PORTLAND PLAYERS HOPE OF VARSITY

Veterans From High Schools Are Team's Best Prospects.

LINCOLN MEN IN LEAD

Some Gain Experience in Freshmen Games or in Other Teams After Leaving Highs.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 20.—(Special.)—A rollcall of the candidates now out for the University of Oregon varsity baseball team shows that much of the material was developed in the Portland interscholastic circles. Although the regular first team is not due to be picked for several weeks yet, many of these Portland candidates seem likely to make the first team.

The candidates were drawn from four of the prep schools of the Rose City, Columbia university, Jefferson high school, Washington high school and Lincoln high school, having representatives on this year's squad. Lincoln appears to have the strongest delegation in the baseball convention, having two former varsity letter men, one the captain of the team, a twirler who bids fair to be one of the mainstays in the box, and a shortstop who has played with the Moose Jaw team of the Western Canadian league, and is out with the varsity warming up for another season in the dominion league.

Carl Knudson, a left-handed twirler who is said to have worlds of stuff on the ball, is Lincoln's representative in the box. Knudson left Lincoln several years ago, and, coming to Oregon, made a place on the freshman team of 1917. In the intervening years he has never been able to turn out for varsity ball, and this is his first season on the regular lemon-yellow squad.

Johnny Gamble, who was a letter man on last year's varsity, holding down a position in the outer garden, is another Lincoln star.

Lind Also From Lincoln.

Herm Lind, captain and first sacker on this year's varsity, hails from Lincoln, and has played baseball every season since entering college. He and Knudson were on the same team at Lincoln, and both made the Oregon freshman team of 1917. Lind later played first on the 1918 and 1919 teams.

Art Ritter, a former Lincoln player, is out practicing with the varsity, but will not be allowed to play with them because of professionalism. Ritter played last season with the Moose Jaw team, managed by Nick Williams, holding down a shortstop berth. Nick Williams' crew is due on the Oregon campus April 8, and rumor has it that Ritter is to join the Canadian team then.

Columbia university has a strong representation among the varsity candidates. Francis and Vincent Jacobberger, both football players, are both out for varsity positions, Francis as a twirler and Vinc as a catcher. Francis pitched for the 1918 freshman team and also for the varsity of last year. Vinc received for last year's freshmen.

Bill Collins, also of Columbia, is a strong contender for an infield berth. Collins covered third for the frosh last season.

Washington Is Represented.

Washington high also has three delegates among the crew of aspirants. Si Simola, a diminutive outfielder, is out for a berth in the outer garden, and seems able to cover a large amount of territory. He hasn't had an opportunity so far to show how he can handle a stick. Bart Loughlin, who is out for a berth, is also a former Washington high man. Loughlin is out for a backstop position, but is able to play several positions on the team as well.

George Black, another Washington high player, is a candidate for first base. Black has played third and in the outfield during his prep school days, and may decide to shift his field of activities as the season progresses. Black played first base on the frosh team of last year.

Mart Howard, who reported out in a suit recently, is a Jefferson representative on the team. Howard played left end on the Oregon football team this season.

SALT LAKE HAS FIELD DAY

Ernie Johnson's Men Trample Rough on Mare Island Team.

MARE ISLAND, Cal, March 20.—(Special.)—Ernie Johnson's Salt Lake ball club, or so much of it as he brought to Mare Island this afternoon, had a field day in their competition with the Mare Island naval training team. The score was 11 to 0 at the end of the nine innings and the Salt Lakers grabbed 14 hits.

Ernie Johnson, Heine Sands and Mulligan were good for three hits each.

The Sailors had to be contented with three hits, all of them off Thurston. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Salt Lake	11	14	2
Mare Island	0	3	6

Batteries — Thurston and James, Jenkins; Wilson and Benninghaven.

OAKS WIN PRACTICE GAME

Coast Leaguers Show Hitting Strength Against Standard Oil.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 20.—(Special.) — Oakland coast leaguers whitewashed the Standard Oil baseball team this afternoon on the Oakland grounds by a score of 6 to 0. The Oaks showed good hitting strength, while the Standard Oil aggregation was let down with three hits, all of them off Winn, who finished the game.

There will be two games today, weather permitting.

The score:	R.	H.	E.
Oakland	6	7	0
Standard Oil	0	3	2

Oakland battery — Arlett, Winn, Spellman and Mitze.

OREGON MANAGES TIE GAME

Agricultural College Holds State University in Seven Frames.

BERKELEY, Cal. March 20.—A baseball game here today between the University of California and Oregon Agricultural college was tied in the seventh inning, when called on account of rain.

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
O. A. C.	1	4	3	California	1	4	4

Batteries—Hughes and Gill; Ellison and Dexter.

