First Week of Play Shows Boys in Good Form.

Various Fives Display Wildness in Shooting-Practice Needed to Round Out Team Play.

With the first week of the 1920 interscholastic basketball season over the winter sport season appears on in earnest. Four of the five games scheduled for last week were played off and one between Jefferson and Franklin was postponed. All of the teams which appeared in action in the opening week of play can stand some improvement both in passing and basket shooting. A great deal of the unnecessary roughness could also be eliminated for the betterment of

The faults mentioned are perhaps due to the fact that the quinters were engaged in their first games of the season and will improve in the arts of the hoop game as the season progresses.

Coach Kenneth Irle's Lincoln high basket tossers look to be the best bet at present, although it is per-haps a little early in the season to pick a championship team. The Railsplitters' first game was with the High School of Commerce five, which is considerably weaker than Lincoln. However, the passing and shooting of the Cardinal five was up to mid-season standard and they won from Commerce with ease. It is some to Commerce with ease. It is going to take a mighty strong quintet to have the Railsplitters a defeat this season
