

Mrs. Arthur Trumbull Brown, whose wedding was a smart event last Wednesday evening.

Miss Mary Bacon, Bridesmaid, Miss Nadine Caswell, Maid of Honor, Miss Elizabeth Peacock, Bridesmaid, of Brown-Honeyman Wedding.

Miss Charlotte Freeman, whose engagement was announced last week to Edward Thompson.

The marriage of Miss Helen Honeyman and Arthur Trumbull Brown was a brilliant and smart social event Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Honeyman, in St. Clair street.

will give the various rooms a festive appearance. The Knights will be in charge of the dance with Patrick Babon as chairman. Mrs. E. H. Deery heads the card committee and Mrs. W. J. Thatcher is chairman of the refreshment committee.

The party is being given for the benefit of the convent of the Dominican Sisters on Stanton street, which is now inadequately heated and the plan is to install a modern heating plant. Tickets for the party, which are $1 per couple, may be had at the Knights of Columbus headquarters on the eighth floor of the Multnomah hotel.

The Portland Golf club are making preparations for an informal supper dance to be given next Saturday evening, February 14, at the clubhouse. All members and their friends are invited and are requested to make reservations by calling C. C. Wintermute, Broadway 2578.

lieutenant in the coast artillery. The wedding will be an event in the late spring. Mrs. H. C. Wortman will be a member of a party of seven sailing from San Francisco March 3 on the steamship Korea for the orient, which will be the first part of a trip around the world. Dr. and Mrs. Harry Huntington Powers, the well-known lecturer, will also be members of this party. They plan to visit the orient, Egypt and Europe, and probably will be away a year and a half.

Word has been received in Portland from Mr. and Mrs. Albert Browne that their next station will be in Spain. The news was sent from Paris, where Mr. and Mrs. Browne are visiting Mr. Browne's mother, who makes her home there. After leaving here a few months ago they visited Mrs. Browne's parents in Panama. Mr. Browne was British consul here.

An engagement will interest many people is that of Miss Mildred Allen Brown and Estee Brosius. Miss Brown is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown of Spokane, a graduate of the University of Oregon and member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Brosius is a son of Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Brosius of Hood River. He was a student at the University of Oregon and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega. He served during the war as second Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett are planning to return with Mrs. Farthingham to southern California, where she is spending the winter with her children. Harold Henry, American pianist, who will appear in concert at the Hellig theater next Wednesday, is a prominent member of Sigma Chi fraternity, and the Sigma Chis of this city are planning a number of social affairs in his honor during his visit here.

The Misses Caroline and Louise Flanders were charming hostesses Tuesday evening at their residence on Nineteenth street, when they entertained with ten tables of bridge. Interesting visitors in town last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Weatherwax of Burlingame, Cal., when they were the guests of Mrs. Fred Green. Mrs. Green asked a few friends Monday to have tea informally with her and Mrs. Weatherwax.

Mrs. Anna Hibler, who has been spending the winter in California, where she was extensively entertained, has returned to her home at Forrest Hall. Mrs. William McFall is at her apartment at the Alexandria Court after a very delightful visit in Seattle, where she spent several weeks, the guest of Mrs. George Myers. Mrs. A. R. Belkin of Seattle announced the engagement of her daughter Sophie to Benjamin N. Katz of this city, formerly of San Francisco. Miss Belkin is a graduate of Lincoln high school, an exceptionally brilliant and charming young lady, and well known among the younger set of Portland as well as Seattle. Mr. Katz had the distinction of being chosen boy mayor of San Francisco in 1916 after a competitive examination conducted among 20,000 public school pupils. He studied law and their two boys, also Mr. and Mrs. George Nevins to be away several months. Most of the time they will spend in Pasadena, where they have taken apartments at the Maryland hotel. Mrs. C. N. Huggins, entertained most charmingly for Mrs. Cobbs with a luncheon on Thursday when her guests included: Mrs. Cobbs, Mrs. George Durkee, Mrs. E. C. Griffin, Mrs. L. Cook, Mrs. G. A. McCargar, Mrs. C. E. Baker, Mrs. C. E. Rumelin, Mrs. F. F. Belcher, Madame Belcher, Mrs. George Nevins, Mrs. Hicks Fenlon and the hostess.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, the service being read by Dr. A. A. Morrison before the fireplace in the drawing room, which was banked with greens and roses to form an altar. Walter Brown attended his brother as best man. The bridal march was played by a soft string orchestra. Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller sang just before the service. After the ceremony, a reception was held, when Mr. and Mrs. James Honeyman received with the bride and groom. Mrs. Honeyman was very handsome in a robe of orchid satin, with beautiful black lace. Presiding at an artistically arranged supper table were: Mrs. Alfred Aya, Mrs. Charles Hindman, Mrs. Nancy Zan Scott and Mrs. Adolph Neuf. In the library punch was served by Mrs. Dallas Bache, Mrs. Ronald B. Caswell and Mrs. W. B. Peacock. Several hundred people, including the family and old friends, had the pleasure of being present at this unusually beautiful wedding.

Mrs. Brown is a popular member of the young set, a member of one of Portland's old and honored families, and was a student at St. Helen's hall and Miss Catlin's school, finishing at Miss Spence's school in New York city. Mr. Brown is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brown, who have recently come to Portland from Rockford, Ill., to make their home. After a wedding trip south, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Portland. Lady Aird of Toronto, who has been a guest at the Seaside hotel with Sir John Aird, was honor guest Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. F. C. Malpas asked about 40 intimate friends to have tea with her and Lady Aird. Mrs. A. E. Rooley and Mrs. William MacRae presided over the attractive tea table. Mrs. Jack Leonard Riddell and her small daughter, Patricia, are spending a couple of months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malpas, while Captain Riddell is on recruiting duty in South Dakota. Mrs. Riddell assisted her mother in receiving last Tuesday. Mrs. F. J. Cobbs will leave this week for California with Mr. Cobbs

The Way of a Polo Coat

First, the soft, luxurious fabric (by the way its beauty doesn't prevent its wearing wonderfully well), then the designer's art, creating a sports coat, chic, smart, yet serviceable for all-around wear. The well-dressed woman has adopted the polo coat enthusiastically in all its variations—all-round belt, inverted back pleat, convertible collar, throw collar, Tuxedo collar of Angora, side pockets, patch pockets, raglan sleeves.

Sports Skirts Accept Their Popularity Their attractiveness is sufficient excuse for their existence in every modish woman's wardrobe, but they are practical as well. Stripes and plaids are in high favor, while pleated, plain or draped models afford opportunity for individual expression. Oh, yes, they're short, decidedly. The window display will give you suggestions as to what's new in skirts.
