THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, MARCH 21. 1920

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. PITTOCK.

133 Sixth Street, Portland, Oregon. MORDEN. Manager. E. B. PIPER.

Manager. Editor. The Oregonian is a member of the Acade-ated. Press. The Associated Press is conveyed entitled to the use for publica-on of all news displatches credited to it all otherwise credited in this paper and the local news onbilable herein. All his paper and i herein. All ial dispatches

Subscription Rates-invariably in Advance.

Sunday included, three months... Sunday included, one month without Sunday, one year , without Sunday, six months , without Sunday, one month..... ay, one year one year

(By Carrier.)

Sunday included, one year ..... Sunday included, three months... Sanday included, one month .... Without Sanday, one year .... without Sanday, three months ...

aib, without Sunday, three months... 195 aib, without Sunday, one months... 45
How to Remit-Schd powordfice money read bank. Stamps coin of curtoncy are to wrear a state of the second state.
Postage Rates-I to 16 pages, 1 cent: 8 to 35 pages, 2 cents: M to 45 pages, 3 said, 50 to 64 pages, 4 cents; 66 to 80 gas. 5 cents: 2 to 38 pages, 6 cents.
Battern Business Office-Verree & Conkin, Stamper building, New York: Verree & Conkin, Steger building, New York: Verree & Conkin, Steger building, Chicago, Verde & Conkin, Steger building, Chicago, Verde & Conkin, Steger building, representative, a building, Decot, State & Conkin, Steger building, Chicago, Verde & Conkin, Steger building, Chicago, Verde & Conkin, Steger building, representative, a Bidwell.

has been too much politics, personal by William Watson, the English poet, is particularly noteworthy. Only one in the sensational poem, "The and party, in the entire matter, be- Woman With the Serpent's Tongue," 1918. that he might be the "unembarrassed composite photograph of Mrs. As-spokesman" of the American nation. quith and her stepdaughter, Violet. Still receiving as little as $150 a year. He was not given any such mandate, but he assumed that it was nevertheless a part of the presidential prerogative and he went ahead. Richard LeGallienne, entitled "The room schools in a single southern Whether he assumed also that the Poet with a Coward's Tongue," which state were closed during 1919, these qualifications of the incumbent of he accompanied with a challenge to districts being without the alternathe presidency justified him in ignor-ing his constitutional advisers, and arose as Asquith declined. The foring his constitutional advisers, and in his own right taking a position of moral, spiritual, intellectual and verses that did a good deal toward sites forth from a line that reads: political leadership in the world, must unifying British patriotic sentiment "Taxpayers generally favor increases be, at least for the present, a ques- in the war,

A question that now must in tion of fervent disagreement between terest British politicians as well as the partisans and opponents of Mr. literary folk is what will become of Wilson. For the present there is to Watson now that the family whom small denominational school in cenbe no league of nations of which he so savagely opposed is showing tral Missouri, which has recently ac-America may be a member. It may signs of seturning to eminence on a not come for months, and even years, reactionary wave of peace. if at all. It must be decided by a olemn referendum" of the American people. President Wilson has his desire that the league be thrown into the campaign. It is not the desire, however, of and conservative, or radical and re-actionary, if you please—are con-spicuously represented among the senators who are for a league with senators who are for a league with farmers." Good food is a matter nineteen. Although, as has been reservations if there is to be a league, now largely within the farmer's own said, the average age of college en-dexter, Penrose, et al., either by approval of their action in the Chi-cago platform or by nomination of approval of their action in the Chi-cago platform or by nomination of cago platform or by nomination of one on which most depends."

2.00 any one of them for the presidency. 2.25 75 It will not thus commit the party the people generally.

Watson quoted Byron, Shelly and It is a serious feature of the situation others as precedents for his course, that regions most in need of educaand the acrimony of the controversy tion are almost entirely deprived of through school. was heightened by a reply written by opportunities. More than 1500 on-in teachers' salaries."

