PIONEERS WEDDED MORE THAN HALF CENTURY DIE WITHIN FEW HOURS OF EACH OTHER.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. A. BELIEU.

After more than half a century of wedded union, the life chapters of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. A. Belieu, well-known Oregon pioneers, were closed on December 29 and 30, just 36 hours spart. Practically their entire lives were spent in Oregon. Mr. Belieu was born in Missouri in 1841 and crossed the plains with his parents when 3 years of age. His wife was born in Connecticut in 1848 and came to Oregon by the route around Cape Horn, spending 18 months on the water, arriving in Oregon when 2 years old. The first part of their lives were spent in Lina county. They were married at Diamond Hill, Or., 56 years ago, moving to Portland 36 years ago, where they had made their home until their death. Six children, 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren survive them. Mr. and Mrs. Belieu had been members of the Memorial Evangelical church for many years.

The funeral services were read Thursday, January 1, at Miller & Tracey's Mrs. Mary Neuer, Mrs. S. P. Miller and Mrs. Pomeroy, promised to appear as witnesses against him.
