Chicago Lightweight Expected to Finish Training Here.

SHRINERS TO SEE WINNER

out in Convention Week Will Be Given to Best Man Surviving Go at Armory Friday.

BY RICHARD RASHARP. Ever Hammer, the Chicago light-weight, who is scheduled to step ten ounds with Eddie Shannon at the armory next Friday night, will arrive ere Tuesday morning and finish his training for the boy who showed to such good advantage with Freddle Anderson two weeks ago.

In meeting the Chicago battles Shannon will face a lad who has met the leading contenders for the lightweight crown during the past three ears, including Freddie Welsh a few months before ha was dethroned, and Benny Leonard shortly before he beame boss of the 133-pounders.

To the winner of the coming go has been promised a match with the champion here at the Shriners' con vention and as Bobby Evans, match maker of the Portland commission has told Billy Gibson to name his own price for the go, the chances are that the champion will agree to show his wares with the winner of the Ham-mer-Shannon mill.

Another boy on Friday night's card who is eager to meet Leonard here Shrine week, is 'Harry Schuman, the sensational marine, who is going like a house-afire, and if he can dispose of Stanley Willis it will make Evans think a bit before selecting the boy to meet the champion at the Sarine concluye.

It was only under promise that he would be considered as an opponent for Leonard that the matchmaker was able to obtain Schuman to take part in anything but a headliner, for it is the first time in several years that Schuman has made his appearance on x bill where he is not featured as the headliner.
Schuman is not the only boy on the card being put of Friday who is de-serving of a main vent, for Joe Gor-man, who is down to meet Eddis Jackson, the crack Seuttle feather-weight, has perhaps the best following of any of the local boys.
