Mrs. H. C. Wortman will entertain this afternoon at her residence on Vista Avenue with an informal reception in honor of members of the Wednesday morning art class, of which she was president for some years; the Thursday morning architectural class and the Arts and Crafts society and members of their families. The reception will be a farewell, as Mrs. Wortman will leave this month for a trip around the world and plans to be absent from the city about 18 months.

One of the most interesting social affairs of the past week was on Wednesday evening, when Mrs. C. C. Newcastle surprised Dr. Newcastle with a card party in honor of his birthday. The house was decorated with spring ferns and daffodils. Six tables of cards were made up, which was followed by a buffet supper. Mrs. Leon Peters and George Cellars won the high-score prizes. Mrs. Fred Krilbe gave a number of songs during the evening.

Reed college women were hostesses on Wednesday for their last of a series of teas. In spite of stormy weather and the beginning of Lent several hundred of Portland's prominent women called during the tea hours and had the pleasure of being shown the college, with its interesting classrooms, library, chapel and students' dormitories.

Tea was served in the assembly room, which was artistically decorated with potted flowers and shrubs. Miss Florence Baker acted as hostess for the afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. Gray had charge of the decorations. Receiving were Mrs. E. B. MacNaughton, Mrs. F. J. Foster, Mrs. William M. Ladd, Mrs. Robert L. Sabbin, Mrs. William T. Foster, Mrs. E. W. Russell, Mrs. Hudson B. Hastings, Mrs. Norman F. Coleman, Mrs. Philip Deans, Mrs. Calvin White, Mrs. C. H. Gray, Miss Dorothy Elliott, Miss Nucia Niemiec and all sophomore women, with Miss Mary Elizabeth White and Miss Grace Linklater.

Mrs. Leo Hoffman, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. John C. Alnoworth, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Miss Henrietta Fallins and Mrs. William D. Whelwright presided at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. N. U. Carpenter were delightful hosts for a dinner dance at the Waverly Country club last Monday evening. The guests were seated at small tables in the ballroom, which was lovely with carnations and spring ferns. After each course the men progressed to the next table, which added merriment to the affair.

Those who had the pleasure of being at this dinner were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Denison, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hofmann, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Littlefield, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Shea, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallis, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Callum, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hunter of Ontario, Can.; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Estinger, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mielke, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krohn, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt, Miss Dorothy Carpenter, William Fenton and the hosts.

Much regret is being expressed over the news that Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhes and their family are planning to leave Portland about the beginning of May for Medford to make their future home.

Many social affairs have been given for Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hirsch of Chicago, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berg. Mrs. Clarence Samuels was a dinner hostess in their honor, as were Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Ottenheimer, when they also had Mrs. Hirsch's sister, Mrs. Sigmund Sonnenberg. Mrs. George Black entertained with a luncheon. Mrs. Ruth Schwetzer was a luncheon hostess.

Mrs. Alfred Herman Schreff will be the guest in Portland of Mrs. George Gerlinger during the latter part of March. Mrs. Schreff is a miniature artist who came to Oregon from Boston with her husband, who is professor of fine arts at the University of Oregon and a landscape painter of distinction. While she is in Portland Mrs. Schreff will paint the miniatures of several Portland people and will give the proceeds of her work to the women's building fund. During the war Mrs. Schreff made many such contributions to the Red Cross. While in Portland she will use the studio of Mrs. W. J. Burns, which was also used by Mr. Proctor for his work in Portland. Mrs. Schreff will complete a miniature of Mrs. Gerlinger, upon which she is working, and it is hoped that an exhibition can be arranged so that her work may be seen by those interested in miniature painting.

A pleasant reunion was held last Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. O. Dennis in Walnut Park in honor of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, the occasion being her 81st birthday. The guests being the members of her family, including her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mrs. Dennis was assisted by Mrs. George Hovenden, Mrs. M. L. Jones and Mrs. John Withycombe of Lash Meadows.

Youthful Charm Reflected in These Spring Frocks

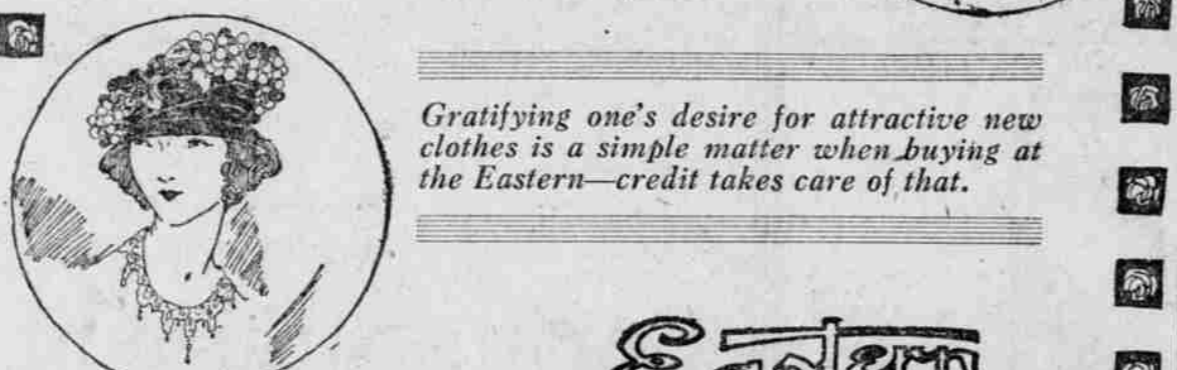

BOUFFANCY is attained by graceful puffing, pleating or ruffling used at the hip line in unique fashion, the old-timey bodices outlining the figure in delightful contrast. Quaker collars demurely drape many a new taffeta frock, while short and saucy are the sleeves. Satin, tricotine, serge and poiret twill come in for their share of favor.

The house was a bower of beautiful flowers, many of them being gifts, the main feature of the tea table being a huge birthday cake with 81 candles.

A group of young people surprised Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Newcastle Jr. with a dance at their residence in Irvington on Tuesday evening, which was their first wedding anniversary. About 25 couples enjoyed this delightful affair.
