Savage and Mrs. T. Roy presided over the refreshments. The next card party will be given on March 15. Mrs. A. Laidlaw will be hostess.

The monthly business of the Harmon club was held last Thursday at the home of Miss Ethel Pascal, Oberlin street. The members of the club voted to repeat their vaudeville show, which was a huge success, for the Artisan lodge of St. Johns on St. Patrick's night.

The A. T. B. girls entertained their friends at a leap year dancing party February 28 at the Portland hotel. The ladies filled the gentlemen's programmes and everything was done in true leap year style. Patronesses were Mrs. James McCuen, Mrs. Stuart Pagan, Mrs. Charles Fick, Mrs. Todd Rued, Mrs. James Thompson. On the committee were Hortense Pichereau, Ruth Watson, Alice Johnson, Ann Tindula, Marie Wilmes, Mary Kinneer, Valkyria Larson, Lella Gilstrap, Marion Barton, Freida Zellar.

A most interesting and enjoyable social event was held at the Methodist Deaconess Home Thursday, when a luncheon was given the Methodist ministers' wives of the city under the direction of the Deaconess auxiliaries. Many of the guests had been in active service more than 50 years. Wives and widows of supernumeraries were present, as well as wives of the men now active in the work. At lunch time each woman rose, gave her name and something of the work in the ministry which had been hers, making a most interesting time. Mrs. Bishop Dr. and Mrs. A. Laidlaw entertained about 80 at a miscellaneous springtime dancing party at the home of the Rose City Park club, February 27. Mrs. M. L. Alger and Ray Boyle won the waltz prize of the evening, the judges being O. W. Taylor, P. Dater, T. E. Goer and Dr. M. G. McCorkle. A luncheon was served at 12 o'clock, with a wonderful dance afterwards.

Enchanting New Spring Wonder Millinery Modes $5 to $35

Particularly chic are the gleeful little turbans that tilt coquettishly over milady's laughing eyes, the audacious flares, that present a sheer precipice of glittering cellophane, crisp taffeta or perky marine and nonchalant sports hats, with their careless drooping and vivid coloring.

Wool embroidering is quite correct, so are brilliant hued flowers and girlish ribbons all a-flutter—and for the more dignified matron, lovely straws and soft fabrics.

There's all the charm of genuine surprise in store for you in these new Spring hats at the Wonder Millinery Salons.

Feminine Thoughts Now Turn to Spring Suits and Dresses

And This Shop Proudly Displays Many Clever Modes at these Moderate Prices

$29.50 to $59.50

A Suit or a Dress, it matters not which—but the price surely concerns you. This is NOT a sale, but the moderate markings and the completeness of selection tell another tale of The Mode's value-giving—and milady who chooses here now truly chooses well.

The New Dresses at $29.50 to $59.50

You'll find them here in numbers—in silks and woolens, and shades that flatter your fancy. Styles are the latest, introducing the 1920 idea of the Eton, the pleated skirt mode, ruffles are again used and ribbons, silk embroidery, metallic embroidery and beading are the vogue. Taffetas, Satins, Georgettes, Tricolette, Serges, Tricotine, Jersey and Check Velours are

Blouses

Well selected makes, that meet the definite needs of tailor suit, sport outfit or costume wear. Tricolettes, Crepe de Chine, Georgette—$7.50 up to $32.50.

The Spring Suits at $49.50 to $59.50

Again we say it isn't always the price, but the style, which really counts. Here are suits with spring-ripple flares, narrow belted suits, braided suits, tailored suits—of Serges, Tricotine, Gabardines, Jerseys, Check Velours and Mannish and Rainbow Tweeds. And these suits in spring colors are the groups we call "values" at $49.50 to $59.50.

Health Saving Refinement

THE close relation between the laws of sanitation and the rules of health has made the modern cleaning plant a household necessity.

The added period of usefulness proper cleansing gives to wearing apparel, rugs, carpets and draperies makes the modern cleaning plant an economic necessity.

Incidental to health and saving, the regular patrons of our service enjoy the satisfaction and pleasure of refined appearance at all times. Aren't these things worth while?