$10,000 a year and a woman pro-GASOLINE AS A PUBLIC NECESSITY. fessor at a salary of $5300, besides Protest of the California railroad calling for bids for a $75,000 dorcommission against the advance in mitory, gives promise of being heard the price of gasoline by the Standard from further if it is given full scope

Oil company of California has for carrying out other ambitious Berlin are in such conflict as to leave brought into strong relief the fact plans. The new dean, it is underhis party, nor of the majority of the that this fuel has become a neces- stood, will be expected to work out republican party. It is not easy to see how a clean-cut issue can be made which will define the exact bighways and streets and the cost of travel on how receives its students, as do most attitude of both parties in intelligible all commodities that are transported other colleges, at the average age of be resistance, marched out with only date for future action. The democ-racy will be under the necessity of justifying the course of the presi-dent in his second that it is seems to be a extremists of the two great branches no harder. This editor also contends president emeritus of Harvard, is the collars. That is going too far. his journey to the Washington capi- BY-PRODUCTS OF THE TIMES Summan Orrgoniant of the republican party-progressive that the reward is not to be measy on that contract of the republican party-progressive that the reward is not to be measy on that contract of the source of t

SURVEYING THE WEST. but whose authentic position is that control, but agreeable social condi-they are for no league. There are tions, including better schools and been many noteworthy exceptions, the avenue age of control trance is about eighteen, there have the second of the commonwealth of the subsection of th The sixty-seventh anniversary of twelve of them and they are repre- better transportation, are matters for the early history of Harvard itself Washington, consisting of the north-twelve of them and they are repre-sented by Borah, Poindexter and the whole community, including city furnishing its full quota of them. ern half of what in 1853 was the dwellers, to determine. "It is not Increase Mather, one of its seven- territory of Oregon, brings to mind leadership of Johnson, Borah, Poin- not be settled until the people who forty-two, although he did not then March, 1853, extended from the Coa con leadership of Johnson, Borah, Poin-a.25 dexter, Penrose, et al., either by live in cities recognize that farming, accept. This was an exceptionally lumbia river and the forty-sixth erations, and thereafter to go on in-or indeed anywhere it is convenient. accept are in that day for a call to reason where it is convenient. Where all is convenient of the brinks of stream o cago platform of by homination of any one of them for the presidency. It will not thus commit the party to courses which are not in accord either with the sentiment of the great body of its members, or of the people concertainty of the people concertainty of the people concertainty of the mather's son of the Rocky moun-tains westward to the Pacific corean. Saac I. Stevens, its first governor, cation brings statistics bearing on the shortage of teachers for the public the people concertaints much shortage of teachers for the public the members, or of the people concertaints of the Mather's contains much shortage of teachers for the public the people concertaints much shortage of teachers for the public the members of the Mather's contains much shortage of teachers for the public the people concertaints and through the mather's son folder the people concertaints and contains much shortage of teachers for the public the people of teachers for the public shortage of teachers for the public the people of the Rocky moun-the shortage of teachers for the public shortage of teachers for the public the people of teachers for the mather's son folder the people of teachers for the shortage of the mather's son folder the people of teachers for the mather's son folder the people of teachers for the mather's son folder the people of teachers for the mather's the folder the people of teachers for the mather's the mather's folder the people of the mather's son folder the people of teachers for the mather's son folder the people of teachers folder the people of teachers for the mather's the folder the son folder the folder teacher's folder teacher's folder teacher's fol schools of the nation nearly up to encouragement for advocates of hot- Traveling by way of St. Louis, he that he has made it possible to "grow this means no fewer than 640,000 were SUMMARY. (1) One-half of the democratic ber of schools closed on February 15 Mather in particular gave evidence 1200 inhabitants, on June 6, and ar-summary and makes and matching before showing and makes and matching before showing before teacher in every six was a man in 1918, will be, at least in the beginning, selected material. There is also lit-ginning with the presidential appeal which Watson subsequently in a for a democratic congress in 1918, signed statement delared to be a elementary schools and $1031 in high their mettle. All the conditions are if not all, of the complex questions involved in determination of the age at which boys and girls ought to get pu

THE LATEST PHASE IN GERMANY.

Sudden collapse of, the counterevolution in Germany has given camouflage constructed on a grand a light task. He left Washington

THE COLLEGE AGE. Stephens college, a comparatively quired prominence by making provision for a dean of education at alternative, and he makes the twin between that range and the Rocky ain and the United States.

