

Society

Miss Simon Klapstein who will leave this week for Boston on a visit.

Miss Marion Stichel, President of the Junior Council of Jewish Women.

Mrs. Robert Hanson who will leave until her recent marriage.

Miss Edith Morgan whose engagement to Arthur Payson Thompson has been announced.

her navy blue tricotine traveling suit worn with a small black hat trimmed with tan feathers. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Williams and Mr. Tucker the son of Dr. and Mrs. Tucker. These two young people are members of two of Portland's oldest families. After their wedding trip to the sound cities and British Columbia they will make their home at Firlock near Garden Home.

Miss Charlie Fenton is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. C. R. Fenton, at the King-Hill apartment. Miss Fenton is alumni secretary at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Miss Genevieve Thompson will leave San Francisco where she has been spending the winter for southern California this week. She plans to return to Portland in the late spring.

Miss Maude Sheworth returned home yesterday after a delightful visit in California.

Mrs. Ida M. Babcock of Salem, Or., announces the engagement of her daughter Mary B. to Clarence A. Maulding of Portland. The wedding will take place March 28 at Salem.

Mrs. I. Vanduy was a charming hostess for luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. H. C. Wortman, when her guests included Mrs. Wortman, Mrs. Charles E. Wolverson, Mrs. George Lawrence Jr., Mrs. Charles R. Templeton, Mrs. Charles E. Curry and Mrs. Frank Vanduy.

Mrs. Rufus Holman, Mrs. H. H. O'Reilly and Mrs. James B. Kerr entertained groups of young people at the Portland Heights club last Friday night.

Mrs. Charles L. Boss was a charming hostess on Thursday when she entertained with a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. E. Dempie of Astoria. Mrs. H. Latimer Stoner of Detroit and Mrs. E. L. Youmans of Columbus, Ohio. Covers were placed for 19 around a very beautifully appointed table with its decorations of spring flowers. The place cards were unique in the form of telegrams which caused much merriment. Card honors fell to Mrs. Katharine Daly. The guests were Mrs. E. Dempie, Mrs. H. Latimer Stoner, Mrs. E. L. Youmans, Mrs. B. H. Neerer, Mrs. Katharine Daly, Mrs. Edward Fraley, Mrs. Karl Lehto, Mrs. W. R. Bowles, Mrs. Harry Donovan.

Dr. and Mrs. James C. Zan entertained at dinner for Mrs. Walter Scott of San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. John Hayden on Monday evening when covers were laid for six.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bailey announce the birth of a daughter last Wednesday, who is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith and Mrs. Meredith Bailey Sr.

Mrs. Guy M. Standifer and daughter and Miss Gretchen Klosterman are in town again after a several months' motor trip through California.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hervey Simpson Bates of New York City have recently come to the Puget sound country and established themselves at Cloverfields farm near Olympia, Wash., where they propose to make their future home. It will be recalled that Mrs. Bates, formerly Mrs. Edward Wingard Bingham and nee Kate Stevens, is the youngest daughter of the first governor of Washington territory, the late General Isaac Ingalls Stevens, and a sister of the late General Hazard Stevens, a man well known to the people of the Pacific northwest, particularly Washington, and the one to whom Cloverfields farm owes its present stage of development. This property was acquired by Governor Stevens in 1856, since which early date it has been kept in his family.

The engagement of Miss Helen Morgan and David Hunter Gowans was announced at a prettily appointed luncheon when Mrs. Edward O'Neill was hostess.

Miss Helen Morgan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Shelly Morgan of Irvington and a member of one of the Oregon pioneer families. Mr. Gowans came to Portland a few years ago from Scotland.

At the luncheon the guests were 12 intimate friends of Miss Morgan, including Miss Frances Hazeltine, Miss Dorothy Hunsacker, Miss Mary Woodward, Miss Marion West, Miss Sara McCully, Miss Rosa Irving, Miss Lou Emma Waters, Mrs. E. S. Morgan, Mrs. C. T. Schnabel, Miss Morgan and hostess. Decorations for the table were masses of spring flowers. Individual band boxes tied with pastel shaded ribbons contained old-fashioned bouquets made of vari-colored candy. On the boxes were the announcement cards. The wedding is planned for early May, but no definite date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ballie have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Ballie Barrett, to Commander Isaac Curzon Johnson, U. S. N., according to Tacoma papers. The wedding will be in May. Mrs. Barrett has many friends in Portland, as she lived here a few years ago.

