Hedlund, Mrs. Cecil Green, Mrs. Carl G. Lieke, Mrs. Ralph Watson, Mrs. Mabel G. Webb, Mrs. Edward Philip Mall, Mrs. Edith Davenport and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Collins entertained a few of their friends Monday evening in honor of their seventh wedding anniversary. Music, games and cards were the pleasures of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. B. Strang and Mrs. Hansen, after which delicious refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Collins had as their guests: Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Rasch, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Strang, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lund, Miss T. Andersen, Miss G. Brandt, Miss M. Brandt, Miss M. Boddling, Miss O. Gunderson, Miss H. Boddling and H. Hagen, I. N. Stavseth, E. Brandt, A. Bergsvik and S. P. Goodwin.

A delightful St. Patrick's party was given the B. L. L. by chapter N. P. E. O. Sisterhood, on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Gill. In addition to appropriate games planned for the evening musical numbers were given by Mrs. A. H. Cantrell and W. J. Gill. A reading was given by Mrs. Gruell and an interesting talk by Mrs. John Talbot. L. D. Goodrich furnished much enjoyment by his humorous ceremony initiating four new B. L. L.

Members of Ivanhoe lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, were the recipients of a pleasant surprise on Tuesday evening. During their work the sisters of Orpheus temple No. 18, Pythian Sisters, secretly arranged a sumptuous buffet lunch in the banquet hall adjoining the lodge room. Following the serving several short talks were made and the sisters assured the knights that if a reasonable number would join Orpheus temple a banquet would be given them at least once a month. It is hoped the attention of all knights will be drawn to this liberal undertaking.

Thursday evening, March 18, the Harlequin club gave a banquet in honor of those who took part in the minstrel vaudeville that the club has given twice in the past two months.

Mrs. Gordon E. Lennox presided over a daintily-appointed luncheon in the rose room of the Benson hotel on Thursday. Covers were laid for 12, her guests including members of a bridge club.

Mrs. C. V. Stater was hostess at a charming luncheon given Friday at the Hotel Portland in honor of Mrs. J. C. Zanker, formerly of this city but now of Seattle, who is here for a short visit. Covers were placed for 12 at a even dance which was attended by more than 75 couples. The hall was tastefully decorated in the colors of the Emerald Isle and a number of the dancers appeared in costume. Dinty Moore's "bar" did a thriving business in all refreshments of a greenish tint. The committee in charge of the affair—Messrs. Jordan, Williamson, Carpenter and Duffield, had numerous stunts in surprise for those that attended.

The Laurelhurst club ladies' progressive unit held a business meeting Tuesday afternoon at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Edith Davenport entertained with a line party at the Orpheus Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. C. Zanker of Seattle, who is visiting in

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Kerr and their daughter Isabel have returned from a several months' trip to Australia, where they were the guests of Mrs. Kerr's family.

William Allen Neilson, president of Smith college, will spend next Tuesday in Portland. He will speak at Reed college at 4 P. M.

The Smith college alumnae and their husbands will entertain Dr. Neilson at dinner at the University college. It is very much regretted that Dr. Neilson will spend only one day in Portland.

A delightfully informal luncheon was given for Mrs. H. C. Wortman on Friday, when Mrs. George Lawrence Jr. was hostess. Covers were laid for 12 of Mrs. Wortman's friends, including Mrs. Edwin Caswell, Mrs. George Marsh, Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons, Mrs. Willis Dunaway, Mrs. Jay Smith, Mrs. Anderson Cannon, Mrs. W. B. Peacock, Mrs. I. Vandump, Miss Florence Stackpole and Mrs. Wilcox, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emmons.

Mrs. Charles Lauer of 670 Everett street, celebrated her 75th birthday last Thursday, when she was at home to all of her friends. Many of the women pioneers called.

Miss Violet Grayson entertained informally Wednesday night at her home in the Tudor Arms. The rooms were prettily decorated with spring flowers and foliage. Covers were laid for the following guests: The Misses Kitty McGuire, Frieda Rittmann, Regina Horger, Margaret Keelan, Frigidie Giebler, Mary McIntyzeny, Mrs. J. H. Lynch, Mrs. Mark Grayson and the hostess.

Miss Laura Elsie Shirley and Ross Forsyth were quietly married on the evening of March 9 at the First Presbyterian church, only immediate relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wochos attended the couple and Rev. Agnew Johnston performed the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shirley of 435 Mason street and is a graduate of Jefferson high school. Mr. Forsyth is in the automobile business in this city.