Accounts of the conditions under the following: Berlin are in such connect as parallel to and to determine the capacity souri river, and to determine the capacity thement is a surrender or a compro-of the adjacent country to supply, and mise. The Baltic army, which of the Coumbia and Missouri rivers and their tributaties to transport, materials for the construction of the road, great for the construction of the road, great marched in with threats to make the pilation of the results of this re- entific periodicals of the country as to markable undertaking, were the when the squirrels drink, or whether Magazine. "Squirrels drink whenevel portant problems, and are making swim, with only their noses selected material. There is also lit-tle doubt that they will be put on their mettle. All the conditions are favorable to determination of some. if not all, of the complex questions steady, although not sensational, sponding costs. We will not say no nary, and can only be compared with overnor Simpson's Journey Around the World: and some information, not yet published, obtained from Dr. Evans on his geological survey of these regions. A book recommended by the British minister, "Hudson Bay Company," I wish you to remain skeptical as to the prediction Governor Stevens' son, Hazard that either type will be fixed in two Stevens, says that the governor generations of selection. The Call-"really prepared his own instruc- fornia experimenter probably is a rise to suspicion in some quarters tions." No historian, if this be true, victim of his own enthusiasm. He that the whole affair was a piece of will charge him with giving himself promises altogether too much.

scale for the purpose of impressing under official instructions to explore We cannot escape the fact that dethe allies with the necessity of re- and survey a railroad route from the mand for gasoline has increased vising the Versafiles treaty if they sources of the Mississippi river to much faster than the supply. would prevent Germany from sink- Puget sound; to operate from the ing into a chaos of civil war, making upper Mississippi toward the great number of motor vehicles in use in residents from their summer homes ompliance with the terms impos- bend of the Missouri in Montana; the United States increased 1700 per on White lake to Whitehall and resible. Danger of such an outcome to establish a depot at the mouth of cent, while production of gasoline in- turn. is seen by President Deschanel of the Lenowstone: a second party to creased 560 per cent. That the latter The Ruth has had a great career. Working "cuss" Working "cuss" Working "cuss" Working "cuss" That rises ere daylight and "beats it" the kaiser by Dr. Kapp is the dread range, meeting the eastern party greater quantity of this fuel from a president of the United States, then a given quantity of crude oil is shown river steamer, then a ferry and pleasperils a cause for maintenance of the mountains. This was only the begin- by the fact that production of the ure boat again and finally a fishing understanding among France, Brit- ning of the job. Stevens' instruc- latter increased only $5 per cent tug. tions also required him to perform This disparity between increase of the boat was named for the only supply and increase of demand sug- daughter of the president, and was which Kapp withdrew his army from Berlin are in such conflict as to lsave the question open whether the set-tlement is a surrender or a comprofirst claim, the merchant marine and Cleveland, and, despite storms, com industrial plants and public utilities pleted the voyage without a mishap should follow, vehicles used for Following the death of Mr. Clevetransport of passengers and goods logy of the trictly for business come close after. passing through several hands be-

by themselves, being given a repity the fi

Dawn. By Grace E. Hall.

The sweet, expectant hush that walls the calls Of feathered songsters trilling to the east.

Upon the slient morning softly falls, voices of the night have strangely ceased. The

Then in the warming sky the clouds of gray In ragged bits, a downy bed to

By nesting doves, perhaps, are torn A jagged valance hanging from the Then through the rent and clinging mist there glows A deeper tone; the hills are castles high

Designs most grotesque, as each tur-In lines fantastic toward the limpld sky

A million wings seem pulsing in the

That throbs and beats with music never played: The carth is speaking, speaking everywhere,

In language that no mortal ever

A deeper rose; then crimson banners hung

With osteniatious show announc the day; Dawn draws her gaugy drapertes, far flung, And, shocked by growing discord, steals away!

ROBBING PETER TO PAT PAUL. Down with it, down with it! Down with what?

Down with this daylight saving rot What is the saving? Why, nothing at all-lt's just robbing Pater to pay off Paul.

What can be gained by an hour of light When taken from morning and added to night?