Reds Overwhelm Indianapolis.

MIAMI, Fla., March 20.—The world's champion Reds overwhelmed the Indianapolis team of the American association here today, 21 to 3. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
Cin. (N.)	21	20	3	Ind. (A.A.)	3	5	4

Batteries—Bressler, Smith, Waters and Wingo; Ferrell, Zwilling and

WEST TIES EAST IN TENNIS

Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman to Meet Helen Baker in Finals.

BERKELEY, Cal., March 20.—Miss Helen Baker, representing the west, defeated Miss Eleanor Goss of the eastern team on the Berkeley tennis club courts today in the first intersectional tennis competition for women ever held in the country. The score was 3-6, 6-2, 6-3.

In the second match Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman, east, defeated Mrs. Ethel Sutton Bruce of Los Angeles, west. The first set score was 6-4, the second 2-0, when called on account of rain.

IDAHO STARTS BASEBALL

PRACTICE BEGUN BY SQUAD AT UNIVERSITY.

Six Letter Men of Past Seasons Are on Hand, as Well as Much Amateur Talent.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, March 20.—Baseball training at the University of Idaho was started yesterday afternoon, when a substantial squad of aspirants to diamond honors reported at the call of Coach R. F. Hutchinson. Six letter men of seasons past, as well as several who have had considerable experience in amateur ball in their home towns, were among those who signified their intentions of becoming candidates for team positions.

"Bunt" Breshears of Caldwell, a star hurler in the 1916 and 1917 collegiate seasons, is the only veteran slabsman who thus far has reported. Unless Coach Hutchinson is able to develop a capable pitcher or two from new material at hand, the burden of Idaho's mound duty will fall on Breshears.

Jim Fox of Nez Perce, Les Moe of Kellogg, Kenneth Hunter of Coeur d'Alene, Charles Gray of Genesee and Paul Evans of American Falls are among the more promising infielders who have drawn suits, and Frank Brown of Boise, Grover Evans of American Falls, Howard Campbell of Moscow and William Carder of Moscow are prospective outfielders who have attracted attention.

For some time practice will be confined to warming-up exercises and mild fielding feats on the university campus. The varsity field may not be in a playable condition for several weeks.

LUMBERMEN TO COMPETE

PORTLAND GOLFERS TO MEET ABERDEEN STARS TOMORROW.

Cup Offered by the Timberman of Portland to Be One of Prizes for Best Team Score.

ABERDEEN, Wash., March 20.—(Special.) — Fifteen or twenty Portland lumbermen, contesting for a cup offered by the Timberman of Portland, invaded Grays Harbor today and tomorrow take on a like team of Grays Harbor lumbermen golfers at the Grays Harbor Country club. The match will be played Sunday.

The Grays Harbor team will consist of Heinrich Schmidt, W. J. Patterson, H. E. Phipps, E. T. Taylor, Neil Cooney, Thorpe Babcock, W. C. Lindsell, L. G. Hunnbargar, F. G. Foster, E. G. Anderson, E. C. Miller, H. P. Brown, A. W. Middleton, A. L. Davenport, O. M. Kellogg, W. E. Campbell, J. E. Stewart, W. A. Rupp.

There also will be a cup in play presented by the E. C. Atkins Saw company, which will go for the low gross score. The Timberman cup will be for the best team score. The cups are now on display at the Washington hotel.

HOOD RIVER TO SEE BOXERS

Portland Lads Matched for Contest Next Thursday Night.

HOOD RIVER, Or., March 20.—(Special.)—Carl Kent, a local athletic fan, veteran and American Legion post member, has been appointed official city matchmaker for boxing contests. Thursday night Mr. Kent is offering an eight-round bout between Kid Roco and Billy Ryan Herman of Portland, Kid Herman of Portland, and Jimmy Duffy of Aberdeen, will don the gloves for a six-round go. Local men will furnish the preliminaries. Both sexes are invited to the bout, and interest is already keen, reservations rapidly being made for reserved seats.

"Micky" Kelly of Parkdale, returned Canadian army veteran, will be referee.

FRAT BASKET TITLE IS WON

Lambda Chi Alpha Gets Championship for Second Time.

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, March 20.—(Sepcial.)—The interfrat basketball championship was won tonight by Lambda Chi Alpha for the second consecutive time when that five defeated the Phi Delta Theta quintet in a fast game by the score of 17 to 11. The winners took the lead from the start although the losers came within one point of tying the count just before the close of the first half. Sandberg was the star for the Lambda Chi Alphas while Wexler shone for the opposition.

Should the Lambda Chi Alpha team again annex the pennant next season they will be in permanent possession of the cup now held temporarily by them.

FLYERS FALL HARD TO BEAVER SQUAD

Portland Gets Good Stiff Work on Field.