Oscar Noren. The announcement was made March 17 by Miss Madeline Sutherland at her home to 12 of Miss Morris' most intimate friends. Each guest found the surprise unfolded in a tiny envelope used as a place card on a table most artistically decorated with daffodils, yellow tulips and tiny keppies. The guests were the Misses Ellen and Edna Kelly, Lucile Dowling, Frances Kirby, Aileen Noren, Gladys Noren, Mrs. Tom Wiley, Mrs. James Sunner, Helen Sutherland and Julia Smith. Miss Morris, daughter of Mrs. N. V. Morris and a student of Jefferson high school, has a host of friends in this city. Mr. Noren is a University of Oregon student and a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Noren, who reside in this city.

The Montavilla gym class entertained the husbands and friends at the clubhouse on March 15, when 40 members and 60 friends were present.

The Misses Lucile, Charlotte and Elizabeth Ellis were young hostesses on St. Patrick's day for a dance at the residence of their parents, Colonel and Mrs. Ellis. Those who enjoyed this merry affair were Misses May Walsh, Mary Nolan, Irma Tanner, Beatrice Conway and William Walsh, Thomas Shea, Gerald Conway, Cadets Jack Wright, Francis Rose, Arlyn Evey and Stuart Hopkins from Hill Military academy.

The State Bank employees enjoyed a venison dinner followed by a dancing party at the Automobile clubhouse on Wednesday evening. About 30 persons were present and during the dinner listened to singing by Mrs. Arthur H. Olson, wife of the State Bank's clearing teller, and Miss Lorraine Lee, niece of Director W. H. Blair, of Canby Or., and talks by Charles E. Walters on "Co-operation" and S. J. Graham on "Loyalty to Your Bank."

All of the bank officers and several of the directors were present, and also Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Evans of the First National Bank, Canby; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Stephens of the Katsacada State Bank, Estacada; and Mr. and Mrs. A.

Glimpses of The New Blouses

Rose—green—beige—white—navy—black—Georgette, Tricotee, Osaka Crepe—WHICH do you prefer? They're all here—they're all new—they're all irresistibly lovely! Blouses are a delight to the eye and a joy to wear this Spring season!

A rose-colored blouse of Osaka Crepe is embroidered in beige—with a band of beige crepe at the neckline. It has tassels of beige silk and is lovely at $21.95.

Nile green Georgette embroidered in gold and black makes a blouse of rare loveliness with its apron front and sash back. The elbow length sleeves have turn-back cuffs, accordion pleated and black edged. Priced $27.95.

OGUE Patterns are shown exclusively in Portland at our Annex—THE WAIST SHOP, Portland Hotel Court.

The new Vogue Catalogue of Spring patterns is also to be had at the WAIST SHOP.

300 Blouses—A Wonderful Sale

Tailored Blouses $3.95
Dressy Blouses

All week there have been eager calls for "those wonderful blouses you have been having on sale—a friend bought one—and—" So many "friends" have advertised this sale for us that we find it necessary to duplicate the event! And by good fortune a special purchase of blouses—which we had given up expectation of seeing—has just arrived. These—with odds and ends of excellent blouses in our stocks—combine to make this sale extraordinary!

Regular prices are $7.50 to $13.50—Sale price $3.95

Dainty blouses of Georgette—flesh colored, beige, navy blue, white, cream—made in pretty styles, lace trimmed, embroidered and tucked. Some collarless and some with rolling or square collars.

New Sport Handkerchiefs
Patterns to match Spring and Summer Costumes
35c 3 for $1

For gingham frocks and gingham patterned blouses there are pretty plaids in gay colorings.

For frocks with embroidery or trimming in motifs there are be-spotted and be-dotted effects of unusual chic.

And some all-over colored kerchiefs have thread woven in contrasting hue—to simulate the hand-drawn novelties that cost many, many times this low price! Pretty as can be—all of them!

Silk "Envelopes" $2.25

Regularly $3.45 to $4.75
Dainty envelope chemise of crepe de chine or wash satin. They are in a variety of styles—plain tailored or lace trimmed. Not a large quantity in this sale.

Kayser Leatherette Gloves for Women $1.75

Smart gloves that have every appearance of white leather—yet are more flexible and wash beautifully because they're fabric! Lined with chamois colored fabric—they're unusually smart!

Women's Cape Gloves $2.75

Good quality capeskin gloves—always desirable for street wear and driving. They are one-clasp style, with spear backs or fancy embroidery and come in gray or nubuck.

Fancy Mocha Gloves $3.50

Beaver and gray—the most in demand for Spring shades—in one-clasp gloves, with self or fancy embroidery. Soft quality that looks and wears splendidly.

Incoming shipments bring the most pleasing conceits in new FRENCH KID GLOVES—famous brands—known for exquisite softness and workmanship. Many have the new shadow embroidery.

Strap wrist gloves are here in many styles—fabrics, leather and mocha. Exceedingly new and smart!