Who wouldn't rather remain in his water. Hundreds of their number Than to be aroused a full hour ahead?

just now we are thinking with very much glee. "Why, now in the morning we really can see. Almost daily when Lake Michigan

"We can wash, dress and cat without any light," And it likewise is fine when we come is not frozen a small but powerful tug steams out of Muskegon, Mich., home at night. loaded with nets and returns with a load of fish. The tug is the Ruth, the Now, then, by taking off one hour more. We must turn on the lights and do when he was president, now ending as before. her days as a fishing craft on Lake Michigan, records the Cleveland Plain Oh, what a wonderful saving of day! Burning up light for which we m

For several years this boat was the pay. flagship of the yacht clubs of Chi-

It's all very well for such office men That begin working (?) at also or at ten. But what of the common man, poor like us?

Farmers and housewives and hard workers, al Why must we stand for this nonsense at all?

Lot's all get together and do what We C31 To knock out this daylight saving

DINE. P. P.

TOO MUCH BAN SAID ALREADY. Hear my story of Dakots, Where the wolves grow long and lean; Of the hero, Ole Olsen.

And the horoine, Christine.

Cars used solely or chiefly for pleas- came the property of Muskegon fistire might properly be put in a class ermen.

Dealer.

yacht and pride of Grover Cleveland land the Ruth was sold and after the people on a platform of repudiation of its leader? It is true, to be sure, that there is a distinct revolt ment of his leadership. The situation for the democrats is only in part relieved by the fact-if it shall be a fact-that Mr. Wilson will not be their candidate for a vehicles but to every engine run by third time. In that event there gasoline on road or rail, land or sea. would be no escape from the issue, It applies also to locomotives, ships, which would be Mr. Wilson himself. But if he shall not be the nominee, will be the issue. In an extraordi- form and the smaller will be the suppolicies and made party history in oil the past three years. Yet in the final test, more than one-half of stricted to a point where it did not his party in the senate left the presireservations.

that they were in the minority, and of a "solemn referendum" was a gasoline to make a motor fuel. blunder and was by all means not party. It will go into the campaign divided and distracted, with the certainly of a great defeat. Without States, will come into the world proves successful, the element in ed-consideration of the merits of the market. New fields are constantly ucation which it symbolizes will or excuse, the stubborn whims, inveterate taotlessness and undernocratic autocracy of a president, nor tape. The Persian field is extending. proposed to establish corresponds to take counsel with men in his own party, or any party, who should have of automobiles in the United States perienced and emotional. The crists It is a humorous aspect of an in- promises to reach between nine and that educational leadership will be mates for this year. Safety of the However, he discovered on this trip sufferable condition that here and ten million by the end of 1920. there a democrat suggests that the is supplanting coal as fuel on ships, ing with the modern tendency of the treaty, but Germany may cite the the treaty but Germany may cite the the the sound, way for the party to extricate itself especially those of the navy. Care colleges, and it is supposed that democrat, and says so, and who not preclude stringent measures besides has lately expressed himself, against extortion. as in accord with the republican tion of the league of nations-attification with reservations. discussion of this phase of the ques- new dean of Stephens in developing PFor ratification with reservations tion superfluous; the issue now be-Il be in the republican platform, fore the country, as an agricultural Missouri college an experimental labwithstanding the action of the ir- editor recently pointed out, is onellables in voting against any whether it is to be rewarded in pro-gue. It is significant that the portion to other work that is at least demonstration. Dr. Charles W. Ellot, dent in his negotiations with the new way of expressing the Hunting- out of a plan, long cherished by powers and in his attitude toward ton idea of charging all that the traf-the senate. How can it go before fic will bear, for it is not even pre-the people on a white the problem of the problem of the problem of the senate of the problem of the tended that the higher price is necessary to give the company a fair profit.

the high school, but it meets the The first remedy which suggests views of those who think that the within the party against his pro- itself is public regulation of the price youth who intends to go to college gramme, but it cannot be said that of gasoline on the same principle ought to get about the business it goes to the extent of abandon- that justifies regulation of railroad sooner, while for those who have no rates. Gasoline is necessary to motor ambition for higher education th save all its content, and the alcohol.

transport, therefore he who controls present grammar school and high the price of that fuel controls in part the cost of motor transport. This school courses are unsatisfactory. The theory is in substance that statement applies not only to motor by the time the boy or girl has reached the junior year in high school, he or she will have pretty well determined upon an educational factories and residence buildings programme. The highest mortality which use fuel oil, for the higher rate in high schools is in the first it is clear that the Wilson record fuel oil will be converted into that of the students have changed their goes the price of gasoline the more nary degree Mr. Wilson has defined ply and the higher the price of fuel but there is a kind of tragedy in the minds about going longer to school.