Mrs. Louis Gerlinger Sr. entertained Wednesday with two tables of bridge followed by tea, when additional guests joined the party. Those who played bridge were: Mrs. Lewis C. Nead, Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Hugh Gearin, Mrs. John Burgard, Mrs. George which may be bought today at a decided saving, because it was made when raw fur prices were lower. Many other beautiful furs and fur garments may be obtained now at prices much lower than next season's.

As Sketched Wrap of Hudson Seal and Siberian Squirrel

Hudson Seal is the term used for Seal Dyed Muskrat.

Store Your Winter Furs

in our modern cold storage vaults. Phone Mar. 785 for rates and other information.

H. Liebes & Co
ESTABLISHED 189-191
FURS BROADWAY

Easter Fashions

Depicting Spring's
Most Charming Modes

Throughout the entire store you'll find evidences that the Emporium is prepared for Easter. Displays of ready-to-wear apparel are complete in variety, style and quality—splendid values representing real merchandising achievement.

Of First Importance Is The Easter SUIT

Varied Style and Fabric

$49.50 $59.50 $69.50

Tricotine is the favored material, especially in navy blue, for it combines smartness with serviceability. Men's wear serge, Jersey and velour are also good. These suits invite attention by ripple jackets, tucked backs, distended pockets, fancy vests, trim, youthful lines.

A Noteworthy Selection of Silk Frocks

$39.50 $47.50 $59.50

Taffeta is prominent, of course, either alone in its crisp daintiness or combined with filmy figured georgette. Crepe de chine, crepe meteor and tricolette are included. Models developed along straight lines or wide-at-the-hips, with drapery, pleating or ruffling.

Tricotine FROCKS for Street Wear

$39.50 $49.50 $59.50

Interesting style departures and novel trimming of braid, embroidery, stamp these frocks as the latest mode. For bright spring days one increases their usefulness by discarding the coat and adding a chic fur neckpiece. (Yes, we have fur scarfs, also.)

Hats Good Looking and Moderately Priced

$7.50 $8.50 $10.50 $12.50

A wonderful variety of clever styles at these small prices is shown on the third floor.

EMPORIUM
Z. SWETT CO.
124 TO 128 SIXTH ST. JUST OFF WASHINGTON

Only two weeks until Easter. And here are helpful suggestions for new wearables.

Short Coats

Are in Vogue

$35.00 $45.00 $55.00

Coats on sports lines, modishly styled and of comfortable weight. Polo cloth, jersey and velour are well-liked materials. Tuxedo or throw collars of angora distinguish some, while smart belts of leather or cloth are ever-present.

Select Your New Blouse From This Display

New Hip-Length
Blouses of Printed Georgette
$19.50

Dainty things in delightful color combinations, short-sleeved, collarless, tying at the hip in sash ends.

Crepe de Chine Blouses
$5.95 $7.50 $8.95

Heavy quality crepe leagues itself with clever styling, modified tailored modes. White, flesh and colors.

Georgette Blouses
White and Flesh

$17.50 $19.50 $21.50
Real fillet lace or hand embroidery lends a touch of elegance to their simplicity.

New Smocks and Casques
$4.95 $5.95 $6.95

Gayly colored garments of linen and wonderlin, closely resembling linen. Reseda, cherry, copen, rose, leather, salmon and white are the hues, offset with striking designs in wool yarn embroidery.

Tweed-O-Wool
Suits and Coats
The English Idea in American Outdoor Apparel

EQUALLY at home on the open road and on the most exclusive avenue, a Tweed-O-Wool Suit will be the favored garment in your wardrobe.

Tweed-O-Wool Suits are fashioned on smart English lines, so distinctive that they appeal particularly to the woman accustomed to custom tailoring.

The fabric is of pure worsted, knitted closely, damp-proof, wrinkle-proof, and so staunch that it is almost wear-proof.

You can see Tweed-O-Wool Suits and Coats in Portland only at my store.

$45, $50

—Third Floor

BEN SELLING
LEADING CLOTHIER
Morrison at Fourth

We Challenge the World on Cleaning or Dyeing
Draperies and Curtains

Broadway Dye Works

East 625

F. E. Kreglow, Mgr.

PLAYER ROLLS

Three Very Popular
WORD ROLLS
You Ought to Have These
If You Have a Player

"Venetian Moon"

A Fox Trot that's having a big run—$1.25

"Come On and Play Wiz Me"

One-Step, played by Pete Wendling—$1.25

"You're a Million Miles From Nowhere"

A dainty Waltz for both singing and dancing—$1.25

Special Attention to Mail Orders

Aeolian Player Pianos, $745
Pianolas From $800
Duo-Art Pianos From $1225

Sherman, Clay & Co.

Sixth and Morrison Streets
Portland (opp. Postoffice)
Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane

