AT LIBERTY TEMPLE.

The game is now at its height—its most exciting stage; and it's a truly wonderful game—this patriotic effort of unemployed veterans and employers to get together—this effort of a patriotic community to provide for its own.

We still have several hundred excellings and sallors who are not yet permanently piaced where they can sam a decent living for themselves and families—men who are willing to start in at a reasonable salary where there is opportunity to work permanently into a better position—men who did their duty when duty called—men who MUST be piaced by the employers of Portland and vicinity.

How is it going to be done? Between 4000 and 5000 assignments have been made by this office since the bureau opened—a record that reflects credit upon Portland—a result made peasible because the majority of Portland employers are "playing the same."

The remaining few hundred can be taken care of in a day if you, and you, and you, who haven't "come arrows" with your slare of effort to help absorb the memployed ex-service men, will GHT BUST NOW—so carefully over your payroll, your list of employee—weed out here and there where the cricimariances justify i—madjunt it is every way possiole—and phone, write ercall upon Captain Canville—one knows the mem—he touly appreciation be actly what the employer is up against—he knows the mem—he touly appreciation he creation for my list of the limit in the individual and public interest with res—to this problem—he knows the employer who has been a alacker in the campaign.

Many employers have taken the trouble to write to life in the same in the campaign.

Many employers have taken the trouble ment problem to captain canville—ment problem to captain canv Experienced builder of modern, moderate-priced homes desires to form connection with responsible real satate or building company; has handled several good-sized building and selfing propositions and always made good; will go any place; salary or commission.