fact that, the high school course If the price of gasdline were rehaving been formulated largely as yield a liberal profit to the producer, two years have been practically a preparation for college, the first it would defeat another purpose wasted. The student has received dent and voted with the majority of which we should have in view-in-republicans for ratification with crease of production as well as de-which it is the aim of colleges to velopment of other fuels adapted to bestow, and has done nothing to fit

It is not a sufficient explanation the internal combustion engine. Past himself either to be a competent meincrease in production of gasoline as chanic or a good clerk. It is supmust yield to the majority, nor that they and the president were tactically compared with crude on has been posed, with a good deal of teason natural gas and by extended use of high school could with equal facility outgeneraled, nor that they had come the cracking process. Much progress undertake work of college standard. to the conclusion that they were has also been made in adapting al-wrong and Senator Lodge and his cohol as a starting fuel and in blend-group were right. This is not all, in distilled in such a more read to increase by a large proportion The obvious political reason is that is distilled in such a manner as to the number of present high school they felt that the presidential scheme benzol and toluol are blended with college curriculum, thus entered on in serious spirit, and it probably at Great increase in supply is in pros- the same time would increase the to be accepted by the democratic pect. Peace with Russia on some number who would receive two years terms cannot be long delayed, and more of education in the grammar against the common enemy. with it the output of the Russian schools. It will be borne in mind field, exceeding that of the United that if the Missouri experiment league, with or without reservations, opened in the United States, the press their campaign for reconstrucit is clear that no party can stand latest being in Montana, and the tion of primary education so that it on a platform which must explain, leasing law will stimulate develop- will be more valuable to the youths ment in the west unless the govern- of both sexes who are unwilling to ment should fix royalty too high or finish the higher course. should the up leases in too much red The dividing line which it is now its proper place in government, nor pushed in many countries, and in a period of childhood will continue to Oil of a slightly different kind, in keepway for the party to extricate itself from its dilemma is to nominate a gentleman for president who is not to the point where increased produc-ion will be checked, but that does Professor Charles H. Judd, head of the department of education of the University of Chicago, one of the Enough people already know that leading advocates of the new methfarm work is hard work to make od, is expected to co-operate with the

the new system, thus making the out of a plan, long cherished by certain educators, by which event-ually grammar school courses will be extended two years. It cannot be said that it has attained the pro-portions of a movement to abolish

Bernstorff and other militarists, a region 2000 by 250 miles in extent, get in or out of a car. new assembly is to be elected and no chiefly along its northern expanse, traitors are to be punished. which had hardly been touched by

The parties to this compromise the immigration of the '40s, and able was too sure to interfere in a ranges and 1000 miles of prairie then sake of notorlety. He makes no re- at $30,000. nation which is in a state of fusion. regarded as practically a desert, and More probably the militarists over- of ascertaining the navigability of the headline over the story of the in- one asked. estimated the weakness of the Ebert two great rivers, as to which there troduction of a freak bill. government and the readiness of the was . much conflicting testimony army and the people to rally to their Stevens' own party on the way west support. Ebert and Noske owe their examined at least nine passes ictory to the promptness and unan- through the main range of the mity with which the people re- Rockies and four in the Bitterroot trike and to evident conviction of now employed by the Great Northern have against Ebert, they do not want for Lieutenant Mullan, a member of den. the kaiser back. Reinforcements did the party, is on the route of the not come to the Baltic freebooters, Northern Pacific. Meanwhile Capand they were in danger of starving in the midst of a hostile city. in the midst of a hostile city.

