and Lieutenant Dagg, Tom Austin and Fred Rooper.

Miss Katherine Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodward entertained a group of young friends last night at a dinner dance at the Portland hotel and later at a box party at the Alcazar. Guests included a few of the younger society girls and cadet officers of Hill Military academy.

Miss Helena Pittlekau entertained last night at her home on Hawthorne avenue for several of the sub deb set and some of the Hill Military cadets.

Mrs. N. U. Carpenter gave a party last night for her daughter, Dorothy, one of the popular younger girls and for a group of her friends among the teen-age girls and the cadets.

Another who entertained charmingly was Mrs. R. I. Donald, who had a dancing party at her home.

Mrs. F. Milne had several of the Hill cadets as her guests at the Irvington club with a coterie of friends of her daughter Frances, who is a popular member of the high school set.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster will leave Portland tomorrow for New York, where they will sail for France and later visit England and Scotland, their native home. Mr. and Mrs. MacMaster will be greatly missed in the social sets. During the past few weeks many affairs have been given in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Reade M. Ireland will occupy their residence, Ardgour, near the Waverley Country club, during their absence. They plan to return to Portland in the early summer.

Mrs. Edmund Devereaux was a charming hostess for luncheon on Thursday, when Dr. Esther Lovejoy was guest of honor.

Those who had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Lovejoy at the luncheon were: Mrs. W. S. Sibson, Mrs. Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Mrs. Victor Johnson and the hostess.

The Canadian War Veterans will entertain at their clubrooms in the Manchester building next Thursday, March 11, when Miss MacVean, a British nurse, will receive her decoration from John Treat, the British consul, which was sent to the British ambassador in Washington, D. C. from King George.

The patronesses for this interesting occasion are: Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. John Leader, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. William Wheelwright, Mrs. E. T. C. Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal entertained informally at tea on Friday, when her honor guests were Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, who leaves soon for Medford to make her home; Mrs. William MacMaster, who leaves tomorrow for Europe, and Mrs. George Willett, who has just returned from California, where she has spent the winter.

At this charming although small and informal tea Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. D. A. Shindler, Mrs. C. F. Swigert and Miss Ella Hirsch presided at the prettily arranged tea table and were assisted by Mrs. Renda M. Ireland, Mrs. Nancy Zan Scott and Miss Sara McCully. About 40 friends called during the afternoon.

Mrs. C. E. S. Wood will leave for California today, where she will join Mr. Wood and also visit her daughter, Mrs. G. Kirkham Smith. During Mrs. Wood's absence from the city Mr. and Mrs. M. Bohland will occupy her residence. Mrs. Wood plans to be away only a few weeks.

Mrs. H. M. Parry of Gerald avenue, on Council Crest, has as her guest Miss Dorothy Wiesting of Seattle.

Miss Mary Louise Rochester of Seattle, well-known soloist on this coast, was a guest in the city the past week, when she gave a programme at the MacDowell club on Tuesday afternoon at the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. A. E.

Kerry was hostess for a delightful tea following the concert at her apartment at the Malory hotel.

The campaign fund of the Oregon employment institution for the blind will give a benefit concert at the city auditorium next Tuesday, March 9.

MUCH interest is being taken and a great deal of time given to the Woman's Exchange, the quarters of which have been done over, and the board announces they will inaugurate a tea room in the building on Fifth street, between Taylor and Yamhill streets, Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock. This will be open to the public every day.

Mrs. Victor Johnson is president of the Woman's Exchange. Other officers and the board include Miss Felling, Mrs. S. Frank, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. Wells Gilbert, Mrs. E. Ehrman, Mrs. William Brewster, Mrs. I. N. Fleishner, Mrs. William Alvord, Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Mrs. William Van Schuyver, Mrs. Otis Wight, Mrs. Vincent Cook, Mrs. E. M. Boykin, Mrs. Richard Wilder and Miss Margaret Mackenzie. Mrs. Frank Rigler is now in charge of the exchange.

Miss Agnes Plummer, daughter of the late Dr. O. F. S. Plummer and Mrs. Plummer, became the bride of William Wesley Burns of eastern Oregon on Wednesday at high noon at the residence of her mother in Hillsdale.

The service was read by Dr. Charles W. Hays in the presence of 25 members of the immediate family and a few close friends. The bride was dressed in a dainty white organdy and a large corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas. She was unattended, as was the bridegroom.

The house was a bower of spring ferns, pink carnations and sweet peas. An elaborate wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, which was simple but impressive. Mr. and Mrs. Burns will make their home in Wal-

Success Sale!

In Honor of Our First Birthday

This week marks the first birthday of the "Shop of intimate feminine things." We're not crowing about our modest success (we're too unassuming for that), but the courageous roosters you see insist on doing it for us! We do want to tell you what a wonderful year it has been for us—twelve months crammed full of interesting experiences in serving Portland women in the way we, as women ourselves, like to be served. The friends we have made and the generous patronage they have brought us, prove convincingly that this woman's shop has met a real need for quality goods "exclusive in style but not expensive in price."

Special Reductions on Every Brassiere
Bandeau Specials
65c and 95c

A wonderfully complete assortment of styles. The brassiere is almost as important as the corset—together the ideal combination, producing that smooth, unbroken, graceful line so desirable as a costume foundation.

Portland women are invited to help us celebrate our first anniversary. We are offering for this week

Special Reduced Prices on Blouses, Underings, Beads, Negligees, Corsets

New Spring Blouses Reduced 10%
Rainbow-hued are these exquisite georgette blouses—almost always in over-the-skirt style. Sometimes three or four brilliant shades, contrasting or blending, combine in one blouse; again the effect is achieved by wool or floss embroidery. And, of course, there is always the irreproachable white or flesh, with dainty lace and fine thread work.
Each one absolutely new—and at 10% off

Broken Lots Corsets 10% Off
SPECIAL OFFER—If you don't need a corset you can still secure the 10 per cent by paying a deposit and holding your corset until you want it fitted.
