. 27.—One of the most remarkable cases handled by the local surgeons in recent years is that of Pedro Jamit, a Syrian merchant of Tuxpan, Nayarit, Mexico. A bullet that had been lodged in Jamit's back for several months was removed recently at a hospital here. Jamit was held up and robbed of $200 by bandits. He was shot through the head, in the hip and in the stomach. The first two bullets came out, while the one that entered the stomach was the one removed by the surgeons.
After being wounded, Jamit was taken into the mountains by the bandits. During the 16 days that he remained there, he received no medical treatment, his wounds being washed with cold water by an aged Mexican nurse. Through the aid of a Mexican woman, the Syrian escaped and made his way to the border.
Last year Jamit was robbed of $5000 by bandits.

ARMY GETS SEIZED OPIUM

Honolulu Revenue Collector Sends $41,600 Worth to Washington.
HONOLULU, T. H., Dec. 27.—(By Mail.)—Malcolm Franklin, collector of the port of Honolulu, shipped 104 pounds of opium, valued at $41,600, to the army medical department at Washington, when the steamer Lurline left for San Francisco on her last trip.
The opium represents the total seizure here since April of this year, with the exception of 63 tins which were taken from the steamer Beria Maru last July and which later disappeared from the seizure room in the custom house.