But the strike succeeded only too made an examination of the Snoqualmie pass, at the head of the well for Ebert's purpose. The Sparcans, always on the alert to seize Yakima river, explored the Okanoupon any disturbance as an opporunity to strike a blow for dictator- proceeded to Colville, Wash., where he met Governor Stevens, then comship of the proletariat, tried to turn ing west. Captain McClellan was the strike into a red revolution. Ebert found that it was fast getting out of hand. Kapp realized that the bia river pass was the only one have gone to work are better off. people were against him. Both saw worth considering. He regarded it while the reformers are experiencing as probable that winter snows in most of the vicissitudes. that by fighting out the question handed back to the kalser, they to twenty-five feet deep. Hazard night end by handing it over to the Stevens is disposed to criticise Capbolshevists. They therefore compro- tain McClellan severely for this, but mise and combine their forces it would seem that on general principles his judgment has been

Yet in dealing with the allies they vindicated. The Columbia river pass can derive some profit from the if not, as McClellan then regarded it. Kapp fiasco. The extension of time the only one worth considering, was granted by the allies for reduction of at least the most promising for a he army to 200,000 men expires on trail-blazing railroad venture at a April 10, but the army was estimated Period when railroad building in the a month ago at 300,000 to 400,000 west was wholly an experiment. men, besides a police force of 160,-000 men commanded by veteran that on the journey from Fort Van-Governor Stevens says in his diary army officers and equipped with couver to Olympia, which took five both field and heavy artillery, days, "No special incident worthy of his defiant and contemptuous at-tempt at exclusion of congress from its proper place in government, nor pushed in many countries, and in a period of childhood will continue to his continuous and insolent refusal few years should bring substantial be marked by considerably more of the security police and the ettizens' the pleasure of camping out; I results. But demand promises to guidance, of compulsory studies, on guard, at over a million men. This is now advise voyagers in the interior heep pace with supply. The number the theory that youth is both inexprobably a larger force than France, when they get suddenly into the of automobiles in the United States perienced and emotional. The crisis now has and is nearly three times the rains west of the Cascades, to take army provided by the British estiallies requires strict compliance with that "not only was it entirely prac inflammable condition of the country but that the work was light and the as proof that a large army is neces- material for construction of all kinds

Indians greatly outnumbered th Prussianism and may be warned that, whites in the territory then. Of the the German army alone Keeps it whites there were only 3965, of whom from French soil. Thus an attempt 1582 were qualified voters. These to overthrow him is a card in Ebert's were scattered over a region 600 by hand in dealing with the allies. 550 miles in extent, and living under conditions that would have daunted

Troubles arising from the new dog law never will stop. The latest com-plainant is the woman clerk of Grant tricted supply when there was not enough to go around. Such a restriction would not be as severe as rationing of flour and sugar, to feted about the country trying in the facts which we cheerfully submitted dur- vain to find some individual who is ing the war, and it would improve willing to face responsibility. But ing the war, and it would improve willing to face responsibility. But the public health by encouraging for eight months those persons with walking on the part of people who "executive ability, broad ideas and With the help of sweet Christine

In other words, it was a job of walking on the part of people who "executive ability, broad ideas and Noske and other ministers are to re-sign in favor of Won Seecht, Von seecht, Von seecht, Von seecht, Von seiter 2000 by 250 miles in extent dodged. Roy F. Soule, editor of "Hardware

A New York legislator has intro-Age," who spoke at the hardware duced a bill limiting the size of dealers' convention in Milwaukee, could hardly have staged the coun- which was known at all to only a headlines on a news account of a said he knows of a score of jobs payter-revolution from its opening to few trappers, gold-seekers and mis-this conclusion, for the unforesee-this conclusion, for the unforesee-strictions, however, on the size of "Why can't they be filled?" some "Because business and capital have developed faster than executives." Mr. The man with a row of peas peep-Soule said. "There are plenty of men ng above the ground and radishes capable of earning $30,000 a year, but beginning to show their heads is a they haven't learned to overcome an real object lesson in preparedness. sponded to their call for a general range. Marias pass, one of these, is The "I-thought-you-didn't-etc." boys ty and their jobs. Fear is the great inborn fear of themselves, their abilihave lame allbis. It's the man that est steam roller designed to flatten the people that, whatever they may railroad, and Mullan pass, named figures ahead that gets the early gar-Journal.

