

COUNTY AGENTS VALUABLE

POSITIONS SAID TO BE HELD BY MEN OF HIGH TYPE.

Visitors Urging Advertising Pacific Northwest Among Farmers of East and Middle States.

That the farmers of the east and middle west have little conception of the unusual advantages and opportunities in the Pacific northwest for farming of all kinds, and that the most effective kind of advertising which this section could do at this time would be directed towards this class of people, is the declaration of A. H. Billingslea of New York, eastern representative for a number of farm papers, including Western Farmer, published in this city. In this belief he is strongly seconded by his brother, J. C. Billingslea, agent for farm papers at Chicago.

The two Mr. Billingsleas were in Portland last week, having just concluded a tour of the most productive areas of Washington. Under the guidance of the county agents, they were given a glimpse of the wheat fields of the Palouse, the orchards of Walla Walla, Yakima and Wenatchee, the berry lands of the Puget Sound, Puget sound dairy farms, and then the Willamette valley.

"Keep your eyes on the job," was the advice of A. H. Billingslea. "I was greatly impressed with the high type of men occupying these positions in the northwest states. Do not run the danger of losing them through inadequate pay, because they are leading in a scientific farm development, the value of which it is hard to calculate. If the farmers of the east and middle west could just be made to realize the opportunities in Oregon and Washington there would be a great rush of farm-seekers to this country."

HORSE SHOW IS SLATED

NIGHT EXHIBIT TO FEATURE SHRINE AND FESTIVAL.

Prizes Totaling $3500 Will Be Awarded and Premium List Sent to Exhibitors.

Prizes totaling $3500 will be distributed to the owners of the winning animals at the night horse show to be held in Portland June 21 to 23 inclusive, as a feature of Shrine and Rose festival activities, according to the premium list sent to a large number of sportsmen and owners of blooded horses throughout the northwest.

The show, which will be held each night in Multnomah field, has received the indorsement of both the local Shrine officials and the Rose festival association. It will be under the general auspices of the Northwest Horse Show association.

T. T. Strain, who was manager of the night horse show for the Pacific International Livestock exposition here last fall, will be the manager during festival week. Charles Wellington Green of Moberly, Mo., is prominent authority on horses, will be judge. Already a considerable number of entries have been made and prize winning animals from many points along the coast will be shown, according to Mr. Strain. The entries will close on June 12. It was announced, in order that names of exhibitors and horses may be placed in the official festival week programme.

SEVEN WOMEN, WHO LIVED NEAR SPOKANE, SAID TO BE WIVES OF RICHARD HUIRT, MODERN BLUEBEARD.

Top, left—Elizabeth Pryor, possibly slain near Portland or Tacoma, and Alice M. Ludington. Below, left to right—Mrs. Beatrice Andrewartha, Huiirt, from picture taken in 1907, and Miss Nina DeLoney of Eureka, Mont. SPOKANE, Wash., April 24.—(Special)—Richard Huiirt, the modern "Bluebeard" who was arrested at Hollywood, Cal., when his wife, formerly Miss Kathryn Wombacher of Spokane, employed a private detective to follow him and find out where he went when he absented himself from her, married seven women in Spokane and tributary towns in ten months of last year. Five of the wives are reported to be missing.

Miss Elizabeth Pryor was a Spokane woman. He married her at Coeur d'Alene, the local Gretna Green, March 25, 1919. He gave his name as Milton Lewis. It is charged that she was slain June 9, 1919, near Portland. A body believed to be hers has been found in a shallow grave. Two days later, June 11, he married another Spokane woman, Miss Bertha Goodrich, a department store employe. She also is missing.

Miss Nina DeLoney of Eureka, Mont., married Huiirt at San Francisco December 5, 1919. He then gave his name as C. S. Harvey. She, too, has disappeared.

Miss Alice Ludington of Quincy, Wash., was married at Seattle, July 12, 1919, under the name of Louis Hilton. The last her relatives heard from her was a typewritten letter, presumably written by Huiirt.

Mrs. Beatrice Andrewartha of Roseland, B. C., was married to Huiirt under the name of Harry M. Lewis February 5, 1919. Last heard from her was a typewritten letter, presumably written by Huiirt.

A picture of Huiirt was taken here in 1907 when he was interested in a canning company.
