L. Lasswell of the State Bank of Battle Ground, Battle Ground, Wash. Maynard Redmond was toastmaster and the employees' committee having the party in charge were: Misses Jennie Parulis, Pansy Oswald, Pearl Westberg and Messrs. Maynard Redmond, Waldemar Spliid and A. H. Herndolfer.

Miss Jessie Lynne Sawyer entertained Wednesday evening with a beautifully appointed dinner party given at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Sawyer. The honor guests were Miss Roberta Downing and June S. Jones, whose wedding is to be an event of June. Covers were placed for 12 at a table made especially attractive by the use of tulips and jonquils which surrounded a miniature lake on which two swans were driven by a kewpie. Candles lighted the room.

The company included: Miss Downing, Miss Opal Downing, Miss Esther Jean Ogden, Miss Helen Shepherd, Miss Alicia O'Neill, Messrs. Jones, Wally Korlam, Kenneth Anderson, Dave Leche, Ralph Reed and Arthur Olsen.

A number of little folks gathered at the home of Edna Baker, 46 West Farragut street, last Wednesday afternoon, March 17, in honor of her seventh birthday. The afternoon was spent in music and games, after which luncheon was served. The guests were: Martha Louise Sten, Tracy Strohecker, Margaret Hill, Elizabeth Hill, Lella Armeten, Marion Keith and Miss Hallie Thomas; Robert Burns, William Nelson, Donald Brown, Richard Brown, Louis Strohecker, Glenn Dodd, Jack Portello and Sydney Youkum.

A delightful gathering of the Sons and Daughters of Erin was held on St. Patrick's day at the home of Miss Lucile Marsh, 7111 Fifty-fifth avenue Southeast. The table was decorated to represent good old Irish, a miniature lake of Killarney surrounded by green shamrocks, moss and Blarney stone filling the center of the table, from which green ribbons and flags stretched out to the guests' places, where the Irish hats served as place-cards.

Each guest was asked to furnish an Irish story, song or recitation, which furnished much amusement. Each guest came, assuming an Irish name.

The following were present: Miss Esther Johnson as Kitty Murphy, Miss Ella Dachel as Mary O'Toole, Miss Edith Craft as Maggie McFadden, Miss Edna Lord as Nancy McLean, Mrs. J. L. Christensen as Mrs. Nell O'Riley, Walter Dachel as Terrence O'More, Herbert Mackey as Bill Plantman, Roland Peeler as Mike Dooley, Harold Holmberg as Timothy Cassidy, Bernard Kenney as Tom Maloney and James L. Christopher as Dennis O'Riley.

Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, honoring their friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Turner. The rooms were decorated with flowers and shrubbery. The table was decorated in the shape of a shamrock and the women wore green crepe dresses. There were about 50 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Prettyman celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Albany, February 10. They were married in Benton county, near Albany. Both are pioneers. Mr. Prettyman came to Oregon in 1847 and Mrs. Prettyman, who was Miss Martha E. Williamson, crossed the plains in 1854. They made their home in Portland for many years, and removed from there to a farm in Benton county. They later moved to Albany, residing there ever since. They have three children—Mrs. M. E. Parker of Newport, Mrs. L. A. Kroschel of Albany, P. E. Prettyman of Portland and a foster son, H. W. Prettyman of Loma, Mont. There are four grandchildren—the Misses Elean and Elizabeth Parker, Juanita Kroschel and Mrs. John Tate (formerly Miss Kamilla Kroschel).

Miss Edith E. Malson's engagement to Arthur Payson Thompson was announced at a luncheon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Malson. Miss Malson is a graduate of Jefferson high school and the Oregon normal, also being well known in Pendleton, where she taught for a few years. Mr. Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of this city. Among the guests present were Misses Helen Coe, Alice Downer, Lois Oakes, Enid Switzer, Harriet Abercrombie, Agnes Dugan, Myrtle Fowler, Dora Lancy, Dudley Tobin, Eleanor Anderson, May Barr, Edith Williams, Thelma Reid, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Otho Hart.

Mrs. H. E. Wrightson gave a St. Patrick's day party for Miss Fay Barnes, fiancée of Herman Wrightson. The afternoon was spent in tying a quilt and in writing limericks about the bride-elect.

The guests included Dorothy

ATTORNEY'S WIFE PLAYS AT WOOD MEETINGS.

Mrs. Barge E. Leonard, who accompanies her husband, the well-known local attorney, on his speaking trips throughout the state in behalf of the Leonard Wood candidacy for the republican presidential nomination, is an accomplished performer on the piano accordion, and has added a desired novelty to meetings of Wood clubs by appearing with her instrument.

During the last few years Mrs. Leonard has appeared as an entertainer at numerous public gatherings and is particularly a favorite with the Progressive Business Men's club, at whose noon luncheons she has performed on several occasions. Mrs. Leonard has announced that her only appearance this season shall be in behalf of Leonard Wood, of whom she is no less an admirer and exponent than her husband and numerous Wood clubs are expecting to have her as a part of future programmes.

COMING EVENTS.
Easter Monday, April 5, is the day set by the Catholic woman's league for its big party to be given at the Hotel Multnomah. The women will be assisted by half a dozen of the prominent Catholic organizations and the affair promises to be one of the largest and most enjoyable of the spring season. The entire mezzanine floor has been engaged for the affair. A large number of card tables will be arranged in the hollyhock room and the peacock room for both bridge and 500 and handsome prizes will be awarded.

Both the ballroom and the assembly room will be used for dancing, two orchestras having been engaged. Refreshments will be served in the room. Prominent women will act as patronesses and a number of attractive girls will serve on the reception committee to welcome and introduce the guests, thus insuring all who attend a good time.

Following are the committees from the various organizations that are interesting themselves in the success of the party: General manager, P. J.

Hanley; secretary, A. B. Cain; treasurer, Daniel Maher; committee from Catholic woman's league, Mrs. J. C. Carter, Mrs. Frank P. Harter, Mrs. Daniel Maher, Mrs. J. E. Forestell, Mrs. P. L.
