Business Office, Oregonian.

ANCEZAR TO LECTURE HERE—Tom Skeyhill, famous Australian soldier-poet, will be presented at the municipal auditorium tomorrow night by the Ellison-White lyceum bureau, as the second member of the Portland lyceum course. The brilliant young Ancezar will present a reconstruction lecture, "Rebuilding the World," which has received such a large amount of praise and favorable comment in the east. New York society paid a million dollars to invite him to appear here on the night of October 9, 1918, when, at what the New York Tribune termed "the greatest demonstration in the history of any loan in any nation," he single-handedly raised the unprecedented sum of $25,750,000 in 23 minutes.

WOMAN HURT IN COLLISION—Miss Leona Wright, 465 East Twelfth street, in employ of the American Can company, was suffering from bruises about the right eye yesterday morning as the result of an automobile accident. The accident occurred while on the way from work. Miss Wright was riding in an automobile driven by Fred L. Ward of the Flouring mills at Twenty-fourth and Flanders streets. Miss Wright was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital for treatment following the accident.

TEACHER SEEKS OLD PUPILS—Retired and spending the declining days of his life in the little town of Glendive, Mont., M. E. Rigby, pioneer school teacher of Oregon, announces his desire to renew acquaintance with some of his former pupils. Mr. Rigby was prominent in educational circles 14 years ago. Although his health is impaired by partial blindness his mental faculties are unimpaired. "I would be glad to hear from any of my students," writes Mr. Rigby to friends in Portland. His address is box 142, Glendive, Mont.

CREDIT MEN WILL MEET—A lecture on Armenia, illustrated with several reels of motion pictures, will be given by Miss Allen as a special feature at the January meeting of the Portland Association of Credit Men tomorrow night at the Benson hotel. Miss Allen is from the east and has spent several years in Armenia. Music will be furnished by Walter Jenkins, Miss Hoffer and the Portland orchestra. Open discussion will be devoted to ascertaining whether a weekly noon lunch is desired by the organization.

CHURCH SEEKS FUNDS—A campaign to secure funds with which to complete payment for the building now occupied by the First Spiritualist church has just been launched. The structure at East Seventh and Haszelo streets was purchased for $3200 and of this sum $700 is still to be raised. Warren Miller, president of the church, is heading the campaign committee.

DR. SUZUKI TO SPEAK—Dr. Henry Suzuki, president of the University of Washington, will address the City club on the subject, "What the Nation Needs," at a special dinner meeting to be held in the crystal room of the Benson hotel at 8:30 o'clock Friday night, January 23. Dr. J. East Elie, Stevens building, is chairman of the committee in charge.

PREACHER RECEIVES OFFER—Rev. R. H. Sawyer, pastor of the East Side Christian church, has received a flattering business offer from southern California which he will leave this evening to look into the matter. He expects to be absent from Portland two weeks.

RUSSIAN VIOLINIST HERALDED AS GENIUS OF GENERATION

Lavish Press Notices Laud Youngster as Musical Sensation of Age and Characterize His Performance as Miracle.

JASCHA HEIFETZ, GREAT VIOLINIST, HERE JANUARY 25.

PORTLAND is to be included in the first Heifetz concert tour. Steers & Coman will present this young genius at the Heilig on January 25. Genius is a big word for which there seldom is use. Comparatively few persons are qualified to have it applied to them. Yet one such—a 17-year-old youth—stood upon the Carnegie hall stage two years ago and before his musical task was half completed an audience of thousands that knew pronounced him the greatest violinist heard there in years.

THE youth is Jascha Heifetz. Until then he had never professionally played in his country. Experts were aware of his rare gifts; some of them had heard the slender, serious-faced boy in one or more of his European concerts. But the majority even of those of New York, whose judgment is seldom in error, were not aware of his success or failure to a new artist, as through his American premiere listening for the "first time" to the extent of Jascha Heifetz's resources.

THE following are excerpts from some of his critics: Jascha Heifetz scores triumph. His playing surely passes any heard in 15 years. For the moment it is enough to say he is a master whose equal this generation will probably never meet again.

NEW YORK EVENING MAIL—Perfect violin playing at last. When Jascha Heifetz, 17, was heard in New York last night the words are used advisedly. He plays as every serious violinist must dream of playing.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE—Heifetz rose above his instrument and the music written for it, and therefore we are glad to associate him with the best that we have listened to in twice 20 years. He is now in his own shoes, and we are not sure that any violinist before the public can fill them as well as he does.

CHICAGO EXAMINER—That young wonder, Jascha Heifetz, transformed Orchestra hall into a scene of such wild excitement and uproarious applause as is seldom witnessed in any concert. It was Paganini come to life again.

CHICAGO JOURNAL—There can be no question that Heifetz is the superior of any violinist before the public today. None of the others can be mentioned in the same breath with him.

86 TEACHERS ARE PLACED OREGON UNIVERSITY GRADUATES ASSIGNED POSITIONS. Dean of Education at Eugene Declares Demand to Be in Excess of Supply.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 17.—(Special.)—University of Oregon graduates to the number of 86 obtained teaching positions through the appointment bureau of the university since the opening of the present school year in September, according to figures given out by Dr. H. D. Sheldon, dean of the school of education. Salaries range, in these positions, from $100 a month for beginning teachers to $250 for specially trained men.

OF these, 80 were in high schools. Three positions are yet open, one a grade instructorship at $140 a month, one an instructorship in biology at $130 a month and one instructorship in physical education, salary not specified. A rise in salary of 66.2-3 per cent over two years ago will probably be given high school teachers the coming year, Dr. Sheldon has announced. Two years ago $75 a month was the average; this year it is $100, and next year, Dr. Sheldon believes, well-recommended teachers will be able to command $140.

MILITARY CREDITS DESIRED

Student Officers Hold Out for Higher Pay Grade. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Company E. R. O. T. C., composed of ex-service men, is not drifting this term. The men are awaiting the action of congress on the army bill, which provides for university credit for all men who were in the army, navy or marines. Credit for as many as two years of military work is provided in the measure. The men will then be able to take up the advanced military work given to juniors and seniors in the R. O. T. C., receiving pay of about $12 more in the R. O. T. C. unit here, expresses his confidence that the bill will be passed.

ARNOLD H. KOEPLKE, a junior from Athena, Or., is the first member of the Oregon unit of the R. O. T. C. to receive appointment as a major in the corps. Koeplke last term held the rank of captain in charge of company B. He now has charge of the entire battalion of four companies and the military band, under supervision of Captain Raymond C. Baird, U. S. A., commandant. Koeplke, who is a major student in the school of officers, is called the perfect officer in the students' army training corps during the war, with the rank of lieutenant. He was stationed at Oregon Agricultural college.
