Dr. Mac Gardwell who left yesterday for Vancouver, B.C. where she will sail for Japan.

trip to Japan and Hawaii, returning, Miss Nellie McKinley, Miss MacGout, the enroute April by way of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lee Harrington visited this city about four years ago, on tour, and on the journey home to Erie, Mrs. Harrington died. Mrs. Church made her home with the Harringtons, in Erie, and has continued to live at her son-in-law's home for several years past. Mr. Harrington and Mrs. Church have several esteemed friends in this city.

Among the many Portlanders who are in California are Mrs. D. F. Thompson and her two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal and Miss Genevieve Thompson, who are at the Shattuck hotel in Berkeley. Miss Thompson is enjoying the latest sport and has had many flights over San Francisco and the bay with Lieutenant Hardie from the Durant field.

Mrs. Margaret Burrell Eddle and her daughter, Miss Margaret Eddle, also are settled in Berkeley, at the Clayne court, for the remainder of the winter, as Miss Eddle has entered the University of California and again taken up the study of violin.

Mrs. C. C. Newcastle and Mrs. Fred Krebs were hostesses yesterday for a large reception at the residence of Mrs. Newcastle in honor of Mrs. C. C. Newcastle Jr.

The house was decorated in spring blossoms, pussy willows and ferns with a color note of yellow.

Mrs. W. F. Woodward, Mrs. Margaret Brent, Mrs. H. W. Wells and Mrs. E. E. Bowman presided at the tea table and were assisted by Mrs. Jane Riskey, Mrs. Alta Inman, Miss Eleanor Woodward, Miss Violet Evans, Miss Ruth Hendry and Miss Vange-line Bard. Little Margaret Krebs took the cards, while Mrs. Charles E. Hill, Mrs. W. H. Holden, Mrs. Frank Lucas and Mrs. J. D. Don.

A musical programme was given during the afternoon by Mrs. Ione Townsend Wells, Mrs. Nettie Geor Taylor, Mrs. Percy Lewis, Mrs. Florence Jackson Eunie, Mrs. H. W. Freeman and Mrs. C. B. Marks.

Dr. and Mrs. William Wood, accompanied by Miss Jeanne Gray, left last week for their camp in Oracle, Ariz., to be away for some weeks. Miss Gray will also visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilliland of Philadelphia, who have a winter camp there.

Miss Vella Winner entertained with a small tea Monday afternoon at the Hotel Portland for Mrs. P. T. Buckley and Mrs. Joseph E. Whitrow, who will leave this week for southern California, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. On Tuesday Miss Winner had a few friends in for Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie who, with Mr. Mackenzie, will leave this week for a six weeks' southern trip. On Wednesday their car to San Francisco and motor south.

E. L. McDonald entertained with a small dinner party Tuesday night. Covers were placed for six guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Childs were hosts at a prettily-appointed dinner given Wednesday night at the Hotel Portland in compliment to Mrs. Harry L. Day and Miss Bernice Day of Moscow, Idaho, who are spending several days at the hotel. Rosebuds, sweet peas and ferns were combined in the decorations. Additional guests were Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Givens.

Fred Hesse entertained with a formal dinner dance in their beautiful home in Westmoreland. The music room and dining room were a bower of ferns and chrysanthemums, while the rest of the house was decorated with palms and carnations. The table was wonderful with a large centerpiece of pink poinsettias and Opheelia roses, from which were individual streamers to each place with small bouquets.

After dinner dancing was enjoyed. Mrs. Thomas Burns sang several selections. Those accepting Mr. and Mrs. Hesse's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laher, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brandt, Mrs. M. Bolland, Howard Price of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buck, Mischa Guterson, and Mrs. P. Salzbrenner, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gronert, Barnett Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. Chatman of Seattle, Mrs. G. Wood, Marshall Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns.

Mrs. W. L. Fliedner entertained this week for her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. M. Glen, and for Mrs. Fred R. Glen, who left for Los Angeles.

Mrs. F. J. Haines entertained for her sister, Mrs. H. M. Glen, and niece, Mrs. Fred Fliedner, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Fred Fliedner, her son and daughter-in-law left recently to join her husband, H. M. Glen, ex-president of the Portland Linotype company, who is now in business in Los Angeles.

The home of Miss Genevieve Hoffman was the scene of a very pretty miscellany show, given by the Phi Alpha Kappa sorority Tuesday night honoring Mrs. Charles Emerson Haddon (Eva Boscovich), whose wedding was an event of New Year's eve. Those present were: Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Fay Barber, Miss Edna Flood, Mrs. Howard Butler, Mrs. Burt Meyers, Mrs. Ted Emerson, Mrs. Burt Granning, Mrs. Thomas Armstrong, Mrs. Charles Raymond, Miss Effie Tyrrell, Miss Elsie Shirey, Miss Louise Teasdale, Miss Elvera Anderson and Mrs. Charles Hadden.
