Miss Esther Tucker and Robert Livingston at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Tucker in Hoyt street last Wednesday night.

The service was read by Dr. A. A. Morrison in the presence of the two families and a few intimate friends.

The residence was lovely with flowers. The drawing room was a mass of Japanese quince blossoms. Sprays of white plum blossoms were used in the music room while Madonna lilies and white cherry blossoms were used in the room where the ceremony was held.

Mrs. Spencer Biddle, who was matron of honor for her sister, wore pale pink crepe, while Miss Susan Tucker, another sister, wore pastel blue net. Each carried pink Ophelia roses and white narcissus.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dr. Ernest Tucker. Collin Livingstone was best man.

Mrs. Tucker, who received with the bridal party at the reception which followed the ceremony, was gowned in gray satin with an over-dress of net. She carried pale yellow primroses.

Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone will make their home in Wenatchee.

Miss Martha Whiting became the bride of Kenneth Samuel Reed on Easter Monday at the First Presbyterian church.

The bride was smartly gowned in a midnight blue traveling suit, worn with a small black straw hat trimmed with pink roses. She wore a corsage of orchids. She was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Virginia Whiting, who was gowned in a white satin striped dress with a picture hat. She carried pink sweet peas.

Robert Stubbs was best man. The trips up the highway and several informal dinners.

Mrs. Sherman R. Hall entertained most charmingly with a reception at her residence on Waverly Heights, when Mrs. Gordon Voorhies was the honor guest. Mrs. Voorhies and her family will leave May 1 for Medford to make their home. For the reception Mrs. Hall's residence was artistically decorated in spring blossoms.

The handsomely appointed tea table was presided over by Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. Thomas L. Elliot, Mrs. Walter Burns, Mrs. George S. Whiteside and Mrs. William Brewster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kollock were hosts for a delightful dinner Friday night in the Arcadian grill at the Multnomah hotel in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Appleby. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Appleby, Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Ball and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schneelock.

The officers and employes of the Pacific Power & Light, Gas & Coke company gave their annual ball at the Multnomah hotel Thursday night, when about 300 persons attended.

Proceeding the dance, a group of the officials had dinner at the Portland hotel. At a table lovely with spring flowers were seated Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Laine, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Wood and Mr. and Mrs. George Nevins.

Mrs. C. E. Morey and her son, Edward Eastham, left Portland Thursday for Seattle, from where they will sail yesterday for China. They will spend some time in Tien Tsin with Barry Eastham, who is a member of the faculty of Pei Yang university in that city. They plan to be away about eight months.

Mrs. Charles Chenery entertained for Mrs. Morey Saturday, when about 25 old friends came to say farewell. Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal presided at the tea table and was assisted by Miss Susan Chenery.

The Misses Cornelia and Virginia Tevis were charming young hostesses Tuesday for tea at the residence of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Tevis on Hancock street. Miss Antoinette Moreas was honor guest.

Mrs. William Burgard and Mrs. John Hayden presided and were assisted by Miss Georgianna Mears, Miss Elizabeth Peacock, Miss V'ona Guthrie and Miss Jean Stevens. About 60 matrons and maids called.

Mrs. Edmund Mautz left Thursday with her three children, Dorothy, Marjorie and David, for Fort Worth, Tex., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stripling.

On Wednesday Mrs. Anderson Cannon asked a few friends to have tea with Mrs. Mautz at her residence in Irvington. Mrs. E. Richard Hoyk and Mrs. Merrill Mores poured tea.

Mrs. James Lyons of Tacoma is the guest of Miss Katherine Hart at Portland Heights. On Thursday Mrs. Hart entertained most informally with tea for her guest.