PLAYERS HITTING WELL

Spranger Getting Try at Second and May Hold Berth if His Fielding Improves.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

ONTARIO, Cal., March 20.—(Special.)—While Manager McCredie was calling balls and strikes in an important high school contest at Pomona, his hirelings had a great workout at the expense of the March Field aviation team. The final score of the contest was 15 to 6.

George Maisel, acting manager of the Portland club, started Charley Barnaby on the mound against the "Flyers," and he allowed them but two hits in five innings and struck out seven of them. The first three men to face him were whiffed. Barnabay displayed a great curve ball and wonderful control. Sutherland finished the game.

Beavers Hit in First.

The Beavers started swatting the ball hard in the first inning, putting across three runs. They added two in the second and one in the third, five runs were scored in the fifth and four in the eighth. Blue gathered two hits in three times up and walked three times and was hit by a batted ball; Kingdon garnered three hits in five times. Schaller lost a ball over the right-field wall. Del Baker and Barnaby each secured two hits in three times.

Spranger on Second.

Carl Spranger was shifted to second base and Honeck placed at third. Spranger will be given a thorough tryout at second base, as McCredie likes his fielding very much and is making an effort to correct his batting form.

The Beaver squad will be divided today, the Yannigans playing the March Field team at Paris and the regulars meeting the Stahl & Dean team of Los Angeles here.

Jones and Polson likely will be McCredie's selection for the mound duties in Sunday's game here.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
Marchfield	0	5	5	Portland	15	16	3

Batteries—McKilney and Thompson, Barnabee, Sutherland and Baker, Mohler.

Cunningham Turned Back.

Pitcher George Cunningham, who refused to report to Portland, has been turned over to Chattanooga club by the Detroit Tigers. In exchange for Cunningham the Beavers will land another high-class twirler from the Tigers. McCredie is expecting to hear from the Detroit club before the middle of this week regarding the pitchers and infielders to be turned over to him.

"Tex" Wisterzil is scheduled to arrive Monday to talk over terms with McCredie. Sam Stuart, recruit outfielder, was released outright today.

CHICAGO SLAUGHTERS ANGELS

Cubs Rap Quartet of Los Angeles Pitchers for 26 Hits.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 20.—(Special.)—The Chicago Cubs rapped four Los Angeles pitchers to the four corners of Washington park this afternoon and won 25 to 1. Such a huge total has not been piled up hereabouts since "Pop" Dillon was in short pantaloons. Paul Fittery, "Buffalo Bill" Pertica, "Red" McKay and Jones were the victims of Bruin atrocities.

Chicago made 26 hits against four for the Seraphs who erred on eight occasions.

Rudy Weber and "Nick" Carter, Wrigley pitchers, held the home boys well in hand throughout. Although the wise ones are not judging the Angels on this game, it is plain to be seen that speed must be added if Killefer hopes to figure.

Art Griggs played for the first time in several days having been out with Spanish influenza which still has Ruhe Ellis confined at home. Al Bartholemy, Portland boy on the L. A. catching staff, still has a sore arm and a sore finger.

Vic Aldredge, pitcher who has been holding out, telegraphed today that he was starting for this city. He wintered in the middle west. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
Chicago	25	26	1	Los Angeles	1	4	8

Batteries—Weber, Carter and O'Farrell, Rositer; Pittery, Pertica, McKay, Jones and Lapan, Wolgamot.

CARLISLE SMITH NOW DUE

Lively Game With New York Giants Promised at San Diego.

LOS ANGELES, Cal. March 20.—(Special.)—Vernon's world champions pack up their bats in the well-known bat bag early tomorrow morning and travel south to San Diego, where they are billed to meet Chief Meyer's San Diego team tomorrow afternoon on the Stadium field.

They say the former catcher of the New York Giants has banded a likely looking herd together down below and there ought to be one fine little tussle.

J. Carlisle Smith, third baseman obtained from the Yanks, and who used to have his coffee served by George Stallings at Boston, is due here tomorrow night. Shortly after his arrival, "Hap" Morse, Saginaw third baseman, will be sent to a league which is not quite as racy as the Pacific Coast league.

But one workout was held by the man-eating tigers today. The boys called it quits this afternoon, so they could sit in soft seats and watch the Cubbies and Angels. The ball players lead a tough life.

Hoquiam Defeats Centralia.

CENTRALIA, Wash., March 20.—(Special.)—The Centralia high school basketball team closed its 1920 season last night, losing to Hoquiam in a fast game by a score of 26 to 22. Kincaid, Hoquiam forward, scored 16 of his team's points. Thursday night at Winlock Hoquiam was defeated by the Winlock high school five by a score of 21 to 14.