> The Missouri mule has a lot of good The new protection issue is that of traits and then again it has some bad protection against the elements, and volves such matters as clothing and ones, so that its good deeds are very shelter, subjects that will be more often nullified by its deflections, but widely understood than those that it remained for a Phelps county, Miswere being discussed by the tariff inal stunt in the demerit way for that

Yesterday the German outlook was St. Louis Post-Dispatch. better. The day before it was worse. then of the opinion that the Colum- The fact probably is that those who several of his mulas out in the field in order that they might take exercise. The long-cared fellows were being fed for the market and had been in the barn for several months. Two Occasionally we are reminded that of the mules in adjacent stalls had Which clothed the Grecian bards of we still live near the frontier. The been unable to get together because Lane county coon hunter who got of the stall divisions. his bear with an ax cannot have for-No sooner had the animals been let out into the field than the two took gotten the lessons he learned in an earlier day became enraged and selzed the other Major Schroeder talks of flying by the throat. with its teeth, choking And spread her golden gul with from San Francisco to New York in it to death before the farmer could ten hours, and it is a venturesome stop the fight. The dead mule was prophet who will contradict him, in worth more than $300 and it took light of recent achievements in only a few minutes for the other animal to kill it.

Mule men who were asked about German warships are coming to America, but under different circumcould not recall a similar instance stances than attended the arrival of They had heard of one kloking anthe giant submarine at New London other to death on several occasions, only a few years ago but that a regular buildog throat choker is a new one on them. An "odor patrol" has been estaben begin to read the seed catalished by the Philadelphia health delogues and wonder whether such fruit ever grew as is pictured by the partment to trace the source of offen makers thereof.

A 500,000 orchard deal is proof that some one has faith in the fuof locating factories or other estab-lishments from which the trouble em-anates. All day and all night these ture of the fruit industry and is willing to back it with his cash.

have cars, there may be a chance to 24 hours to receive complaints of disget a jury that will convict a thief.

A suggestion for Lent: Self denial a the use of gaseline. A suggestion for Lent: Self denial built denial public Ledger. times is no safer a job than that of in the use of gasoline.

They were sleightny in a cuttor, The seat just made for two, All huddled up in griggly robes, It has nobody to attach itself to For eight months one has been buf-Just as we used to do.

Now Ole was a bashful man

His ruby lips grew ashen pale. He trembled on her name. But suddenly he beliowed out:

"Vill ye halp me holt me claim?" She nextled close and whispered "Yep And set the wedding day. t came so sudden-like that she Didn't know what else to say.

His conversation dropped an deal As the lonely lake below-"Yust yingle wingle" of the bells And the creaking of the

As miles sped on he sat as mule As a Viking Christmas tree, Until she cried: "My Ole man, Why don't you talk to me?"

Then Ole gracked his whip above His bronchos, Taft and Teddy And shook his head and drawled: "I Too much ban said already." -W. S. GORDON.

DREAM AND REALITY. A sweet-faced dream came walking by So frail 'twould seem a passing sigh souri, hybrid to devise the most orig. Might wait her from the rese-grown in which she walked, but old and ETay' There trudged another at her side:

A farmer near Rolla, Mo., turned The gargoyle called the dream his bride

And if she laughed or if she wept, Or if she smiled or if she slept; Or woke from out her heavenly lyrs A liquid, melting, maddening fire,

The grizzled monster mocked and jeered At every beauteous thing she reared, Since with each other. One suddenly And every shape of beauly bright He marred and broke with main and broke with main and might.

blight Wouldst know how such a pair could matel Wouldst know how such a thing could be?

The dream was what our dreams oreate.

the unusual occurrence said they could not recall a similar instance. GUY FITCH PHELPS.

A SONG IN SPRING.

O, my heart fares forth in the sweet spring weather, Flying with the frolic winds that laugh along the lawn, Where the thrilling tananger figures a scarlet flaming feather. And the silver birches lean against the dawn.

The magic winds are whispering among the misty sedges; And my heart fares out in the gold of day begun. Fiying with the tananger along the woodland edges Where the birches laugh to silver in hear the wild birds calling from the magic forest aisles As they beat about the doorway of the gold, gold dawn-

0. I follow where the blue-eyed maid is luring me with smilles. And where birches lean in silver

'gainst the son. VERNE BRIGHT.

the air.

Now is the time when all good sive smells against which complaints have been received at the city hall Men with extraordinarily k Men with extraordinarily keen noses have been assigned to the duty

"smell detectives" are on duty in re-By and by, when half the people lays, while the office of the division of housing and sanitation is open for et a jury that will convict a thief. agreeable smells. Being mayor of an Irish city these have been selected for this work, be-breed of livestock, it is related by the