SITUATIONS WANTED-MALE. A VITAL MESSAGE TO EMPLOYERS From the Ex-Service Men's Employment Committee at LIBERTY TEMPLE. Main 313, LIBERTY TEMPLE.

Exactly 723 ex-service men, as enumerated in the appended list—who are out of employment—whose records are underwritten by the American Legion—were registered at this bureau at closing time Saturday night.

Captain Conville, who is in charge of the bureau, is authority for the statement that the very best of islent of all kinds is available—men who are out of work, not because of incapability, but who compose the unemployed that facturally accumulates at this season of the year, assembled in Portland because of the laying off of men in the shipyards, the closing of seasonal work and the influx from other sections of the state.

Never before in history have you had opportunity, Mr. Employer, to do a more patriotic art than to give employment to one or more of these men—men who shouldered a gun and went to France for you—to fight your battles and theirs—to give all, if need be, for freedom and semocracy.

The policy of the committee provides for your safety—every man passes an examination—every man must quality for the classification be is in before he can register.

examination—every man must quality for the classification be is in before he can register.

Think it over; remember that the exservice man is entitled to preference where all things are equal, and do as other patriotic employers are doing, namely, readjusting their payroll here and there and making room for one of more ex-service men (many times when they are not needed) for the prosent at least, in order to do their share in helping absorb the surplus that exists during the winter months.

Write, phone or call upon Captain Conville, Liberty Temple, and he will promptly look after your interests, Main 21s.
